139th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA.

TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1923.

The One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled by appointment as above at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, The Rt. Rev. Philip Mercer Rhinelander, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., assisted by the Bishop Suffragan, The Rt. Rev Thomas James Garland, D.D., D.C.L., The Rev. J. DeWolf Perry, D.D., The Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D., and The Rev. Richard J. Morris.

The Bishop read the names of those who have died during the past Convention Year, with a special claim on our prayers:

Of Bishops of the Church:

Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, Presiding Bishop; devoted, loyal Churchman; heroic Missionary; strong-hearted Soldier of the Cross; wise in counsel; of childlike faith; of tender heart; of unconquerable hope.

Cortlandt Whitehead
Gershom Mott Williams
Charles David Williams
Alfred Harding

Of Priests of this Diocese:

Charles Augustus Maison
Robert Gilbert Osborn
Charles Carroll Quin
Robert Livingston Stevens
George Sears Gassner
John Andrews Harris
John Garwood-Quin

Of Delegates to the last Convention:

Clarence Sears Kates
John Henry Currier
William Porter McCoy
William Campfield Kent
William Rudolph Smith
Ewing Lawrence Miller
Thomas Earp Shoemaker

Of Delegates to former Conventions:

Sylvester Bonnaffon, Jr.
Robert Pilling
Joseph Crawford Egbert
Ernest Zantzinger
William Richardson Chapman
James Hunter Ewing
Samuel Wetherill Gumbes
Arthur Alwin Benkert

The Lord grant unto them that they may find mercy of the Lord in that day.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon them.

The offering was for Diocesan Missions, amounting to $35.48.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10.45 A. M. and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, The Rev. L. N. Caley nominated

The Rev. Richard J. Morris.

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President. having cast the ballot, declared Rev. Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

The Rev. Charles S. Lyons.

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. G. E. Pember, for

THE COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That unanimous consent be given to the suspension of the Rules of Order, that the Committee on Elections may present for immediate consideration some needed changes in the Standing Order on Nominations and Elections.

Mr. Pember offered the following Amendments, each of which was adopted:

Amend Standing Order VI "Nominations and Elections," Section 1, by omitting the next to last sentence, "As each nomination . . . of the Convention," and substituting therefor the following:

"Nominations made to the Secretary shall be announced by him as soon as nominations from the floor are called for in the regular order of business."

Suspend all provisions having to do with Third Choice Votes, thus confining the voting to First and Second Choices.

Amend Section 3 (b) by omitting all that follows "Convention assembles" in line 2 and substituting therefor the following:

"for such time during the luncheon Recess of the first day of the session as the Convention shall from time to time direct."

Amend Section 3 (c) third sentence, so that it shall read:

"In the column headed 'First Choice' he may vote for as many persons as there are offices to be filled at the election then being held; if he votes for more than the number to be elected, his ballot shall be counted defective as to that column."

Amend Section 3 (c), fifth sentence, so that it shall read:

"If in this column he votes for more than the number to be elected, his ballot shall be counted defective as to that column."

Suspend Section 3 (d), (e) and (f) and substitute the following:

"(d) In tabulating the votes the tellers shall place in a column headed, 'First Choice Votes,' the First Choice votes cast for each person voted for; and in a second column, headed, 'Combined First and Second Choice Votes,' the total First and Second Choice votes cast for each person voted for.

"(e) The Elections Committee shall first report to the Convention, for each Order separately, the number of ballots cast, the number necessary to an election, and the names and votes of those having a majority in the First Choice Column, to the number of those to be elected, and no more, arranged in accordance with the highest number of votes received. The Chairman of the Convention shall then compare the lists of the two Orders, and shall announce the names of any persons who have been elected by concurrence of the two Orders as defined in Order VII.

"(f) If less than the required number of persons are elected by concurrence in First Choice votes, the Committee shall then report for each Order separately, the names and votes of persons not already elected, to the number of those to be elected and no more, who have the highest Combined First and Second Choice votes in each Order; and the Chairman shall then announce the names of any who may have been elected by concurrence in the Combined First and Second Choice votes.

"(g) If there still remain persons to be elected, the Committee shall report for each Order the Combined First and Second Choice votes of those not elected, and another ballot shall be taken. When an election is completed, the Committee shall, if called upon, report the names and votes of all persons voted for but not elected.

"(h) The word 'Majority,' where used in this Standing Order shall mean a number in excess of one-half the total number of ballots cast."

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. N. V. P. Levis, D.D. — The Rev. C. H. Reese.
The Rev. F. O. Musser.

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. L. B. Runk. — Mr. C. E. Beury.
Mr. L. J. Morris.

On Elections:

The Rev. G. E. Pember, Chairman — Mr. R. D. Brown
The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne — Mr. L. J. Morris

Nominations for Offices to be filled by the Convention being in order, the Secretary read a list of those Parishes which have not qualified to vote under the provisions of the Constitution, as follows:

Parishes which have not paid Assessments for 1922: S. Andrew, West Vincent (3 years). S. John, Northern Liberties (not assessed).

Parishes which have sent no Parochial Report for 1922: S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; Advent, Kennett Square; Christ, Media; Valley Forge Memorial; S. Matthias, Philadelphia; S. Martin, Marcus Hook; Holy Nativity, Rockledge; S. Andrew, West Vincent (3 years).

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to remove from the list of Parishes of the Diocese the name of St. Andrew's, West Vincent, as the corporation has been dissolved by order of Court.

Resolved, That the right of representation in this Convention be declared forfeited in the cases of the above Parishes:

Resolved, That the Committee on Claims of Laity to seats be instructed to report to the Convention any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of the right of representation in any of the above cases.

The Secretary read a list of Nominations which have been received, to which were added Nominations from the floor of the Convention at intervals. (For list of Nominations see elections pp. 38, 56, ballots pp. 52-56. The following, who were nominated, withdrew their names: Member of the Standing Committee, The Rev. L. N. Caley, S.T.D., The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne; Member of the Executive Council, The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge, D.D.

The Rev. L. N. Caley presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS which, on motion, was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committee from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

Your Committee further recommends that Section III of the Standing Orders of the Convention, which calls for an Evening Session of the Convention to be held the first day to receive the Report of the Board of Missions, be suspended for this Convention.

L. N. CALEY, GEORGE HALL,
G. E. PEMBER, A. D. PARKER,
C. R. WOODRUFF.

The Rev. T. L. Gossling presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

together with the assignment of pews, which was adopted.

Mr. Gossling presented also bills for printing, amounting to $39.00, which were referred to the Committee on Expenses for payment.

The Secretary reported as Unfinished Business from the Convention of 1922 the following:

1. Amendment to Article IV, Sect. 2, of the Constitution in re Representation of Missions in the Convention.
2. Amendment to the Constitution, Article IV, in re Failure to pay Minimum Salary.
3. Report of Committee on Conference on the Cathedral.
4. Report of Committee on Date of Convention.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

CANON II, SECTION VI. Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The President announced the death of The Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Washington.

The Rev. W. O. Roome, Jr., offered a Resolution in re the death of Bishop Harding (see p. 49), which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business.

The Rev. H. S. Hathaway offered a Resolution in re Standard of Parliamentary Law, which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business.

The Committee on Claims of Clergy to Seats in the Convention stated that they had no report to make.

The Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats in the Convention stated that they were not ready to report.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, for the COMMITTEE ON CANONS

presented the Amendment to the Constitution for final action, which was approved by the Convention of 1922, as follows, and moved its adoption:

In Article IV of the Constitution, add the following words at the end of paragraph 2:

"A canonically established and organized Mission, having one hundred or more Communicants registered and worshipping in such Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, who shall have all the rights of other Deputies, except when the vote is by Orders."

The Rev. H. S. Hathaway offered an Amendment.

The Chair ruled that no Amendment could be received, such action being to negative the proposed legislation.

Mr. Hathaway offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Amendment to the Constitution be referred to the Committee on Canons. (For action see p. 39.)

The Order of the Day having arrived The Rev. L. N. Caley for the

RICHARD J. MORRIS, Secretary.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

TUESDAY, MAY 2, 3.10 P. M.

The Convention reassembled, the Bishop in the Chair.

The Order of the Day having arrived the Bishop Suffragan read his Annual Address. (See Appendix B, p. 118.)

The Bishop of the Diocese having retired, the Bishop Suffragan took the Chair.

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys read a portion of the Address of the Bishop of the Diocese as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE BISHOP'S RESIGNATION

I have had in mind to speak to you at this time on three important matters:

First: The World Conference on Faith and Order, the date for which is tentatively fixed in the year 1925, in Washington. The Bishop of Rhode Island will address you tomorrow on this subject and I wanted to prepare the way for him.

Secondly: Our Missionary failure: its reason and its remedy. This matter rests heavily on my heart and conscience. Every Bishop of the Church must feel that his Episcopate is judged by the missionary spirit of his Diocese. I would to God I could move you in this to know and do His Will.

Thirdly: The Creed: its place in the life of the Church and in the duty of the Church's officers. I feel intensely the obligation resting on me of pointing out the crucial importance of the issue raised and the true way of meeting it.

I had planned to speak to you on these three things and I have here in my hand my manuscript address, dealing with them, but I shall pass it over now. It will be printed and distributed. I would urge you when it comes into your hands, carefully and prayerfully to ponder it. I have written it with an almost painful sense of my responsibility as Bishop. For there is something I must tell you which, as its full significance comes over to me, I can scarce trust myself to put in words.

The bare facts, quite formally, almost impersonally, are these. In asking last year for a prolonged leave of absence, my chief purpose was to discover whether, under the most favorable conditions, I could so far regain my health as to justify my continuing in my present work. The result of the experiment has been to give convincing proof to the contrary. The best medical opinion I have been able to secure is definitely to the effect that I may not hope in the future for sufficient reserve strength to enable me successfully to bear the strain of this difficult and important office. It would not be right or fair to the Diocese, or to the Church at large, for me to hold a great responsibility which I know to be beyond the measure of strength which God has given me. After considering every alternative, I have come to the conclusion that the only reasonable and honorable course now open to me is to resign my jurisdiction. In doing so I believe I am doing what God would have me do.

Twelve years ago, by vote of this Convention, I was chosen to be Bishop of this Diocese. It is therefore fitting that, after private and very recent consultation with the Standing Committee and the Bishop Suffragan, I should make to this Convention which elected me, the first announcement of my decision to resign. Under the law of the Church my resignation of my jurisdiction has been sent to the Presiding Bishop, by whom it will be communicated to the other Bishops. It becomes effective when it shall have been accepted by the House of Bishops at its next meeting. Until then, I shall endeavor so to administer my office as may best prepare the way for my successor.

What shall I say more? Christians, when crises come, must try to meet them with a forward, not a backward look: with a strengthening of will, not with a stirring of emotion. Nevertheless, there is no tie whose breaking brings more pain than the tie which binds those who have worked together through long years, in hope and fear, in cloud and sunshine, in honor and dishonor, in evil report and good report, loyal to a common faith, strengthened by a common grace, in the Name of our Blessed Lord, for the doing of His will, and for the coming of His Kingdom. True it is that He Whose we are and Whom we serve, is the same yesterday, today and forever. Service of Him, fellowship with Him, beginning here, is perfected in Paradise and Heaven. But the eternity of our fellowship and service does but make the earthly term of it so much the more privileged and precious. Each moment vouchsafed us here on earth is transfigured by the very air and atmosphere of Heaven: has in it something of the joy and glory of that other world so close to this, where God is all in all, where we shall know as we are known.

The sorrow of our earthly separation is in truth caused by the very thing which is its cure: that is, by our faith in Him and love for Him: by our thankfulness that in His love for us He has called us to be friends and fellow-workers.

As He looks down on us, and deals with us, may His mercy rejoice against His judgment. May He forgive our sins, and over-rule our errors, thwarting whatever has been evil in our will and purpose, crowning and completing all that has been good. May He grant us our heart's desire and fulfil all our mind, in so far as we have set our affections sincerely on His purposes and promises, and have brought our thought into captivity to Him.

I shall count in the immediate future on many opportunities of informal talk and friendly counsel. Meanwhile I shall pray earnestly that the Holy Spirit may guide and govern this Diocese in all things and in all ways, to the fulfilment of God's holy will.

And may "the God of Peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to Whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

(For balance of Address see Appendix A, p. 75.)

The Rev. J. DeW. Perry offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Bishop Rhinelander be requested to read to the Convention on Wednesday after prayers for Missions at the noon hour, such portions of his prepared Address as may seem to him desirable.

Dr. Perry offered the following Minute, which was adopted unanimously by a Rising Vote:

Bishop Rhinelander's announcement that he must resign his jurisdiction and charge of this Diocese is received by this Convention with great regret and with affectionate sympathy. As he has reluctantly and deliberately reached this positive decision after conference with his medical advisers and other friends, we cannot ask him either to reconsider his decision, or to postpone his resignation.

We are devoutly thankful that this Diocese has been privileged during twelve years to enjoy his loving care and efficient leadership. We sincerely trust and pray that relief from the duties and responsibilities, which he has so faithfully and cheerfully borne, and which he has so efficiently discharged, will result in renewal of his health and strength, and that many years lie before him in which to exercise his rare endowments and to render valuable service to the Church.

Dr. Perry offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That until the meeting of another Diocesan Convention, the Standing Committee of this Diocese be authorized and requested to take such action and to make such financial provision as may be required for the efficient administration of the Diocese.

The Convention suspended business for three minutes for silent prayer.

Action reverting to the Amendment to Canon VII (p. 41), the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was lost on division Ayes 85, Noes 202:

Resolved, That the proposed Amendment to Canon VII, Section IV, Sub-section 1, repealing the old Canon and substituting two new Sub-sections, be adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the REPORT.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon VI, Section IV, proposed by the Executive Council, as follows:

> In Canon IV, Section IV, at the end of Paragraph 2, add the words:
> "It shall be the duty of the Council to suggest to the Convention, from time to time, such changes in legislation or methods as may seem to the Council to be of advantage to the work of the Church" respectfully report that they have considered the same and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

On motion, the Amendment was adopted.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. W. N. Parker presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

(See Appendix R, p. 401)

The following addressed the Convention:

The Rev. E. S. Thomas on "Colored Work in the Diocese."

Mr. L. B. Runk, for the COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS

offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That right of representation in this Convention be restored to the Parishes of S. Matthias, Philadelphia, and of Christ, Media, they having submitted Parochial Reports for 1922.

The Rev. P. R. Stockman, for the Quota Committee, offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention gives its approval to the suggestions as to the method of apportionment both for "Maintenance" and for "Forward Work" as embodied in the report of the Quota Committee to the Executive Council; and instructs the Executive Council to take the steps necessary to put these suggestions into effect for the year 1924. (See Appendix G, p. 317.)

The Rev. G. E. Pember offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the new form of Budget be approved, and the sums tentatively recommended be adopted; that the Executive Council be authorized to make such changes as are necessary before January 1, 1924.

Resolved, That the Executive Council be authorized to rewrite the 1923 Budget in the new form.

The Rev. W. O. Roome, Jr., offered the following Resolution (p. 37), which was adopted by a Rising Vote:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His Providence to call into Life Eternal The Right Reverend Alfred Harding, D.D., Bishop of Washington,

Resolved, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in Convention assembled, conveys deep sympathy to the Diocese of Washington and to the members of the late Bishop's family.

Mr. R. Francis Wood read the

(See Appendix E, p. 281)

Mr. S. F. Houston presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHANGE OF DATE OF THE CONVENTION

and offered the following Resolution, which was lost:

Resolved, That the Annual Convention of the Diocese for 1924 be held on Wednesday and Thursday, November 5th and 6th.

The Executive Secretary presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

(See Appendix G, p. 291)

The Secretary of the Convention presented by Title a

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GENERAL CONVENTION

(See Appendix Q, p. 364)

covering alterations in the Prayer Book and an Amendment to the Constitution, proposed by the General Convention of 1922, to be acted on finally in the General Convention of 1925.

The Convention took a Recess at 5.25 P. M. until 9.30 A. M. on Wednesday, May 2nd.

RICHARD J. MORRIS, Secretary.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 9.30 A. M.

The Convention reassembled as above, the Bishop Suffragan in the Chair.

The President opened the session with prayer.

The rough minutes for the sessions of Tuesday were read and approved.

The Rev. L. N. Caley, for the COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

reported that the Order of Business as printed would be observed.

Action reverting to the Report of the Executive Council (see p. 49).

The Rev. L. C. Washburn discussed the REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PENSIONS

(Appendix G, p. 312)

Mr. Morris Earle offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That before a Bishop shall certify a Priest for translation into this Diocese or from it, a certificate shall be secured by the Priest giving his exact status as concerns the Pension Fund, which would convey the proper information to the Diocese into which the translation is being made.

No other Departments desiring to report, The Rev. W. C. Pugh presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on April 6, 1923, at the call of the Convener, The Rev. J. O. McIlhenny, and organized by the election of The Rev. J. O. McIlhenny as Chairman and The Rev. Walter C. Pugh as Secretary.

The Committee has held several meetings and has considered the application for approval of Charter and admission into union with the Convention of "Saint Nathaniel's Church, Philadelphia."

The Committee finds that this Church is a congregation having its place of worship at the northeast corner of Allegheny Avenue and E Street, Philadelphia; that it has been duly organized in conformity with the Canons of the Diocese regulating the Organization of New Parishes; that the Charter is in proper form, being substantially in that of the approved Form of Charter, and conforms to the requirements of the Canons and Article IV, Section 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese; and that it has been duly incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania and its Charter recorded.

The Charter and application have been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention and that the said Church be admitted into union with the Convention.

The Committee therefore offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the application of "Saint Nathaniel's Church, Philadelphia," for approval of its Charter be approved and the said Church be admitted to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

By order of the Committee,

W. C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Secretary called the names of the Delegates.

Mr. Pugh continued the REPORT.

The Committee on Charters further reports that it has considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the House of Prayer" for approval of an amendment to their Charter, changing the name of the Corporation to "The House of Prayer" and making sundry other changes in the articles.

The proposed amendments make the Charter conform substantially with the approved Form of Charter. They conform to all the requirements of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. They have been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that they be approved by the Convention, and offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the proposed change of name of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the House of Prayer" to "The House of Prayer" and the proposed amendments to the Charter thereof be approved, and that permission be given for their presentation to the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Philadelphia for approval.

By order of the Committee,

W. C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

On motion, the polls were ordered to be opened in the Church House from 1 P. M. to 1.30 P. M.

On motion, the Secretary was ordered to cast the ballot for the Lay Members of the Delegates to the Provincial Synod, as nominated.

The ballot having been cast, the President declared elected the following: Messrs. C. E. Beury, H. H. Bonnell, W. W Frazier, Jr., and William White.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

The Committee on Charters further reports that it has considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Paul's Church, Cheltenham," for approval of an amendment to their Charter, changing the number of vestrymen from twelve to eighteen.

The application has been approved by the Standing Committee but not approved by the Bishop, for the following reasons, viz.: (1) That "there is no sufficient reason alleged for such increase in the number of the Vestrymen, which increase would tend to make it more difficult to fill the Vestry with suitable and fitting men; and (2) If any change is desired I would urge that only Communicants of the Church be qualified to be Vestrymen."

The Committee on Charters finds that the proposed amendment does not make the Charter to conform substantially with the approved Form of Charter, in that (1) allegiance is acknowledged to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State (not Diocese) of Pennsylvania; that (2) the Rector must be in full standing with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State (not Diocese) of Pennsylvania; and (3) that the Vestrymen are not required to be baptized but simply to be "lay members of the said Church."

The Committee on Charters, therefore, offers this report for the consideration of the Convention, but without a resolution thereon.

By order of the Committee,

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Rev. P. J. Steinmetz offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the application of the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Paul's Church, Cheltenham, Pa., for amendment of their Charter, increasing the number of their Vestrymen from twelve to eighteen, be approved by this Convention.

Mr. L. J. Morris offered the following Amendment, which was adopted.

Add at the end of the Resolution the words "When they have inserted the provision that Vestrymen shall be Baptized Members, in place of Lay Members."

The Resolution as amended was adopted.

The Order of the Day having arrived, The Rev. L. C. Washburn presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ON THE CATHEDRAL

(See Appendix O, p. 345)

and offered the first Resolution, as follows:

Resolved, That the Canon of the Cathedral Foundation, submitted herewith, be adopted.

THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS reported as follows:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the proposed Canon "On the Cathedral," proposed by the Cathedral Committee, respectfully report that they have examined the same, and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The following Resolution was offered:

Resolved, That for the consideration of the Canon, the Convention go into a session as a Committee of the Whole.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Amendment:

Resolved, That the whole matter be referred back to the Committee.

The Chair decided that the Resolution had precedence, and, on motion, the Convention went into Committee of the Whole.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Committee of the Whole arose and reported "Progress" through its Chairman, the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D., D.C.L., asking leave to sit again on the reassembling of the Convention for the afternoon session.

The President bade the Convention to Noon-day prayers.

The Bishop of the Diocese read the third part of his Address to the Convention, entitled "The Creed." (See Appendix A, p. 82.)

The Bishop of Rhode Island addressed the Convention on the work of the Conference on Faith and Order.

Mr. L. B. Runk continued the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That, Parish Reports for 1922 having been filed with the Secretary of the Convention from S. Elisabeth's Church, Philadelphia, and from the Church of The Advent, Kennett Square, the right of representation in this Convention be restored to these Parishes.

Mr. R. D. Brown offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be authorized to print 1500 copies of the Bishop's Address and to send a copy to every Clergyman in the Diocese and to the Lay Deputies to this Convention.

The following Reports were presented by Title:

The Trustees of the Sustentation Fund, together with the Report of the Treasurer (Appendix G, p. 326).

The Treasurer of the Diocese, including the Episcopal Fund, the Convention Fund, the Church House Fund, the Episcopal Residence Fund (Appendix F, p. 287).

The Custodians of the Church House.

The Trustees of the Diocese (Appendix H, p. 327).

The Registrar of the Diocese (Appendix L, p. 337).

The House of Rest.

The Episcopal Hospital.

The Sheltering Arms.

The Church Dispensary of Southwark.

The Trustees of the Christmas Fund, together with the Report of the Treasurer (Appendix I, p. 330).

The Commission on Church Work among the Jews (p. 335).

The Commission on Church Work among the Blind (p. 334).

The Commission on Church Work among the Deaf.

The Seamen's Church Institute.

The Church Building Commission.

The Committee on Parochial History, which, on motion, was ordered printed in the JOURNAL (Appendix M, p. 339).

The Rev. A. J. Arnold presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

(See Appendix J, p. 331)

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Report of the Board of Examining Chaplains be printed in the JOURNAL.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay bills incurred by the Examining Chaplains in their work, when properly certified by the officers of the Board, up to the amount of $150 for the Convention Year.

The Assistant Treasurer presented the following Resolution, which was adopted:

The Treasurer's office begs to report that in the case of Grace Church, Hulmeville, the Church has been unable to meet its assessments to the Convention and Episcopal Funds since the year 1916. Under its new Minister, it has recently paid in full its assessments for the year 1922, and has stated that it expects to be able to meet its obligations promptly in the future.

The Treasurer therefore submits the following resolution:

Resolved, That the arrearages of assessments from the years 1917 to 1921, inclusive, due by Grace Church, Hulmeville, to the Convention and Episcopal Funds be omitted; that the Treasurer be authorized to cross them off on his books; and that the Parish be reinstated with full rights and privileges on the list of Parishes in union with the Convention.

THE COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That, when the Convention reassembles at 2.30 P. M., it shall resume discussion of the Proposed Canon XVI in Committee of the Whole.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne for the COMMITTEE ON CANONS offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the changes in Canon IX, Section III, in regard to the election of Delegates to the Convocations, which were adopted yesterday, shall take effect July 1, 1923.

Mr. G. B. Hawkes offered the following Amendment, which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Add at the end of Canon IX, Section II, Sub-division 1 (h) the words "In case of a failure to elect Lay Delegates, the Lay Deputies to the Convention shall be the Lay Delegates to the Convocation."

The Rev. P. R. Stockman called the attention of the Convention to the paragraph in the Report on the Quota, acknowledging with appreciation the very valuable work of The Rev. W. A. Matos in preparing the figures for the Committee.

Mr. John Cadwalader offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, In view of the great importance of the Divinity School in this City to the Church at large as well as to this Diocese, and the recommendation of Bishop Garland in his Address for collections to be made by the Churches of the Diocese, this Convention now requests all the Parishes in the Diocese of Pennsylvania to take a collection for the support of the Divinity School on Trinity Sunday if possible, or on another date if in any Parish the collection for Trinity Sunday has been appropriated for other objects.

On motion, the Convention took a Recess at 1 P. M. until 2.30.

The Rev. A. R. VanMeter received one 1st Choice Clerical Vote.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Clergyman and the Layman who received the highest combined vote shall be declared the choice of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to cast a ballot for The Rev. Mr. Stockman and Mr. J. L. Evans as above.

The Secretary having cast the necessary ballot, the President declared elected as Members of the Executive Council, The Rev. P. R. Stockman and Mr. J. L. Evans.

Dr. Caley offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Rev. Dr. Perry having received the highest combined vote for Delegate to the Provincial Synod, he be declared the choice of the Convention for that office.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot for the election of The Rev. Dr. Perry.

The Secretary having cast the necessary ballot, the President declared elected as Delegate to the Provincial Synod, The Rev. Dr. J. deW. Perry.

The Convention went into Committee of the Whole to continue the consideration of the Proposed Canon XVI "On the Cathedral Foundation."

The Committee of the Whole arose and reported to the Convention through its Chairman, The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, that it had adopted all the Sections of the Proposed Canon except Section 7, which was referred back to the Committee on Conference on the Cathedral for redrafting.

THE COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

reported a new Order of Business, which was adopted.

The Order of the Day having arrived The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES

(See Appendix N, p. 340)

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. Resolved, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries be authorized to assess the Parishes and the Missions of the Diocese in a sum not to exceed $20,000.00 for the Sustentation Fund for the year 1924.

2. Resolved, That the Convention approves the policy of requesting Aided Parishes under certain circumstances to assume the status of Missions, as outlined in the report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries.

The Order of the Day having arrived Mr. Edward Sargent, of The National Council, addressed the Convention with reference to the work of Religious Education.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Chair presented the Report of the Committee of the Whole, viz. the recommended Canon XVI "On the Cathedral Foundation," as follows:

SECTION I. A Cathedral Foundation shall be established in this Diocese as a source of spiritual inspiration, a centre of religious learning and culture, and a means of promoting the unity of all Christian Communions and of extending to all people the blessings of the Christian faith.

SECTION II. Any place of worship under the control of the Cathedral organization may be recognized by the Bishop as the Bishop's Church and shall be available, with the consent of the Bishop and Chapter, under the supervision of the Bishop of the Diocese as a House of Prayer for all people.

SECTION III. The Cathedral Church of Christ, a corporation duly organized under the laws of Pennsylvania for "the support of public worship of Almighty God according to the faith and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," shall upon its formal acceptance of this Canon and recognition in its Charter of the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the said Church and the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, upon the amendment of its Charter to provide for the election of the governing body by the members of the Convention, be the Cathedral Foundation for this Diocese. The title to all real estate and personal property in any way acquired for Cathedral purposes shall be held by the said corporation.

SECTION IV. Said corporation shall have power to erect or acquire anywhere in the Diocese a place or places of worship and other buildings necessary or proper for its corporate purposes.

SECTION V. Pending the erection or acquisition of such place or places of worship or other buildings, said corporation may, with the consent of the proper authorities of any parish in union with the Convention, use the church or other buildings of such parish, or any of them, for the purpose of a Pro-Cathedral, during such period and on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon.

SECTION VI. Said corporation shall not maintain any parochial organization and shall not be entitled to any lay representation in the Diocesan Convention.

SECTION VIII. With a view to correlating the activities of the corporation with those of the Executive Council of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the Council, with the approval of the Bishop of the Diocese and the consent of the Chapter, may delegate to the corporation the performance of the whole or any part of the duties of any of the departments of said Executive Council.

SECTION IX. The Bishop, with the approval of the Chapter, shall have power to invite representatives of other Christian Communions to associate themselves with it, in such way as may from time to time seem desirable, in order to assist more effectually in making any place of worship under their control truly a House of Prayer for all people, to further the progress of Christianity and to promote the unity, peace and concord of all nations.

SECTION X. The Chapter shall submit to the Convention of the Diocese an annual report, which shall summarize the work of the Cathedral during the preceding year and shall discuss any questions of larger policy which may have arisen.

The President was given the floor to address the Convention as a matter of Personal Privilege.

Mr. J. W. Bayard for the

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ON THE CATHEDRAL

presented Canon XVI to the Convention and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Section I as reported be adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section II as reported and moved its adoption.

Section II was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section III as reported and moved its adoption.

On motion, the word "election" in line 9 was changed to "selection," on division Ayes 120, Noes 95.

On motion, Section III as amended was adopted, as follows:

SECTION III. The Cathedral Church of Christ, a corporation duly organized under the laws of Pennsylvania for "the support of public worship of Almighty God according to the faith and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," shall upon its formal acceptance of this Canon and recognition in its Charter of the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the said Church and the Constitutions and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, upon the amendment of its Charter to provide for the selection of the governing body by the members of the Convention, be the Cathedral Foundation for this Diocese. The title to all real estate and personal property in any way acquired for Cathedral purposes shall be held by the said corporation.

Mr. Bayard presented Section IV as reported and moved its adoption.

Section IV was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section V as reported and moved its adoption.

Section V was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section VI as reported and moved its adoption.

Section VI was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section VII, as redrafted by the Committee on Conference on the Cathedral, as follows and moved its adoption.

SECTION VII. After the adoption by the Diocesan Convention of this Canon, the Convention shall annually nominate two laymen, citizens of Pennsylvania and communicant members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and shall also, annually, on nomination of the Bishop, approved by the Standing Committee, nominate two clergymen of said Church to serve as members (now called Canons) of the Board of Directors (now called the Chapter) of said corporation for a term of four years from January first of the following year, and, upon their election by vote of a majority of the Canons in office at the date of the nomination, those so elected shall become members of the corporation and Canons for said term. If any nominee fails of approval or of election, another candidate possessed of like qualifications shall in like manner be nominated and, in case of another failure to approve or elect, a like proceeding shall take place until an election is secured. Any Canon may on due nomination and approval be re-elected to succeed himself. A vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by a like nomination, approval and election of a candidate of like qualifications with those of his predecessor. The Bishop shall designate not more than four of the clerical Canons as Canons Residentiary, who shall perform such special duties and shall receive such compensation as may be determined by the Chapter.

Mr. G. B. Hawkes offered the following Amendment:

Resolved, That in place of the suggested Section VII the following be substituted:

"At each Annual Convention the Bishop and the Standing Committee shall nominate at least . . . Clergymen and . . . Laymen for election as Trustees or members of the Governing Body of the Cathedral, and the members of the Convention shall elect from those so nominated, or from nominations made from the floor, . . . Clergymen and . . . Laymen to serve as Trustees or members of the Governing Body of the Cathedral for . . . years."

The President called The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne to the Chair and addressed the Convention.

The Bishop Suffragan resumed the Chair.

Mr. J. W. Bayard offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Mr. Hawkes be given five minutes to conclude his argument.

Action recurring to Mr. Hawkes' Amendment, it was lost.

On motion, Section VII as reported was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section VIII as reported and moved its adoption.

Section VIII was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section IX as reported and moved its adoption.

Section IX was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Section X as reported and moved its adoption.

Section X was adopted.

Mr. Bayard presented Canon XVI as a whole and moved its adoption.

Canon XVI as a whole was adopted.

The Rev. L. C. Washburn, for the

offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention approve of the existing Chapter of said corporation continuing to operate under its present By-Laws, until the same have been altered or amended in accordance with the action of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Convention adopt the Report as a whole and discharge the Committee from further consideration of the subject.

Dr. Washburn offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five clergymen and five laymen be elected by this Convention, who shall confer with the Cathedral Chapter and with the Executive Council of the Diocese and shall submit to the next Convention information and recommendations as to the financing of the Cathedral enterprises.

The Rev. G. E. Pember offered the following Amendment, which was accepted by the Committee, and the Resolution, as amended, was adopted:

Omit the words "elected by this Convention" and substitute therefor the words "appointed by the Chair."

Mr. C. R. Woodruff, for the DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICE

offered two Resolutions, the first with reference to the International Court of Justice and the League of Nations, and the second on the Enforcement of Law, and moved the adoption of the first Resolution.

Mr. William White offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

Resolved, That the Resolutions be referred to the Executive Council.

Mr. L. J. Morris offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the two subjects contained in the first Resolution be considered separately.

Mr. Woodruff withdrew the matter relating to the League of Nations.

A motion to Lay the Resolution on the Table was lost.

The Resolution was adopted as follows:

"INASMUCH, As international questions are ever assuming more pressing importance, the United States should no longer delay in assuming her share of international obligations and burdens, especially those following the recent war,

"Resolved, That the recommendation that America participate in the Court of International Justice be endorsed."

Mr. Woodruff offered the second Resolution as follows, which was adopted:

"While deprecating the modern tendency to increase the number of laws on the statute book to an undue degree, the need for a faithful and whole-hearted compliance with the laws of the land is imperative. If the individual is to be granted the right of determining which laws he shall obey and observe and which he may ignore, defy or disobey, a condition of affairs bordering on anarchy will soon result. The Convention cannot too strongly commend to every individual member of the Church the necessity for a full, whole-hearted observance of the laws, irrespective of what their feelings may be as to the wisdom of those laws."

Mr. Morris Earle offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Standing Order on Elections as amended be adopted for 1924, and that the Committee on Elections be continued to consider the Standing Order further and to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne continued the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Article IV of the Constitution, approved by the last Convention, as follows:

> At the end of Paragraph 2, of Article IV of the Constitution, add the following additional paragraph:
> "A Canonically established and Organized Mission, having one hundred or more Communicants registered and worshipping in such Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, who shall have all the rights of other Deputies, except when the vote is by Orders" respectfully report that they have examined the same and do not find that it in any way conflicts with any provision of the Constitution. If it is approved, in order to carry out its purpose, it will be necessary to make minor changes in two Canons, which changes the Committee are prepared to offer if the Amendment is approved.

By order of the Committee,

F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Rev. H. S. Hathaway raised the Point of Order, that there was no Quorum present.

The Chair ruled that the presence or absence of a Quorum would be shown by the vote.

Mr. G. B. Hawkes offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

Resolved, That the Proposed Amendment be amended by striking out the words "communicants registered and worshipping in such Mission" and inserting the words "baptized persons of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, worshippers in such Mission, who for one year or more immediately preceeding the time of computation shall have been registered and regular contributors to the support of said Mission."

A vote being called for, it was found that there was no Quorum present for final consideration of the Amendment.

The Order of the Day having arrived Mr. E. F. Henson addressed the Convention on the subject of

DIOCESAN INSURANCE

and on motion, the following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Diocesan Convention favors the formation of a Diocesan Insurance Office, and authorizes an appropriation for the purpose of $1000, with the understanding that $4000 additional will be appropriated, if and as needed in the development of the Office.

The Rev. W. C. Pugh continued the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

The Committee on Charters has considered the application of "The Memorial Church of St. Luke the Beloved Physician, Bustleton, Philadelphia," for approval of amendments to their Charter, raising the permitted clear annual income from five thousand to one hundred thousand dollars, and increasing the number of the Vestrymen from six to twelve.

The application has been approved by the Standing Committee, on condition that the annual income be in the lawful amount of fifty thousand dollars, and that the Vestrymen shall be designated as "baptized," and the Bishop concurs in this conditional approval.

The Committee on Charters finds that the proposed amendments do not make the Charter to conform with the approved Form of Charter substantially, in the same respects as noted in the case of "St. Paul's Church, Cheltenham."

The Committee on Charters, therefore, offers this report for the consideration of the Convention, but without a resolution thereon.

By order of the Committee,

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Rev. William McClelland offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention approve the proposed amendments to the Charter of The Memorial Church of Saint Luke the Beloved Physician, Bustleton, Philadelphia, after the changes as suggested have been incorporated, and that permission be given, for their presentation to the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Philadelphia for approval.

Mr. L. B. Runk offered the following Resolutions for Mr. C. R. Woodruff, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention records its hearty sympathy with the purposes and methods of the Commission on Faith and Order as described in the address of The Rt. Rev. J. deW. Perry, D. D.

Resolved, That subject to the approval of that Commission, the Executive Council of the Diocese be directed to take charge, through such of its Departments as it may select, of carrying out in this Diocese the work of that Commission.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Amendment to the Constitution for approval and to lie over to the next Convention:

> At the end of Paragraph 2 of Article IV of the Constitution, add the following paragraph:
> "A canonically established and organized Mission, having one hundred or more Communicants registered and worshipping in such Mission, may send to the Convention One Lay Deputy, who shall have all the rights of other Deputies, except when the vote is by Orders."

The Point of Order was raised that this matter had been already before this Convention.

During the discussion which followed Mr. Hartshorne conferred with the Committee on Canons and presented the following:

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Article IV of the Constitution, for approval this year and to lie over to the next Convention as follows: (See above.)
respectfully report that they have examined the same and recommend the following Substitute:

> At the end of Paragraph 2, of Article IV of the Constitution, add the following paragraph:
> "A Parochial or a canonically established and organized Mission, having one hundred or more baptized persons of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, worshippers in said Mission, who for one year or more immediately preceding the time of computation shall have been registered and regular contributors to the support of said Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, who shall have all the rights of other Deputies, except when the vote is by Orders."
> By order of the Committee,
> F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Chair ruled that the Substitute, as offered by the Committee, contained sufficient new matter to allow of its presentation to the Convention.

The Rev. H. S. Hathaway offered the following Amendment, which was accepted by the Committee:

Add after the word "Mission" in line 1 the words "of this Diocese."

On motion, the words "when the Vote is by Orders" at the end of the Substitute were changed to read "the right to vote."

On motion the Substitute as amended was approved, to lie over to the next Convention.

The Bishop nominated as Examining Chaplains to serve until 1926 the following: The Rev. T. S. Cline, The Rev. A. A. Ewing, The Rev. G. E. Pember, The Rev. J. A. Richardson, Jr., The Rev. Charles Townsend, Jr.

The Convention approved the nominations.

The Rev. T. L. Gossling, for the COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

presented a bill for the serving of luncheon on Tuesday and Wednesday which was referred to the Committee on Expenses.

The Rev. A. R. VanMeter offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to arrange facilities, so that any Delegate to future Conventions be enabled to hear.

The Chair appointed the Committee on Arrangements to serve as such.

The Bishop made the following appointments:

Chancellor of the Diocese, Mr. J. Wilson Bayard.
Registrar of the Diocese, The Rev. Arnold H. Hord.

The Bishop appointed the following Committees (for personnel see pp. 6 and 7): On Arrangements; On Canons; On Charters; On Dispatch of Businesss; On Expenses.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be conveyed to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of The Holy Trinity for their hospitality in extending the use of their buildings for the business of the Convention.

Resolved, That 700 copies of the JOURNAL be printed and distributed as usual, together with 500 copies of the Constitution and Canons, which shall be published within six months and which shall contain the Charter and By-Laws of the Trustees of the Diocese, together with the Recommended Form of Charter.

Resolved, That the next Annual Convention be held on Tuesday, May 6, 1924, at such place and hour as the Bishop and Standing Committee may appoint.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of one hundred dollars to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

Resolved, That after the reading of the rough minutes, and prayers by the President, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The rough minutes of the day's sessions were read and approved.

After prayer and benediction by the President, the Convention adjourned sine die.

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

CHARLES S. LYONS,
Assistant Secretary.

Registered Attendance: Clergy, 221; Laity, 285.

After the Convention adjourned, the Bishop appointed the following Committees and Commissions (for personnel see pp. 7 and 8):

APPENDIX A

The Bishop's Annual Address

I

THE PROPOSED WORLD CONFERENCE ON FAITH AND ORDER

There have been many, and, till the great goal is won, there will be many more, movements for the realization and recovery of the Church's unity. No Christian conscience can be at ease in face of the existing schisms in the One Body of our Lord. Disunity is disloyalty and disobedience. Division cripples the Church and blocks the way against the coming of the Kingdom. Each day that passes brings fresh proof of it to thoughtful minds. So every movement towards reunion claims our interest.

But the proposed World Conference on Faith and Order has a very special claim on us. It demands and deserves our whole-hearted support and sympathy. For in the providence of God, and under the evident guidance of the Holy Spirit, it was our own General Convention which in 1910 conceived and unanimously adopted the notable idea. Since then, through our Commission, we have maintained an honorable, disinterested and effective leadership in promoting and preparing for it.

You will recall that all Christian communions, Catholic and Protestant, Eastern and Western, large and small, which confess our Lord as God and Saviour, were to be invited to take part. The special work assigned to our Commission was to give the invitation. That has been done. Up to this time not less than 78 Commissions, similar to our own, have been appointed, representing as many separate communions, and altogether forty different countries. Of the larger communions, the Roman Catholic Church is the only one to decline officially the invitation. Plans for the actual holding of the Conference are progressing. A preliminary conference at Geneva three years ago, which was very fairly representative of the participating Churches, as it adjourned appointed a continuation committee of which Bishop Brent is Chairman, and charged it with the duty of arranging for the Conference. Quite recently the tentative date for the Conference has been set in 1925 and the place is to be Washington. So time is pressing. I am most anxious that Churchmen in this Diocese should be conspicuous for their zeal in support of this great project. The Bishop of Rhode Island, who is the Executive Secretary of our Church Commission, will address you tomorrow on this subject. To prepare you to give him intelligent attention, I would make clear just what is the purpose and promise of the Conference.

The Conference of course will be entirely incompetent to effect Reunion. That is not at all the point of it. But, if successful, it will set forward this great aim in three important ways:

First, it will gather necessary and authoritative information which at present, for most of us, is inaccurate and inaccessible. Each communion represented in the Conference will set forth in its own way, through its own delegates, those points of faith and order which it holds essential. There will be no controversy nor debate: no questions put nor votes taken and recorded. There will be affirmation rather than negation: assertion rather than denial, so that each group may learn what every other group believes by its own untrammeled witness.

Secondly, the Conference will create sympathetic understanding. Nothing is more true than that Christians of all names are largely at one in that which they affirm, and chiefly divided by that which they deny. It may not be altogether true that, as the French proverb puts it, "to know all is to forgive all." But it is certainly true that the expression of any honest and positive faith in the Deity of our Lord will draw all Christian hearts and minds together. Ignorance breeds suspicion and distrust. Knowledge brings respect and sympathy. Given frank, free, devout witness to our Lord: a genuine desire that His will for His Church's unity be realized: knowledge in place of ignorance: sympathy where there had been suspicion: respect where there had been repudiation: given these things and you have the very atmosphere of unity: you have planted the seed out of which may grow our common answer to the Lord's own prayer that we may all be one.

Thirdly, the Conference will define the goal quite unmistakably. Any movement, to be effective, must have right direction, as well as driving power. As a ship must know the port it means to reach, if chart or compass is to help it on its way, so seekers after the Church's unity must know what is the unity they seek. The goal of a true unity the Conference will make clear and keep steadily in view. For it will make all partial unities seem incomplete and inconclusive. No doubt a partial unity—unity, that is, between certain groups for certain objects—may have a temporary value. But there is danger in it also. Partial unity may delay and defeat the larger hope. For groups of Churches may become rivals and competitors as well, and almost as easily, as single Churches. Group may be found opposing and resisting group, just as in the Great War the group of Central Powers fought the group of the Allies. Limited alliances are by no means sure to promote a world alliance. On the contrary, limited alliances may be the most fatal of all obstacles in the way of universal unity. They may but sharpen the antagonism, as they increase the power and the resources, of the opposing forces. They may but deepen and perpetuate division. Now the proposed Conference avoids this danger by its insistence on inclusiveness. Its aim, deliberate and fixed, is one reunited Church. It leaves out no one who confesses faith in Christ Incarnate. It makes room for all. Even those not present are to be remembered. Their place will be kept ready, their needs provided for. There will be a void, a vacancy, until they too come into the great Church once more made one. Short cuts to union may easily miss the mark at which they aim: may lead men away from, and not towards, the goal. Therefore the Conference, by its ideal and constitution, will block up all short cuts as it will blot out all partial and imperfect views. It will hold fixedly before all Christians their Lord's own will and purpose for His Church, till all are ready to bring their human and imperfect wisdom into devout and obedient conformity to His divine and perfect will.

I pray God to open your hearts to the great challenge of this Conference which we ourselves have initiated and imagined: to which we cannot be indifferent without incurring judgment.

II

OUR MISSIONARY FAILURE: ITS REASON AND ITS REMEDY

Someone, speaking, like the Apostle, words of truth and soberness, has said that "the man who thinks his religion is not worth giving to the heathen is usually right." We shall not go far wrong if we find in that rather subtle saying the reason for our recent lamentable missionary failure in this Diocese. "The man who thinks his religion is not worth giving to the heathen is usually right." Yes, it is quite true. And I would go further. I would add that such a man is well advised not to seek to propagate his faith. For that brand of Christianity ought not to be exported. It is much better kept at home. It can save no souls. It can bring no light or joy or peace. It is impotent and worthless. Thank God if the heathen do not get it—do not know it—at least in their own heathen homes. The shame of the situation is, however, that when the heathen leave their heathen homes and come to this Christian land of ours, then and there they find this kind of religion rampant everywhere: this Christianity which knows not Christ: this mockery of faith which calls Him Lord, but does not the things which He says.

Brethren, there are many ways in which the cause of the Church's Mission may be pressed home. I should like, for once at least, to try the effect on you of an appeal based on your own self-interest: not on the good which you may do the heathen by your alms, and prayers and labors, but on the good which you will do yourselves if you have the missionary spirit. For it is no more than naked truth that at present, as things are, the great majority of you—and by "you" I mean all the men and women of this Diocese—are getting very little out of your religion. No wonder you don't care about sending it abroad. The worthlessness of your religion to yourselves, if it be not missionary: that is what I urge you to consider. Face the matter fairly. The great things which we read of in the Bible and in the lives of Christian saints: for instance the joy of sins forgiven: the peace of a pure heart: the thrill of a great love: the absorbing interest of the soul's adventure for its Lord: the calm courage which meets unmoved every accident or incident of life: what do we know of these? Have we the faintest notion what they mean? Is there even an echo in our hearts as we read or hear of them: is there the faintest whisper of the Spirit in us, saying: "Would that were true of me"?

No, not as a rule, brethren: not in most cases. Most of us are like men starving in the midst of plenty: blind in the bright sunlight: cold in the summer heat: strangers in our own homes: friendless with friends all around us. "Lord, open the eyes of these men." What a poignant and pathetic prayer that is, and yet how perfectly it fits our case; that we should pray, not for the heathen, that our Lord's salvation should reach them and redeem them: but for ourselves, that we may catch even a glimpse of the salvation which has already come to us: which is ours as it was our fathers'.

Wouldn't you really like to know the meaning of your faith? Wouldn't you like to have it shown to you? Wouldn't you like your Blessed Lord to be to you a real, and living Person? To be sure of His love? To feel Him near? To be more certain of Him than of your closest earthly friend? Wouldn't you like to pray real prayers, and have real things to pray for? To have real things to praise Him for, so that you would not be afraid to sing out in Church (provided that the choir would allow it) from a full heart, with tears of thankfulness threatening to blot your hymnal? Above all wouldn't you like to make a real Communion: to find Him really present in the Bread and Wine: to talk to Him: and have Him talk to you: to take Him home with you and to keep Him by you in all things all the time?

If so, begin to be a missionary. That is the way. Phillips Brooks was once appealed to by a troubled parson who found his congregation listless, careless, apathetic. "What shall I do?" he asked. "Take up an offering for Foreign Missions and if that doesn't work, take up another and another and another." That was the answer. And it was an entirely sane and reasonable answer. It gave the sure remedy. For, brethren, our religion is fellowship with Christ. It is being with Him: being where He is: doing what He does: loving what and whom He loves. And we simply don't have, and can't have, fellowship with Him unless we care for missions as He cared and cares for them: unless we long to have that world redeemed for which He died. If we find our religion worthless it is because Christ is not in it: because Christ is not with us nor we with Him. We are in one place; He in another. He is doing one thing: we another. And so we do not meet. Can two walk together except they are agreed? You remember the parable in which He tells us how, when we feed the starving, minister to the sick, clothe the naked, visit the prisoners, we shall find ourselves ministering to Him? That, by the very activity of loving service, we shall find our way into His presence: come where He is already: come where He is waiting for us?

St. Paul puts it shortly and decisively: "If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His." Wind blowing on bare poles can't move a boat: but if you hoist the sails and give the wind a chance you will feel its moving force. Our souls are like ships with all sails closely furled. The breath of the Spirit, which is the Presence of our Lord, passes by unnoticed and unfelt. We seem not to have heard that there is any Holy Ghost. We have no notion He is there. But once raise the sails of obedience and faith: once go where He sends you: do what He tells you: and you will feel His blessed impulse—moving you, carrying you, keeping you, pouring in all His benefits upon you.

Now to come down to facts and to make concrete resolutions. We as a Diocese were more than $60,000.00 short last year in our missionary giving compared with what we gave the year before. It was a bitter blow to the whole Church. It swelled the Church's missionary debt. It shook the Church's confidence in us for it was the first time we had failed to meet at least the minimum which was expected of us. All that is sad enough.

But there is more than that. Our lamentable failure, bad as it was for the Church and for the Church's work, was worse still for ourselves. We could not afford, in our spiritual poverty, not to give these $60,000.00. We are that much poorer for not giving them: we lost so much of blessing: we have been deprived of so much peace: we are shown to have so much less religion.

Brethren, you see what I would say. For your own sake I urge you in God's name to claim your privilege, to let your Lord reveal Himself to you and show you His salvation. Line up then in His cause. Come close to Him. Put your name down. Hand in your pledge. Make your prayers and payments regularly. Be missionaries, every one of you—and see what happens: not to the Church: not to Africa or China or Japan: not to the credit of the Diocese, but to yourselves. Let Him bring near His great salvation. Give Him a chance to make you really Christians. So you will enter now, and ever more and more, into the joy of your Lord. For your own sake, dear brethren, be missionaries!

III

THE CREED: ITS PLACE IN THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH AND IN THE DUTY THE CHURCH'S OFFICERS

Recent notorious events have forced this matter to the front. Much has happened to shock and distress all right-minded Christian people. Yet shocks, though painful, may be salutary. They may rouse us out of culpable and dangerous indifference: out of a false and blind security. God grant it may be so in this case. For this matter of the Church's Creed is absolutely crucial. We neglect it at our spiritual peril. And we all, clergy and laity alike, have been grossly negligent. That is the reason why, when attacks are made upon the Creed: when its importance is denied and even ridiculed; when its plain meaning is diluted or distorted by shallow sophistry or by pseudo-science; that is why we know not where to turn or what to answer: that is why there is so much wild and foolish talk: so little calm and clear facing of the issue. We have been caught off our guard. We have been thrown into confusion and dismay at the very point where our lines should have been most closely ordered: and our defence most sure and impregnable.

I say the question of the Church's Creed is crucial. For if the Church disown her Creed, she cuts off the very life-blood from her heart: she severs the arteries through which the grace of God flows in. That is literally true. And, that being true, it follows that if any of the Church's officers disown the Church's Creed, either in private faith or public teaching, while yet retaining office, they are not merely guilty of the breach of a most sacred trust which they have sworn to keep inviolate: they are also responsible in God's sight for the spiritual disaster that must follow to their own flocks first, and through them to the Church at large.

These are strong words and I am justified in using them only on one condition: only, that is, if it be really true that the Creed is vitally important to the Church. But is that true? The Creed is a formula, a set of sentences, so many words. How can a formula be vital? How can mere words save life? Well, let us see. In this case illustration will help us more than argument.

Now it is most certain that life or death may hang upon a word, they often do. A sign-post, for example, may mean, has often meant, to a lost traveller the difference between food, warmth, shelter, safety on the one hand: and hunger, cold, exposure, danger on the other. Deface it, conceal it, break it down: and you take away his hope: you rob him of his chance. A stroke or two of paint, a word or two in print, bring life: their absence, death.

Or take a chart: giving the soundings: showing the rocks and reefs: marking the channel with its lights and buoys. A chart will guide a ship to port with all souls safe. But tamper with it, mark it wrongly, tear it up, and the best skill of helmsman counts for naught and the ship goes on the rocks.

Or, coming closer, a physician's orders for his patient: the prescription which he writes and leaves behind him: the treatment he advises: these, if he has skill and has rightly diagnosed the case, may be the means of cure: may bring life out of death. But if the doctor's orders are forgotten: if his formulas and medicines are altered: or his advice ignored, the patient may die who might have lived.

Now the Church's Creed is like a sign-post: like a sea-chart: like a medical prescription. It points the way to God. It marks the course to steer by from this world to the next. It tells us how we may be healed, and pass from sin to holiness, from death to life.

And it does all this, and claims authority to do it, in the name of Jesus Christ. It all comes from Him and leads to Him. It all depends on Him. The Creed speaks of Jesus Christ in every single syllable. Look at its history. See where it came from. There is no need of scholarship, or scientific training, or critical acumen. He who runs may read. Turn the pages of the New Testament: the Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles: and see it taking place under your very eyes. First came the impression made by their new Master on the devout, plastic, simple-minded Jewish artisans who were His first disciples. Then came their expression of the impression which He had made on them: their account, that is, of what He had come to mean to them. They found in Him guidance, healing, light and life. He grew to be to them Lord, Saviour, Judge: their all in all. There was no limit to His influence, authority, sufficiency for all their needs. And then, one day, they said so: they spoke it out: they wrote it down: Peter first, at Caesarea Philippi: then doubting Thomas: then John and Jude and James: and the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews: and Paul: and Stephen and every other Apostolic writer and confessor. The whole New Testament from end to end is but the record of it and the witness to it. Faith became vocal: love found expression: thought put on words. So the Church's Creed was born: for worship and for witness: for praise and propaganda. That is its origin and history. The Deity of Jesus Christ is indeed the core and centre of the Creed, but it is so because it was first the core and centre of the faith of which the Creed is the symbol and expression. The first disciples found Him, their Lord and Master, doing for them what God alone can do: being to them what God alone can rightly be. He did the work of God: He played the part of God: He took the place of God. And so they called Him God, and made the Creed.

And mark you, it is no exaggeration to say that the first disciples made the Creed as we now have it: as the Church has held it ever since. For it all comes—the whole of it—in its shorter or its longer form—it all comes, every syllable and word of it, from that great discovery, from that tremendous affirmation, that Jesus, the man of Nazareth, is none other than the Son of God. There was no Creed before that great discovery was made. And in the Church's Creed there was nothing really new inserted afterwards. For the Creed is not a string of detached sentences: it is one whole. It is articulated: that is, made up of articles or members, as a body is made up of inseparable limbs and joints. If you wound or mutilate a living body, at any point, you begin a process which, unless checked, will drain it of its blood: will put its very life in peril.

So with the Church's Creed. Each article has its own place in the whole truth which the Creed tells about the Church's Lord. Tear any one of them out of its place and the process of depletion instantly begins. The truth and grace of Jesus Christ is lost, by just so much, to His Church and therefore to His world. He becomes less than He is, less than He might be, less than He wills to be, to us for our salvation. His hold is loosened: He becomes remote: He fades into the background: into the pages of a book: into the events of a past history: and, almost ere we know it, we have left to us only a memory, only a voice calling uncertainly across the centuries, only a good man and a great teacher: we are left—God pity us—we are left, just as St. Paul told us we should be left, in our sins, without redemption, without a Saviour, without hope, without God in the world.

Does this seem overwrought imagination? Do you doubt it? Every Christian century, every epoch of the Church's history, will furnish illustration. But you do not have to look so far afield. Look about you now. Think of those reputed Christian teachers, some of them Priests in our Church, who are now urging us to "simplify" the Creed (as they like to put it) by leaving out the Virgin Birth and the Resurrection of the Body. Why do they ask it? What is the difficulty? Nothing is more certain that that these two articles present no difficulty to those who whole-heartedly accept the Incarnation: that is, who affirm with the Apostles, with the New Testament, with the Church from the beginning that, "for us men and for our salvation," the only Begotten Son of God "came down from Heaven . . . and was made man." If that be really true, there is no difficulty in these articles. On the contrary, they are natural and almost inevitable consequences. Even if there were no word in Holy Scripture as to the way in which He entered, and then left, this earthly life, we should be almost driven to suppose, by the very logic of our faith, that His entrance and His exit must have been unique, in keeping with His own absolute uniqueness. His Virgin Birth, the Resurrection of His Body, give us what we need in our thought of Him. They complete the picture: they make it all one simple, solid, satisfying whole.

Where then is the difficulty? Why do these men ask that these articles be stricken out? Well, for answer we may very safely look much deeper down, much farther back. And so looking we shall have no great trouble in finding what the real reason it. For the logic of disbelief is as peremptory and inexorable as the logic of belief. If to believers in the Incarnation these articles seem quite natural and congruous, to those who disbelieve it they must seem the very opposite. If Jesus Christ is not the only Begotten Son of God made man, if, in the last analysis, He is but a man among other men, although the best of men, then a Virgin Mother and a risen body are empty portents, foolish superstitions, unnecessary, even contradictory. They disfigure and degrade the quiet, normal story of a merely human birth and a merely human death.

Have I made it clear? Do you see the point? Do you see how the thing works itself out, for belief on the one hand, for disbelief on the other? Do you see why I am justified in saying that the Creed of the Church stands or falls as one inseparable whole? If the Church disown one part of it, in the end she will find herself disowning all. And when the Church disowns her Creed, she dies, for she will have separated herself from her Lord, from the Giver of her life.

One word here dealing with the Creed's authority. What do we mean by the word authority in this connection? There is a clear distinction to be drawn. The Church has no power, human or divine, to compel men to believe her Creed. Men cannot be compelled to believe, even that there is a God or a life beyond the grave. There was no compulsion on men to believe in our Lord when He was visibly among them. Some did, but most did not. Even among the Apostolic group, Judas turned traitor. And obviously disbelief prevailed. He was rejected, mocked and crucified. And shall the Church's Creed prevail where the Church's Lord did not prevail? Shall it compel belief when He did not compel belief? Of course not. The very notion is absurd. Why, today the majority of men and women, even of those who are familiar with the Church's Creed, reject it. Only a minority believe it.

Yes, but the Church is part of that minority. That is the point. The Church believes the Creed. The Creed is authoritative for the Church. The Church has no other faith: has never had another faith; except that of the Creed by which she has lived from the beginning, from her very birthday. The Church has no reason for existence in this world except to propagate her faith and to persuade men to accept her Creed. The Church has no authority to compel any man's belief, but she has an indefeasible and authoritative claim upon the truth and honor of her agents and ambassadors.

Brethren, there is no dishonor or disgrace in poverty, whether it be poverty of purse or poverty of faith. Why, our Lord came to preach the Gospel to the poor. He loves the poor. And He is particularly patient with those who, being poor in faith, come to Him for more. "Lord, increase our faith": no prayer is more sure of His answer. Think how patiently, how tenderly, He dealt with His Apostles in their stupidity and dulness: in their misunderstandings and mistakes: how He was content to wait till the seed of faith which He had planted had taken root and grown and become strong enough to make its "great confession." We must try to be as patient and as tender as He is with those who can scarcely believe in the full glory of the Gospel of the Grace of God. No; poverty is not dishonor.

Dishonor comes only when we use dishonest means for the relief of our poverty. To steal another's purse because our own is empty is dishonest. And faith means more than money: therefore, to take away another's faith because our own is failing is still more dishonest. Be on your guard as you listen to the facile praise of "liberalism" in religion: particularly of "liberalism" in dealing with the Church's Creed. Much modern talk in praise of "liberalism" is but the prostitution of a noble word. It is easy to be liberal with other people's money, but it is not praiseworthy. And it is not advisable if you desire liberty. For it is apt to lead not to liberty, but to its opposite. And even the world knows what to call it. It calls it stealing. The kind of liberalism which gives away the Church's faith, having little of its own, deserves a harsher name and will receive, if God be just, a sterner punishment.

To sum all up, to say a final word, remember who it was Who said "whosoever shall cause to stumble one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were cast into the sea."

God guard us from that condemnation.
God send us men. God keep us true.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

DANIEL SYLVESTER TUTTLE, Third Bishop of the Diocese of Missouri and Twelfth Presiding Bishop of the Church, died at his home in St. Louis, Missouri, on April 17th, 1923, in the eighty-seventh year of his age. Born in Windham, New York, he received his early education in the Public Schools and at Delhi Academy, New York. He graduated from Columbia University in 1857 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1862. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood in 1863 by Bishop Horatio Potter. For the next five years he was Assistant Minister of Zion Church, Morris, New York. In 1867 he was appointed Missionary Bishop of Montana with jurisdiction also in Idaho and Utah, a territory of some 340,000 square miles. As he was still several months short of the canonical age, his consecration was postponed until May 1st, 1867. In 1867 he was elected Bishop of Missouri, but courageously declined that he might continue where he was. In 1880 his district was divided and he became Missionary Bishop of Utah and Idaho. It was perhaps during this period of his notable career that his fame and power as a missionary of the Church reached its zenith. In 1886 he was again elected as Bishop of Missouri. This time he accepted the election, bringing to an end the most active and energetic part of his missionary life, though remaining without a rival as the commanding missionary spirit in the Church. At the time of his death he was the senior Bishop in the Anglican Church and indeed in the whole Catholic Church throughout the world. Bishop Tuttle was so widely known, so deeply loved, so justly celebrated, that no words in praise of him are needed here.

At the opening service of this Convention I spoke of him as "devoted, loyal Churchman: heroic Missionary: strong-hearted Soldier of the Cross: wise in council: of unconquerable hope: of tender heart: of childlike faith." He has left an indelible mark on our life and history during the last two generations.

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, Second Bishop of Pittsburgh, died suddenly at Niagara Falls on September 17th, 1922, in the eightieth year of his age. Born in the City of New York, he studied successively at Phillips Academy, Andover, at Yale University and at the Divinity School in Philadelphia. He was made Deacon by Bishop Odenheimer and Priest by Bishop Randall of Colorado in 1868, under whom he took up his first work. In 1870, he became Rector of the Church of The Nativity, South Bethlehem, Pa. Twelve years later, on S. Paul's Day, 1882, he was consecrated Bishop of Pittsburgh. On the occasion of his Fortieth Anniversary as Bishop, S. Paul's Day, 1922, I had the great privilege of attending a meeting of his Diocesan Convention and of preaching the sermon. It was a most memorable event, one that I shall always cherish in my memory. Bishop Whitehead was a man whom the Church at large delighted to honor. No other Bishop played a more important part on the chief Commissions of the General Convention appointed during the last twenty-five years. Especially notable was the service he rendered to the Commissions on the Revision of the Hymnal and on the Revision of the Prayer Book, of both of which he was the Chairman. He had a quiet humor, and a buoyant, cheerful temper which endeared him to everyone who came into close and sustained relation with him. He was transparently sincere, shrewd in insight, full of wise and human understanding, unyielding in his central convictions as a Churchman, but genuinely tolerant in non-essentials, with that delicate touch and tact which are the unconscious virtues of a Christian gentleman.

CHARLES DAVID WILLIAMS, Fourth Bishop of Michigan, died on Ash Wednesday, February 14th, 1923, at his home in Detroit, in the sixty-third year of his age. He was born in Bellevue, Ohio, and trained at Kenyon College and Bexley Hall, being made Deacon in 1883 and ordained Priest in 1884. He was successively in charge of Churches at Fernbank, Riverside, and Steubenville in the Diocese of Southern Ohio, and became Dean of Trinity Cathedral at Cleveland in 1893. In this position he made a notable name for himself by his preaching and influence in the community. He was consecrated Bishop on February 7th, 1908. First among his many gifts I should rank the robust sincerity and vigor of his virile manhood. The quick appeal of his blue eyes and moving tones of voice disarmed all criticism and opened all hearts to the power of his word for righteousness and justice. He had something of both the prophet and the poet. His prophetic spirit roused the conscience and his poetic feeling held the heart. This accounts in part for his rare ability to draw and attract men, and measures the unique loss which the Church has suffered by his death.

GERSHOM MOTT WILLIAMS, Bishop in charge of the European Churches since 1913, died in the American Hospital, Paris, France, on April 14th, 1923, in the sixty-seventh year of his age. Born at Fort Hamilton, New York, he studied at Cornell University and was made Deacon in 1880 and Priest two years later. He was Rector in Detroit of Messiah Church and of S. George's Church. In 1889 he became Dean of All Saints' Cathedral, Milwaukee, and was appointed Archdeacon of Northern Michigan in 1891. On May 1st, 1896, he was consecrated first Bishop of the Diocese of Marquette, resigning his jurisdiction in 1909 on account of ill health. He was a member of the embassy of the Archbishop of Canterbury to Sweden in 1909. He served on the Commission on Faith and Order of our General Convention and was an Editor of the New Hymnal as revised in 1916. Bishop Williams was a man of wide interests, sound scholarship and broad culture. He was recognized as an authority in matters concerning the history, polity and order of the Scandinavian Churches, in which he took a particular interest, keeping closely in touch with Scandinavian congregations in this country and especially in his own Diocese. He was most useful in helping to define and establish satisfactory relations between these Churches and the Anglican Communion. He was a man of deeply spiritual nature and of marked individuality. He had a real poetic gift, often touched by quaint and whimsical imagination. His utterance was always to the point and left its mark.

ALFRED HARDING, Second Bishop of Washington, died in the early morning of May 1st, 1923, after two weeks' illness at his home, in the seventy-first year of his age. Born at Lisburn, Ireland, he came to this country when fifteen years of age, graduated from Trinity College and from Berkeley Divinity School, was made Deacon in 1882 and Priest the year following. He was Assistant Minister first at Trinity Church, Geneva, New York, and then at S. Paul's Church, Baltimore. In 1887 he became Rector of S. Paul's Church, Washington. For more than twenty years he played a prominent part in the new Diocese of Washington—as Delegate to the General Convention; as Secretary of the Standing Committee; and as Canon of the National Cathedral. On S. Paul's Day, 1909, he was consecrated Bishop in succession to Bishop Satterlee. He was a man of extraordinary purity and singleness of heart and mind, utterly humble and self-forgetful, strong in his love for, and loyalty to, the Church, its doctrine, discipline and worship. He was distinguished by the patient, quiet wisdom with which he labored for the Church's national expansion and consolidation. No Bishop was more widely and deeply loved and venerated by his brother Bishops.

Of Priests of This Diocese:

CHARLES AUGUSTUS MAISON, Rector Emeritus of S. James' Church, Kingsessing, Philadelphia, died at his home in West Philadelphia, on June 16, 1922, in the ninety-ninth year of his age. Born in Poughkeepsie, New York, he was graduated from Yale University in 1844 (being at his death its oldest living graduate), and from the General Theological Seminary in 1847. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood by Bishop Ives two years later. He served successively at S. Paul's Church, Edenton; S. Thomas' Church, Windsor, and the Church of The Advent, Williamson, all in North Carolina. In 1851 he went to S. Paul's Church, Stapleton, New York. In 1857 he came to this Diocese as Rector of S. James', Kingsessing, which position he held for thirty-five years of devoted and most successful labor. He was also very active in the life and work of the Diocese. While he was Dean of the Convocation of West Philadelphia, several of our Parishes in that part of our Diocese were started largely through his efforts. He was an Examining Chaplain for many years. Dr. Maison was a man of scholarly taste and attainment. He had clear and well-grounded views and measures of men and movements in the Church. His intellectual acumen had that delicate and tender insight which comes only from depth and power of spiritual life. My visits to him in his old age were occasions of blessings received rather than given. His calmness and gentleness of spirit were a reassuring witness to the meaning of "joy and peace in believing."

GEORGE SEARS GASSNER, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died at the Episcopal Hospital on August 25th, 1922, in the seventy-third year of his age. Born in Germantown, Ohio, he graduated from Iowa Wesleyan University in 1869 and spent eight years in the ministry of the Methodist Church. After a year at our General Theological Seminary, he was ordained to the Priesthood by Bishop Lay. There followed a long period of varied parochial experience in Easton, Maryland; S. Johnland, New York; Kansas City and Delaware City. In 1897 he came to this Diocese, taking charge of Emmanuel, Quakertown. In 1899 he became Chaplain of the Seamen's Institute, with charge of the Chapel of The Redeemer. This position he held for twenty years, resigning it in 1919. His work among seafaring men, brought here from the four corners of the earth, was his great delight and chief concern. His whole-hearted sincerity and genial kindness won for him a quick and wide response. The joy he found in work, and the love he had for it, he communicated to those with whom and for whom he labored.

ROBERT GILBERT OSBORN, a non-parochial Priest of this Diocese, died at the Lankenau Hospital after a short illness on October 23, 1922, in the sixty-seventh year of his age. Born in New Haven, Connecticut, he studied at Yale University, the Berkeley Divinity School and for one year at Oxford, England. He was made Deacon and Priest in 1885. He served successively at Ansonia, Connecticut; Elizabeth, New Jersey; as Missionary in the Diocese of Albany; in Buffalo, New York; in Baltimore, Maryland; in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin; and in Lowell, Massachusetts. His connection with this Diocese began in 1905 when he became Rector of the Church of S. John The Evangelist, Philadelphia, serving also as Chaplain of the House of S. Michael and All Angels. Since 1906 he helped his brethren as he was able and had given much time to study. He was also Librarian of the Historical Society. Dr. Osborn was a genuine and careful scholar, being especially well versed in Patristic literature. He was a real seeker for, and a lover of, the truth. His strong, eager loyalty to the teaching of the Church came from reasoned conviction and clear processes of thought. He did much in public and private to strengthen the faith of his brethren. He obtained his doctor's degree from the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1913 in recognition of an able and exhaustive thesis on "Plotinus and the Christian Doctrine of God."

JOHN ANDREWS HARRIS, Rector Emeritus of S. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, died at his home in Chestnut Hill on December 30th, 1922, in the eighty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia, trained at the Episcopal Academy, University of Pennsylvania and Princeton College, where he graduated in 1852. He was prepared privately for Holy Orders and was Principal of S. Mark's Episcopal Academy until 1862. Ordained Deacon in 1858 and Priest in 1859, he became Assistant Minister at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, and then at S. Clement's Church, Philadelphia, being elected Rector of S. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, in 1864. He held this position for the very unusual term of fifty years, when the infirmities of old age compelled him to resign from active work. For more than a generation his name has been a household word in our Diocese. He filled many most important positions with great distinction. To a degree very seldom equalled he was the spiritual moulder and maker of S. Paul's Parish. It is directly due to him that the congregation has grown into one of the strongest spiritual forces in the Diocese, devoted, united, intelligent, loyal, well-grounded in the faith, zealous for good works. Steadiness, steadfastness, practical wisdom, sound judgment, a well trained mind, a hospitable heart, a sanctified and disciplined will: these were the gifts and graces of this great pastoral servant of the Good Shepherd. He blessed all who came within the circle of his influence. He was a stay and strength to the whole Diocese.

CHARLES CARROLL QUIN, Assistant Minister of S. Clement's Church, Philadelphia, died on January 26, 1923, in the sixty-second year of his age. Born in the City of New York, he studied at S. Stephen's College, Anandale, and after private preparation for the ministry, was made Deacon in 1882 and Priest in 1887. The first years of his ministry were passed in North Carolina at Charlotte and Wadesboro. He also acted as Chaplain to Bishop Lyman. In July, 1888, he came to S. Clement's as Assistant Minister, where he kept his Silver Anniversary only two years ago, at which time the whole congregation of the Parish expressed their deep and abiding appreciation of his loving and faithful service. He was marked by simplicity, good humor, kindly spirit, humility, and unselfishness. He was utterly devoted to his Church and Parish, ready to do the smallest thing in the very spirit of a lover. "Blessed are they that dwell in Thy House: they will be always praising Thee." No more fitting epitaph could be found for Father Quin.

JOHN GARWOOD-QUIN, a retired Priest of this Diocese, died aboard the Steamship "Tihiti," in Wellington Harbor, New Zealand, on February 5th, 1923, in the sixty-third year of his age. He received his early education at Niagara University and the Grand Seminary, Montreal, geing ordained Priest in the Church of Rome in 1883. He was received into our ministry in 1909 by Bishop Harding in the Diocese of Washington. In 1911 he was transferred to Pennsylvania and for a year was Priest in charge of S. Stephen's Church, Clifton Heights. Since then he officiated in various Churches as his services were required. He started last autumn on a journey to the Orient, where his final sickness overtook him.

ROBERT LIVINGSTON STEVENS, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died at his home in Petersburg, New Jersey, on February 27th, 1923, in the seventy-third year of his age. Born in Hoboken, New Jersey, he graduated from Princeton in 1872 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1875. He was made Deacon in the same year by Bishop Scarborough and ordained to the Priesthood in 1876 by Bishop Morris. For ten years he was a devoted and successful missionary in Oregon, leaving that district in 1886 to do similar work in Nebraska. In 1889 he came to this Diocese as Rector for seven years of S. John's Church, Concord. For the next eleven years he was at Vineland, New Jersey, and at Hartwell, Ohio, returning here in 1907 to take charge of S. Mark's Church, Honeybrook, and of S. Mary's Church, Warwick. In 1912 his health gave out and he retired from regular duty, although always ready to give his services as opportunity arose. All through his ministry he kept the heart and spirit of a missionary.

Enfeebled by the strain of his earlier life, he none the less retained to the end something of the fire of his youthful energy and courage, prepared at all times to "endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ."

Of Delegates to the last Convention:

CLARENCE SEARS KATES, of S. Paul's Church, West Whiteland, died July 10, 1922, in his fifty-fourth year. He was a founder of the Church Farm School.

WILLIAM RUDOLPH SMITH, of Christ Church, Philadelphia, died September 9, 1922, in the seventy-second year of his age. For many years he had been an active member of the Church of S. Luke and the Epiphany and a Delegate to the Convention.

JOHN HENRY CURRIER, of Holy Innocents Church, Tacony, died November 23, 1922. He was Superintendent of the Sunday School for over twenty years and a member of the Vestry for nearly fifty years, being Rector's Warden at the time of his death and Accounting Warden previously.

EWING LAWRENCE MILLER, of S. James, Philadelphia, died at the Polyclinic Hospital on January 23, 1923, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. A most active and devoted Churchman, in addition to his parochial duties, he had served the Diocese in many capacities. From 1899 to 1920 he acted as Treasurer, giving his time freely and fully. He was a Custodian of the Church House from the time of its erection; a Trustee of the Diocese and also of the Episcopal Fund from 1899; a member of the Boards of the Episcopal Hospital and of the City Mission; Managing Director of The Leamy Home and Delegate to the General Convention in 1897.

WILLIAM PORTER MCCOY, of S. James Church, Bristol, died on January 24, 1923, in the sixty-second year of his age.

THOMAS EARP SHOEMAKER, of S. Paul's Church, Cheltenham, died on March 5, 1923. He was a Vestryman for many years, serving as Secretary and Accounting Warden since 1896, and a Delegate since 1902.

WILLIAM CAMPFIELD KENT, of All Hallows Church, Wyncote, died on March 27, 1923. A charter member of the Mission, he served as Delegate from the time of the admission of the Parish into union with the Convention and as Rector's Warden of the Vestry. He was a member of the Board of Missions since 1894 and active in the Church Club of the Diocese.

Of Delegates to former Conventions:

SYLVESTER BONNAFFON, JR., of the Church of The Transfiguration, West Philadelphia, died on May 12, 1922. A member of the Vestry for many years, he served as Delegate from 1883 to 1894.

WILLIAM RICHARDSON CHAPMAN, of Holy Apostles, died June 19, 1922, aged 85 years. A member of the original Vestry, he served as Delegate 1889 to 1919.

ROBERT PILLING, of S. Mark's Church, Frankford, died June 28, 1922. For many years he acted as Accounting Warden.

JAMES HUNTER EWING, died on December 30, 1922, aged 79 years. A Vestryman of the Church of The Redeemer, Lower Merion, from 1863, he served as Secretary from 1874 to 1885, as Accounting Warden from 1885 to 1910, as Rector's Warden from 1915 to his death, and as Delegate in 1921. He was also a member of the Vestry of S. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia for 17 years and Accounting Warden for 14 years.

JOSEPH CRAWFORD EGBERT, of S. Mary's Church, Wayne, died on January 17, 1923. He was a member of the original Vestry from 1885, Accounting Warden from 1889 and served as Delegate in 1890.

SAMUEL WETHERILL GUMBES, of S. Paul's Church, Oaks, died on February 1, 1923.

ERNEST ZANTZINGER, of S. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, died on February 1, 1923. He was at one time Rector's Warden.

ARTHUR ALWIN BENKERT, of the Church of The Atonement, Morton, died on March 14, 1923. A charter member of the Vestry from 1883, he was Secretary until 1919, Superintendent of the Sunday School from 1893 to 1910, and Delegate from 1905 to 1907.

Of Vestrymen:

Lewis Kniffen Brooks, S. Mary, Wayne; Charles I. Eastwood, S. Timothy, Roxborough; Spencer Disston Wright, S. Andrew, West Philadelphia; Francis Dring Wetherill, S. Clement; Joseph Shebly Hibbs, Covenant; E. L. Maise, S. Jude and The Nativity; Levis Leslie Mann, S. Mark, Philadelphia; William E. Hoffman, House of Prayer; Evan M. Christie, Transfiguration; Matthew Walker, S. Barnabas, Haddington; William L. Games, S. Thomas; William F. Pyle, S. John, Concord; Edward Stalker Sayres, S. James, Philadelphia.

J. Beagan; Ellen Louise Budd, wife of Rev. J. R. L. Nisbett; Anne Cole, wife of Rev. J. Andrews Harris; Henrietta Saltonstall, wife of Rev. L. C. Washburn; Maude, wife of Rev. J. L. Zacker; Julia Rogers Riley, widow of Rev. B. J. Douglass, former Rector of S. Paul, Oaks; Isabella Susan, sister of Rev. F. D. Ward; Elizabeth Tuke, mother of Rev. C. E. Tuke; Martha M. Pancoast; (Mrs.) Margaretta W. Bayard; Mary Ann, widow of the late John Thompson, author of well-known hymns; Charlotte Lane Shannon, 30 years Sunday School teacher, presented 11 scholars for Holy Orders; Elizabeth Shinn Carryl; Lillian Fitler Wood, 54 years Sunday School teacher.

APPENDIX B

The Bishop Suffragan's Address

During the past year I have performed such duties as were assigned to me by the Bishop of the Diocese, and during his absence have acted as Ecclesiastical Authority in accordance with the provisions of the Canons.

I have endeavored to keep in mind the limitations of my office during my exercise of this temporary position, and in all important Ecclesiastical matters have taken counsel with the Standing Committee or with its venerable President—and in administrative questions, with the Executive Council.

To the Clergy of the Diocese and to the laymen with whom I have come in official contact, I desire to express my sincere thanks for the consideration and courtesy with which they have co-operated in every effort, so that the work was administered with ease and without much increase of labor.

It is also a pleasure that (thanks to your co-operation) I have been able to turn over to the Bishop the affairs of the Diocese without any new problems that have arisen during the past year.

As a Diocese we are grateful to the visiting Bishops Hunting, Davenport and Cook, who for three months during the winter assisted in taking confirmations and whose ministrations were appreciated by our people.

I herewith submit, together with my Diary, a summary of Statistics and Official Acts for the Convention Year as follows:

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE DIOCESE

Of material improvements in the Diocese I will only mention a few of the more important.

S. John's Church, Lansdowne, has acquired a lot worth $9,500, on which to erect a Parish Building at an estimated cost of about $40,000, nearly all of which is in hand.

S. Nathanael's, Philadelphia, has completed its organ chamber and sacristy and is ready to become incorporated and to be admitted into union with the Convention.

S. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, which recently observed its one hundredth anniversary, has been much improved by the addition of a beautiful stone exterior and has also purchased a rectory.

S. Paul's Church, Overbrook, has built a new transept and S. Paul's, Ogontz, a new chancel.

S. Alban's, Olney, has erected a new Chapel.

Emmanuel, Holmesburg, is proceeding with the erection of a Parish House and the corner stone will be laid this month.

The Parish House of S. John The Divine was dedicated last month.

The Church of the Annunciation has paid off $17,500 on a mortgage; S. Augustine's Church has paid the balance due on their mortgage and the Church will be consecrated on Whitsunday.

There are many minor improvements, too numerous to mention, but they indicate that we have reached the time when needed improvements are being made throughout the Diocese.

CHURCH EXTENSION FUND

During the year Calls have been issued for the work at Glenside, at St. Giles's, Stonehurst, and the Chapel of The Incarnation, Drexel Hill. We are much indebted to Franklin H. Spencer, the indefatigable Secretary, by whose efforts the receipts in the past two years have doubled. It is with regret that we announce that Mr. Spencer has resigned and is about to leave our Diocese. Our best wishes and prayers will go with him to his new position as Executive Secretary of the Missionary District of Oklahoma. Mr. Samuel H. Warnock, our Publicity Manager, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Spencer as Secretary and we bespeak for him your earnest and hearty support.

The Church Extension Fund is the only one on which we can positively rely for new constructive work towards the purchase of ground, the erection of Chapels, Rectories and Parish Buildings. We hope and expect that the day will soon come when we will be able to give substantial assistance to this forward work from our missionary receipts, but at present, for new work, we depend almost entirely on the Church Extension Fund.

MORTGAGES ON MISSION PROPERTY

During the Convention year, with the aid of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester, we have paid off mortgages on the Rectory at Highland Park and on the Parish House at Drexel Hill. For two years this Auxiliary has aided in paying off mortgages, the total amount raised for that purpose being $7930.00. With other pledges and grants from the Advancement Society we were able to retire mortgages to the value of over $18,000.00.

In the Convocation of Chester there are now but two mortgages on Mission property, at Darby and at Collingdale.

Words cannot express our thanks to the women of the Convocation of Chester for this notable assistance.

CHURCH WORK AMONG THE DEAF

There is little to report about Church Work among the Deaf during the past year, as the Missionary, the Rev. C. O. Dantzer, has been ill most of the time and we have had to depend on visiting clergymen and on the services of Lay Readers. The continued illness of Mr. Dantzer has been a serious drawback. Our Candidate for Holy Orders, Mr. Warren M. Smaltz, has passed his examinations and will be ordained to the Diaconate on Trinity Sunday.

WORK AMONG THE FOREIGN BORN

Archdeacon White took charge of the work among the foreign born on November 1st, and has been endeavoring to solve many perplexling problems in his department.

His work brings him into connection with Italians, Poles, Hungarians, Roumanians, Armenians and Greeks.

During the winter we had a visit from Bishop Tirayre, the Primate of the Church of Armenia in America, who desired the use of one of our Churches in West Philadelphia as many Armenians live in that section of the city. Through the courtesy of the rector and vestry of S. George's Church, they have been given the hospitality of that Parish and, for some months past, the Armenian Apostolic Church has been worshipping at S. George's twice a month. Everything is working smoothly and satisfactorily and the congregations crowd the Church.

We have not asked Archdeacon White to make a detailed report to this Convention as it will be some time before he can outline a constructive program.

It is evident, however, that the work is progressing much more favorably than in the past and we feel sure that it is only a question of time when it will be placed on a permanent and more satisfactory basis.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

There has been a noteworthy development in the work carried on by our Chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania, the Rev. John R. Hart.

Early last autumn a survey of the neighborhood was made by the Student Vestry Committee in charge of the Chapel of the Transfiguration, aided by some of the women undergraduates. This survey revealed an appalling need for community service, particularly among the young girls and children.

Through the co-operation and assistance of some men and women in the Diocese such a neighborhood work was begun last autumn and provision was made for its continuance by the Executive Council in January. A number of activities are being carried on, including a kindergarden, classes for boys and girls, and work among the women, and the outlook is most encouraging. The community in which the Chapel is located is one of the most neglected in the city, and this center will serve a double purpose:—It will not only be of inestimable help to the people of the neighborhood, but the active co-operation in all forms of social work by undergraduates (who in this training school will get experience and inspiration), should contribute in a large measure to their usefulness in similar efforts when they return to their home parishes.

RURAL WORK

In our missionary work we have never assigned definite territory so as to insure that all parts of the Diocese were under the pastoral oversight of our Missionaries.

There are several large rural sections where it would not have been possible to do so some years ago. The distances are so great and the territory so large that satisfactory pastoral oversight could not be rendered without the use of automobiles. As all our missionaries in the country who have more than one station, now have cars provided by the Diocese and are able to cover more ground than heretofore, suggestions have been made that a more comprehensive and constructive method should be followed in our rural work.

During the year, after several conferences with the Deans of the rural Convocations and with the Department of Missions of the Executive Council, we have unofficially assigned to each missionary a number of townships in his vicinity over which he will exercise pastoral oversight. (This arrangement will not interfere with visiting parishioners outside of such designated territory.)

Some of the districts are very large, embracing over a dozen townships and several of them covering more territory than a large city. The population in many is very scattered, but there are opportunities for pastoral work which should bring a great blessing into the lives of families living in isolated places.

There is an increasing need in the Church for clergymen who will devote themselves to this rural work.

THE CHURCH FARM SCHOOL

In my Convention Address in 1917 I spoke of a proposed school in the country, telling you of its plans and of the great hopes we had of its success. Our fondest hopes for this work have been realized.

The first year the property was in our possession it was used as a war-garden and was the first of its kind in this part of the state.

In April, 1918, the school actually started. That was five years ago and on June 6th the first commencement of the school will be held, the boys graduating having an academic high school education and each boy prepared to go out and earn his living in a respectable, manly way.

A consolidation has been effected with the Home of the Good Shepherd of Rosemont, which will permit the Church Farm School taking younger boys than heretofore was possible. As now organized we admit boys between the ages of ten and fourteen and keep them a sufficient time to give them a high school education and a good training in one of six vocations, namely: agriculture, floriculture, carpentry, cabinet making, mechanics, electricity.

The School has four dormitory cottages built and two in course of construction and money promised for the seventh: it has also a home for the Headmaster.

The greatest advance has been made during the past year through the erection of an administration building, a gift of Mrs. George C. Thomas. The contractor's price for this building was $150,000.00, but through careful management and a large part of the work being done by the boys themselves, the building has been erected for one-half of that amount.

The School has 75 boys on its list today; within a year or two it will be helping 100 and eventually 150.

When the necessary shops and other buildings have been erected, it is the hope of those most interested in the School to raise a sufficient endowment to carry on the work so that the Diocese may be relieved of the task of granting through the Executive Council, the considerable sum needed each year.

THE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Though the Philadelphia Divinity School is not a Diocesan Institution, its fills a unique place in the life of our Diocese.

The new William Bacon Stevens Library Building was completed in the early autumn, in time for occupancy at the beginning of the academic year. By a series of temporary partitions on the lower floors this one building has been adapted, for the present, to the many needs of the School—class rooms, office and refectory. The large upper room, with its fine windows, its splendid lines and proportions, is the great reading room—partly filled now with book stacks, which will ultimately be removed as the School grows. This room also serves as a temporary chapel. In this building the School is able to make plain to all the conception which it has formed for itself of what a Divinity School should be, and which it is determined to be guided by in all its further development. It is a noble conception; and the actual realization of this first unit has already roused great interest and has made its important contributions towards the next step that must be taken.

The removal of the School to its new site has had marked effect upon its whole inner life. The student enrollment has promptly begun to increase: the undergraduates are 50% greater in number than a year ago, and there is every reason to anticipate a steady growth. Already the new building is being used to capacity and further growth will make increased accommodations urgently necessary.

The plans of the Chapel and deanery have been completed; as also plans for the first faculty residence—this latter given by Mr. William B. Kurtz in memory of a son lost in the great war. At this writing, these plans are in the builders' hands; and it is hoped that a contract may be awarded in the near future.

All in all, the progress made upon the project has been remarkable and encouraging, and is in itself sufficient warrant for the confident assurance that the plan in its completion will be realized by steady and prompt stages. In this connection, it is worth while to remind Church people that already the support won for this comprehensive scheme of outward and inward development, amounts to more than a million dollars.

I hope the Diocese will be ready to lead the Church in stressing the importance of theological education, and to further this purpose, I would suggest that an annual offering for the Divinity School be taken on Trinity Sunday or some other appropriate day in every Parish and Mission of the Diocese. The Roman Catholic Church raises over two hundred thousand dollars each year by such an annual collection. It may be urged that we are asked for too many special offerings and I concede the general validity of such an objection but must maintain that the supply of a well trained ministry is of paramount importance, and that the future of the Church largely depends upon it. Chief among our missionary efforts should be included some ample provision for the housing and education of the students who will be our future missionaries.

SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

During the past year the Seamen's Church Institute has raised over $200,000, which, in addition to funds previously contributed and prospects which are reasonably certain, give assurance that the $360,000 needed for the new building will be realized. The Churchmen's Missionary Association has agreed to bring before its Annual Meeting in October a proposition to merge its work with the Institute. The agreement provides for the perpetuation of the name of the Chapel of The Redeemer, and the holding of a Prayer Book Service every Sunday. Since the work of the Seamen's Church Institute is interdenominational in its organization, the Chapel will be conducted as a union Chapel, save for this definite provision. A Committee of the Seamen's Church Institute and other friends of both organizations are planning to raise a sum of approximately $5,000 as a contribution toward the cost of the Chapel and a member of the Diocese has contributed $1,000 to place the Altar and Reredos as a Memorial in the new Chapel.

The enlargement of the work for seamen has met with corresponding response on the part of the men. During the months of January, February and March, over 7500 lodgings were provided, relief given to over 500 needy seamen, and employment obtained for nearly 1600. In the same period, over 11,000 books and magazines have been distributed and the attendance at the three recreation rooms has been 25,000.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCES

Throughout the winter group conferences have been held with the clergy in regard to our offerings for missionary work. We have all been dissatisfied with the amount raised for General Missions, but it was generally conceded that the Quota as assigned to the Diocese is larger than we can hope to reach at present. At the same time it was clearly recognized that it is our manifest duty to raise, at the very least, our share of the Maintenance Budget.

We believe that these conferences have been helpful and fruitful. A letter was sent to the clergy asking what each Parish or Mission expected to give during the year 1923. Reports were received from 134 Parishes and Missions. Of these over 40% expect to give the Quota in full or exceeding that amount; over 20% expect to give a sum equal to or exceeding the Maintenance Budget; and nearly 40% do not expect to give the amount assigned as their share of maintenance. The increases (omitting all under $100) show that 43 parishes and missions expect to increase their offering for 1923 to an amount averaging $500 each. It is only fair to say that some half dozen of our largest and most generous parishes, where the Quota has always been exceeded, give a much lower figure this year as their expectancy. I am sure that we can safely assume that these parishes will give quite as much as last year in sums that can be properly credited on the Maintenance Budget.

The Executive Council and its Department of Missions are ready and anxious to do all in their power to co-operate with the clergy and the parishes, so that in 1923 we may at least raise our Maintenance Budget. The women of the Diocese, in every organization, are giving their earnest and hearty co-operation to this effort.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

It is not necessary to speak in detail of the work of the women in their various organizations: they have been moving steadily forward. Special mention, however, should be made of Pennsylvania's contribution to the United Thank Offering which for the last Triennium was greater than any in our history, amounting to $72,155. In view of the discouraging reports of our Diocesan offerings for General Missions, this stands out as the one ray of sunshine on our missionary horizon. The women are now setting us a good example in their generous response for the current year. The Annual Presentation Service was held last Thursday and the total amount received to date is $13,015.56. As the collections for the first year after the General Convention are naturally smaller than in the two succeeding years, the only fair comparison is with previous first years:

In 1914 the offering was $6,805.15.
In 1917 " " " $8,778.80.
In 1920 " " " $10,263.74.
In 1923 " " " $12,004.71.

This is an encouraging sign of an increasing missionary enthusiasm which, when reflected in our parochial offerings, will lead us to go forward with confidence in the hope that there will be a material increase during the present fiscal year.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

A great deal has been recently said about weekday religious schools and rather sweeping statements made about the failure of Sunday Schools.

Those who were in this church at the Annual Presentation Service of the Lenten Missionary Offering on Sunday know the tremendous importance of our Sunday Schools, and realize that they contribute one-fourth of the total offerings of this Diocese for General Missions. This year the Lenten Offering will be about $62,000, an increase of $5,000 over last year.

There are doubtless some Schools which are not successful, but there are many Churches in this Diocese which would be a failure without their Sunday Schools. Perhaps we see the movement at its best in Pennsylvania where it has always had a fostering care. It seems a truism to say that the Sunday Schools will continue for generations to come; on the other hand, we cannot say with any degree of certainty that the week-day religious school has been such an unqualified success that it will take the place of the Church Schools which meet on Sunday. There are hundreds of boys and girls and young men and women who could not attend a week day school for the simple reason that they are at work. The decision of the educational leaders of the Church at the annual conference held last month in Omaha was wise, viz., that the instruction given in week day religious schools should be considered as supplementary to and not as a substitute for the teaching and training given in Church Schools on Sunday. Let us do all in our power to strengthen our Church Schools and make them more useful. If any have been failures let us endeavor to find out the cause of the failures and with greater devotion try to achieve better results.

Let us walk by the same rule in all Church work, seeking God's guidance and blessing that we may remove the causes of our failures and with thanksgiving for God's mercies in the past press forward with renewed earnestness and faithfulness, working together in unity of spirit for the upbuilding of His Kingdom.

Report of the Standing Committee

PHILADELPHIA, April 30, 1923.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania report that they organized on May 22, 1922, by electing The Rev. James DeWolf Perry, D.D., as President, and Mr. R. Francis Wood as Secretary.

During the past year they have recommended for Ordination to the Priesthood:

The Rev. A. Willoughby Henzell
The Rev. John R. McGrory
The Rev. John L. Zacker
The Rev. Henry J. Pulver
The Rev. Lloyd Mellor Smith
The Rev. John M. Weber
The Rev. Adolphus E. Henry

They have recommended for Ordination to the Diaconate:

Adolphus E. Henry
George Edward Scull
Alexander J. Kilpatrick
John Doyle
Herbert A. Donovan
Warren Milton Smaltz
John H. A. Bomberger
Robert S. Whitehead

They have recommended as Candidates for Holy Orders:

Alexander John Kilpatrick
Arthur Burdette Vossler
C. Edward Hopkin
S. Henry White
William Campbell Kilpatrick
William R. McKee
Hamilton Aulenback
Robert Oliver Kevin, Jr.
George Stewart McKinley
William MacDonald Sharp

May 22, 1922.—Gave consent to the election and consecration of The Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Slattery as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

The Bishop entered the room and spoke to the Committee of his announcement of elections made at the Convention, which, owing to the manner in which they were presented to him by the Tellers, were erroneous in the case of the ballots for three positions voted for, namely, the Deputies to the General Convention, the Executive Council and the Committee appointed on the Cathedral Foundation; one in each case not having been elected by the concurrent votes of both Orders.

After debate Mr. Bonsall moved that in the judgment of the Committee, the election having been announced and the Convention having adjourned without a question being raised as to the decision of the President, this decision stands as the action of the Convention. Seconded and carried.

It was also decided that the Secretary should request the Secretary of the Convention to put in the published JOURNAL a foot-note stating this action of the Standing Committee.

The opinion of the Committee was also expressed as to filling the possible vacancy in the list of Deputies to the General Convention, that in accordance with the Rule of Order of the Convention, the Alternate having the highest number of votes should fill the vacancy.

Gave consent to the sale of St. Timothy's, Roxborough, of part of the Church Yard, which had become unsuitable for burial purposes.

June 6, 1922.—Advised the Bishop to consent to the application of St. Mary's, Hamilton Village, to the placing of a mortgage on the Church property, if it became necessary to do so, in order to provide for necessary repairs.

Elected as Custodians of the Church House:

The Bishop, ex-officio
The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D.
The Rev. Geo. W. Hodge, S.T.D.
Mr. R. D. Brown
Mr. E. B. McCarthy
Mr. F. H. Moss
The Treasurer of the Diocese, ex-officio

The following were put in nomination as members of the Executive Council:

The Rev. Mr. Seymour
The Rev. Mr. Stockman
The Rev. Dr. Vernon
Mr. H. H. Bonnell
Mr. John L. Evans

and the Bishop, having expressed his agreement with the choice of the Committee, they were declared elected.

After hearing from the Bishop that his physicians had advised him that a prolonged rest was necessary in order to restore him to good health, the Committee adopted a resolution giving the Bishop leave of absence from this date to May 1, 1923.

June 30, 1922.—At a special meeting of the Committee consent was given to the election and consecration of The Rev. E. A. Penick as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Consent was given to the Vestry of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook, to the placing of a mortgage on the Parish House and Rectory in order to obtain funds to enlarge the Church building.

Consent was given to Bishop Garland as the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese to take action to depose from the Ministry The Rev. Gennaro Strianno.

October 3, 1922.—Received notice from Bishop Garland that he had deposed from the Ministry The Rev. Gennaro Strianno, at his own request.

Gave consent to the Vestry of St. Martin's, Oak Lane, to place a mortgage on the Rectory of that Parish in order to raise funds for the reconstruction of the Parish House.

Gave consent to the election and consecration of The Rev. George Ashton Oldham as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Albany.

November 7, 1922.—At the request of the Board of Council of the City Mission, nominated to fill vacancies on that Board The Rev. J. H. Chapman and Dr. Charles J. Hatfield.

Gave consent to the extinguishment of a ground-rent by St. James' of Kingsessing.

December 5, 1922.—Advised the Bishop to consent to the establishment of a new place of worship at Newtown Square, Delaware County.

Approved the transfer and merging of the work of the Church of the Redeemer (Seamen's Chapel) to the Seamen's Church Institute, subject to the opinion of the Chancellor of the Diocese as to the legality of such transfer.

Gave consent to the election and consecration of The Rev. Alexander Mann, D.D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

February 6, 1923.—Adopted the following minute on the death of The Rev. Dr. J. Andrews Harris:

"Our beloved colleague, The Rev. John Andrews Harris, D.D., S. T. D., died at the Rectory of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, on Saturday, December 30, 1922. He was Rector Emeritus of St. Paul's Church, and in term of residence was the Senior Presbyter of this Diocese. By the Diocese in Convention he was elected to be a member of the Standing Committe in 1893, and as such faithfully served, until in 1918 failing health and infirmities of advanced age induced him to resign. His positive character and practical mind; his dislike and pronounced disapproval of whatsoever tended to intolerance or to injustice; his clearness and freedom of thought; his promptness in forming his opinion and reaching decisions; his moral courage in avowing and maintaining his convictions; combined with broad-mindedness and generous consideration of the opinions of others who might differ from him, made him to be a useful and helpful member of our Committee. By the Diocese in Convention he was entrusted with many duties and responsibilities; for many years he was Chairman of the Committee on Canons; he was a Delegate to the General Convention of 1886. Having himself taught school, he was interested in educational work, and for many years was a leading Trustee of the Episcopal Academy. With exemplary patience and cheerfulness he bore the disabilities and discomforts of the closing years of his life, and came to his grave in full age like as a shock of corn cometh in its season: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them.'"

A letter was received from the Executive Secretary stating that there would be a balance of $5,000 to the credit of the Episcopal Fund after payment of assessments still due for the current year. On motion, it was resolved that the balance should be applied to a reduction in the assessments for that fund for the year 1924.

March 6, 1923.—The opinion of the Chancellor that the proposed transfer of the property of the Church of the Redeemer (Seamen's Mission) could be legally carried out was received.

Approval by the Committee was given to amendments to the Charter of the House of Prayer, Branchtown.

The Bishop Suffragan was advised to consent to the application of St. Nathanael's Mission for organization as a Parish and for its admission to the Convention, and the approval of the Committee was given to the proposed Form of Charter.

April 3, 1923.—Received notice from the Bishop that he would assume the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese on Easter Day, April 1, 1923.

The following names were agreed upon for submission to the Convention as nominees for the Executive Council:

Rev. Dr. Bartlett	Mr. Bonsall
Rev. Dr. Caley	Mr. Collier
Rev. Mr. Hartshorne	Mr. County
Rev. Dr. Mockridge	Mr. Earle
Rev. Mr. Pember	Mr. A. E. Newbold, Jr.
Rev. Dr. Washburn	Mr. Evan Randolph
Rev. Dr. Vernon	Mr. J. A. Harris, Jr.
Rev. Mr. Seymour	Mr. Hutton Kennedy
Rev. Mr. Stockman	Mr. F. H. Longshore
Rev. Mr. Booth	Mr. J. L. Evans
Rev. Mr. J. E. Hill	Mr. A. W. Sewall
Rev. Mr. Wood Stewart	Mr. Bradford

Approval was given to an amendment of the Charter of St. Paul's, Cheltenham.

The Committee re-nominated the present members of the Board of the City Mission for re-election.

St. Andrew's Church, West Vincent, has made no report to the Convention for three years.

April 30, 1923.—Consent was given to the placing of a mortgage for $1,500 on the Parish House of the Church of Saint Sauveur.

Consent was given under Canon I to the Charter of St. Nathanael's, the form of which had previously been approved, and to its application to be admitted into union with the Convention.

Consent was given to an amendment to the Charter of St. Elizabeth's, striking out the word "male" in the article specifying the qualifications of vestrymen.

Amendments to the Charter of St. Luke the Beloved Physician were approved provided that the word "baptized" should be added as one of the qualifications of vestrymen, and that the amount of the clear annual income be limited to $50,000 as provided by law.

Cleaning	871.92
Furniture and fixtures	29.63
Building repairs	1,534.18
Insurance	10.50
Account of Diocesan Library	500.00

Telegraph and telephone	$588.24
Water rent	96.87
Miscellaneous	421.98
Balance—Deficit transferred to Convention Fund (Canon IV, Section V, Paragraph 4)		$9,441.28
	$10,248.73	$10,248.73

FURTHER ANALYSIS OF CHURCH HOUSE DEFICIT YEAR 1922

Deficit, 1922		$9,441.28
To compare this deficit with the old Church House Deficit in 1920 of $4,032.65, due allowance should be made as follows:
A loss of rentals, account Church organizations having free use of New Church House	$1,800.00
Extraordinary repairs in 1922 that should have been made when the New Church House was taken over, and which would have been charged to Capital Account	1,080.76
Income from $25,000 from proceeds of sale of Old Church House in lieu of rental for Bishop Suffragan	1,500.00
Income from balance of $23,073.03 invested by Board of Trustees at 5 per cent (estimated)	1,153.65

A question, however, has arisen with regard to taxes. The Custodians had assumed that only a nominal tax would be imposed on the Church House. To their surprise and disappointment, the Board of Revision of Taxes had ruled that one-third of the assessed value should be subject to taxation; this would make a tax on $66,666.66 a year, or a total tax of about $1,800.

The Trustees believe that this ruling is unjust, and the Chancellor of the Diocese has been asked to obtain a revision of this ruling. If it should stand, it would mean a very substantial addition to the regular cost of operation for the future.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Executive Council

This report will refer briefly to the more important matters affecting the different Departments, and will close with a discussion of the more general problems presented to Council.

Department of Missions and Church Extension. The Council had available for new work in the Diocese as a result of the Special Appeal made during the year 1922, the sum of $11,400. The problem as to the best use to make of this modest sum was a serious one, and it was decided on the principle that the Diocese should help those churches that are helping themselves. On this principle, the Diocese has agreed to pay a sum of $4,000 toward the building of a rectory at Drexel Hill, with the understanding that an extension call, which should realize $3,500 additional, will be made for the same purpose during the year 1923. This will mean a total contribution from the Diocese of $7,500 for the purpose, being about one-half of the estimated cost of a suitable rectory.

Zion Church felt that it had a moral claim on the Diocese to assist it in carrying the heavy burden of a mortgage of $52,000; it was decided to help it by appropriating to it out of the fund in question $1,700 for one-half of its mortgage interest, and $2,000 toward the reduction of the principal.

The other outstanding fact in the history of the Department during the year is that it has seriously assumed the responsibility for the interests of General Missions in the Diocese. It has appointed a Committee of twenty-five with authority to care for the interests of General Missions. That Committee has appointed the following sub-committees, to wit, a Committee to arrange for meetings with rectors and vestries of each parish, Rev. L. C. Washburn, D.D., Chairman; a Committee on Meetings of Associated Vestries, Rev. Z. B. T.

Phillips, D.D., Chairman; a Committee on Missionary Meetings, Rev. John Mockridge, D.D., Chairman, and a Committee on the Distribution of Literature, Mrs. Walter W. Pharo, Chairman. It is hoped that these Committees will be able to forward the interests of General Missions in the Diocese in several different directions. The necessity for such increase of interest will be referred to in another part of this report.

Department of Religious Education. The Sunday School offering for Lent increased to $56,843.52, which is once again a new record in the givings of our Diocese which far exceeds the sums given by any other Diocese.

The appointment of an Executive Secretary for the Department is still unsettled, and like other similar matters, awaits the decision of the Convention with reference to the relation of the Cathedral Foundation to the Diocese. The Committee which the Department recommended to the last Convention was appointed by the Convention, and will doubtless report at the Convention of 1923 its view as to the proper relation. The Department hopes that whatever the decision, there will not be any considerable delay in the authorization of such Secretary for the Department.

Department of Diocesan Institutions. As stated in the last report, the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia took over twelve of the Institutions which had previously been supported by the Diocese. In the summer of 1922, the funds of the Welfare Federation became exhausted, and the Diocese was called on for the support of these Institutions, and was able, out of its current funds, to advance to these Institutions the sums which they should otherwise have received from the Welfare Federation during this period.

The exhibit of this report shows how our Institutions have fared during the past year. Not only have they received from various sources adequate sums for their support, but in addition three of them, the Church Farm School, the Seamen's Institute and the Divinity School, have received contributions for their various building funds aggregating over $140,000.

There has been a marked feeling that the consolidation of the Departments of Diocesan Institutions and Christian Social Service would result in a more effective handling of the business of these Departments; the Department of Institutions has taken the initiative in proposing such consolidation, and it is hoped that the matter may take such definite shape that the Convention will be asked to adopt a revision of its Canon on the Executive Council, consolidating these two Departments.

Department of Christian Social Service. The Community Center at Morrisville, which had been approved the previous year, has reached a further point of development during the year 1922. Definite plans have been made for its construction, and the Diocese has agreed through various sources to appropriate $10,000 toward the anticipated cost of $25,000. The house ought to be constructed and in operation by the end of this year.

The Department has instituted a series of conferences with a view of creating a direct touch between our various Institutions and the Churches of the Diocese. One such was held in St. Martha's House, and another at the Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia. These conferences, which were well attended by representatives of the agencies, and also by representatives of the churches in the vicinity, promise greater interest in the work of our Institutions in the city.

On the recommendation of the Department, the Council has authorized an appropriation of $500 a year for the Social Service Work of the Philadelphia Federation of Churches—which the Department recognizes as a desirable step in the recognition of this important work.

Department of Finance. The chief activities of the Department have been through its Ways and Means Committee. That Committee adopted a more complete organization by requesting the appointment of one representative from each parish. This enlarged Committee was of service in the appeal that was made during the year for the purpose both of increasing the contributions of the Diocese for General Missions, and also in raising a fund for needed extension work in the Diocese. At a result of this appeal $37,977.60 was raised, 70 per cent. of which, or $26,584.32, was forwarded for General Missions, the balance being retained for Forward Work in the Diocese as above outlined.

The activities of the Department have never in practice been clearly defined. It doubtless should continue to maintain its Ways and Means Committee for use in connection with special appeals, although, as will be pointed out hereafter, vigorous efforts are being made to increase regular contributions, and therefore diminish the need of special appeals. It would seem, however, as if the important matters of considering each year the Budget for the ensuing year, and also of apportioning that Budget between the different parishes, should be entrusted, not as heretofore to Special Committees, but to the Department of Finance, and steps looking toward this desirable end have been begun.

Department of Property. The matter which has chiefly engaged the attention of the Department of Property has been the effort to have the Diocese adopt at least a tentative plan by which church insurance in the Diocese may be better handled. A Committee of the Department, including a number of insurance experts, has given much thought to the matter, and has made a report which has been approved by the Council, suggesting the organization of a Diocesan Insurance Office. At this stage, the question was asked whether it is proper for Diocesan funds to be used to the limited extent required for the establishment of such an office, and the Council decided that this matter should be reported to the Convention. The attached resolution will therefore be submitted by the Department of Property.

General Financial Situation. The Nation-Wide Campaign report of the Treasurer of the Diocese has both a dark side and a silver lining. Referring first to the favorable side, the total gifts for all purposes in the Diocese amounted to $631,518.85, as against $604,009.04 in 1921, and $622,504.63 in 1920; in other words, the total was about $9,000 more than in 1920, which had been the previous banner year in the history of the Diocese.

The unfavorable side of the account is the fact that the contributions of the Diocese for General Missions fell off from $256,933.15 in 1921 to $194,812.67 in 1922, being a decrease of $62,120.48. The Treasurer's report shows why this decrease occurred, namely, that only $11,367.32 was a decrease in regular gifts, the larger items being a decrease of $22,745.68 in the sum raised for General Missions by the Special Appeal; the item of $20,710.95 (being the entire Diocesan balance), which was voluntarily contributed to General Missions the previous year; and a decrease of $7,861.51 in Centennial gifts and the Contingent Fund. This explanation, however, does not alter the fact that the total contributions for General Missions as previously indicated fell short $62,120.48 of the gifts of the previous year. Another unsatisfactory result of the year was that whereas in 1921 there was a Diocesan balance of $20,710.95, in 1922 there was the slight balance of $1,083.66.

If the question be very naturally asked, how, in view of the increase in the total contributions of the Diocese, the shares sent for General Missions and used in the Diocese could be smaller, the answer is found in the fact that (somewhat artificially) there have for the last several years been included on the Diocesan Budget sums which did not pass through the hands of the Diocesan Treasurer at all, but were given direct to objects on the Diocesan Budget. For instance, in the year 1921 there was remitted direct to our various Institutions the sum of $45,470.44, in addition to which there were contributions to building funds of certain of our Institutions amounting to $90,831.51, or a total of over $136,000 which did not pass through the hands of the Diocesan Treasurer, but was nevertheless credited on the quotas of the different parishes and included in the Treasurer's report. During the year 1922, including the sums received by the Welfare Federation for our Institutions, there was remitted direct to the Institutions $61,733.11, in addition to which there was received for building funds $141,382.46, or a total of over $203,000 which again was not handled by the Diocesan Treasurer, and did not at all increase the sums available for strictly missionary work either in or out of the Diocese. In other words, the contributions either directly to our Institutions or for their building funds amounted in 1922 to $67,000 more than in 1921.

Turning from such gifts to our Institutions to the general undesignated gifts, we find on the other hand that these fell off from $347,307.83 in 1921 to $334,673.20 in 1922, or a decrease of about $13,000. In other words, our regular divisible receipts, which alone contribute to the strictly missionary work both in and out of the Diocese, decreased about $13,000, in spite of the fact that our total contributions, including non-divisible items, had a large increase. As above indicated, the sum thus received for such purposes was just adequate to support our present Diocesan missionary work, but was inadequate to support Pennsylvania's share of the General Missionary work by the sum of about $62,120.48.

It is perfectly evident that neither the $334,673.20 of general divisible receipts for the year 1922, nor the $347,307.83 of such receipts for the year 1921, are adequate to do our share of the maintenance of the missionary work of the General Church, and to accomplish any of the needed forward work in the Diocese. The Diocese ought to receive at least $100,000 more of such divisible general gifts if it is to accomplish with credit its dual purposes. The Executive Council believes that the Diocese is able to do this—indeed the large sums given for the building funds of our Institutions seem to demonstrate that the money is available. What is needed evidently is some deeper realization on the part of our people of their Church's need and of their responsibility for its work. It was to bring home this realization to our churches, their vestries and their people, that the Department of Missions has appointed its Committee on General Missions. That Committee plans during the year 1923 to try to establish a more direct personal touch between the rectors and vestries of our different parishes and those who represent the Diocesan and General Missionary interests. The hope is that this Committee will be able to arrange for conferences with the representatives of our different churches and to enlist their more intelligent and more hearty support in the missionary program of the Church. Another Committee has been appointed to arrange for meetings, either Diocesan or local, of Associated Vestries, for the purposes of conferring about the general work of the Church and the relations of the vestries thereto; such organization of the vestries has been tried in St. Louis with gratifying results, and it is hoped that it will meet with the approval of the vestries in this Diocese. One suggestion along this line is that the Associated Vestries should hold a meeting shortly before the Diocesan Convention of each year, at which the more important matters to come before the Convention shall be laid before the vestries for their consideration. It is hoped that by such means our people may be willing to pledge and to give at least $100,000 more a year of general undesignated money than the Diocese has been receiving in the past; not until we have learned to do this will the Diocese be relieved from the annoyance of special appeals in order to meet deficits.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

To the Executive Council:

The Department of Missions has had a busy year, and if all the desired advanced movements have not been made, at least we are learning how to serve under the new Canon, and we hope to make a greater forward movement in the present and coming years. There is much difficulty in establishing new Mission stations, partly because central positions are not easily found, and partly because there is not money enough to buy. We feel deeply the need. In nearly every part of our City and in the whole Diocese there is an abundant opportunity. Perhaps the tendency is to adopt too pretentious plans. Probably a Sunday School started in a house and gradually, under a lay reader, drawing neglected children together, and then through the children reaching the parents, would be the wiser plan. Certainly to build Churches and Rectories before any real and self-supporting congregation is gathered can hardly be wise either religiously or economically.

Several motions, noted later, will prove that new methods have been discussed and adopted. As a whole the Missions of the Diocese are doing well. We believe, however, that more use could be made of our lay readers, and we trust a Lay Readers' Association under some earnest and competent man may soon be formed. Several of our best Missions are now cared for by lay readers and with happy results. One of our problems is still with us, namely, the "aided Parish" Churches, once prosperous and now bereft of a supporting congregation. They are too sacred to abandon, and yet too costly to keep up and support from general Diocesan funds. It is a question worthy of consideration whether such parishes might not be grouped, two or three under one Minister. Financially, and probably in some cases spiritually, the Churches thus grouped would be better off. We believe that the whole matter of our Mission Stations and of our aided parishes should be wisely studied and wiser plans for their care should be adopted.

With the recent coming of Archdeacon White there is much assurance of a better oversight being given to our Racial work. Already Dr. White has grasped the situation in many particulars, and we believe great good will result. There have been too many Committees associated with and caring for some of our racial undertakings, and consequently there has been a lack of definite leadership.

The Department believes that if the assignment of Missionaries could be brought more clearly under their care much better progress could be made. The Deans of Convocations and many other members of the Department know the Missions and their needs, and could judge wisely as to the kind of a Minister needed. Particularly, do we think it unwise to assign Ministers who are without a charge and who may not belong to this Diocese, to Mission Stations where a man well known and tried in our own Diocese might do better work. Realizing the delicacy of this suggestion, we make it in the interests of a finer and more successful prosecution of the Mission work of our Diocese.

Several resolutions were passed by the Department which are of sufficient importance to include in this report. They are as follows:

It was resolved that this Department approves of the erection of a parish house and rectory for St. Giles', Stonehurst, as proposed by the Mission; that a committee be appointed to consider the matter further, with authority to recommend to the Executive Council the appropriation of $10,000.00, as a grant, from the principal of the George C. Thomas' Fund toward the erection of these buildings.

A motion was proposed and adopted that the present Committee of the Department on Diocesan and General Missions, whose organization has not yet been completed, be called the Committee on General Missions, and that it be one of the standing Committees of this Department.

On motion it was resolved, that the Trustees of the Diocese be and they are hereby authorized and directed to loan from the funds in their hands, under agreement with the Board of Missions dated June 18, 1908, the sum of $2000.00 to the Church of St. John the Divine, taking as security for such loan such obligation of said Church as may be approved by Edward H. Bonsall, Treasurer of the Department of Missions.

(1) Resolved, That it is the sentiment of the Convocation of Germantown that the Parish Building at St. Gabriel's be started at once with the money now in hand and with money that can be raised by mortgage, and also funds that can be obtained in any other way. That the basement be put up at once, if nothing else can be done.

Resolved, That the Dean and the Committee on Finance and Church Extension be the Building Committee for St. Gabriel's Parish House; also that the Convocation of Germantown authorize the employment of an architect for this building project.

(2) Resolved, That the Dean recommend to the Department of Missions the beginning of a Parish House at St. Barnabas immediately, with funds in hand for that purpose.

The Rev. Dr. Caley offered a resolution that the $2000.00 loaned for the establishment of the Mission at Wynnefield and which has been returned by the Church of the Holy Apostles, be appropriated as of 1923 for the purchase of a building for the Colored Mission at West Chester. The resolution was adopted.

On motion, it was decided to have an exchange Sunday on the Sunday after Ascension Day, when Rectors of City Parishes would exchange with the Clergy in the country Missions, in order to give them a better idea of the Missionary work of the Diocese.

‡ Being urged to become members of the Welfare Federation and so not listed as to amounts. For 1923 the Episcopal Hospital is budgeted for $45,000; Church Farm School $24,000 and St. John's House $2500. If they do not go on the Welfare Federation, and the same sums were appropriated, it would increase the Budget for Maintenance by $71,500.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF INSTITUTIONS

To the Executive Council:

The Department of Institutions begs to report that it has prepared a table which shows what our Institutions received in 1921, and also what they received during the year 1922; also (in the footnote) what was given to certain of them in each of these years for building funds. (See Treasurer's Report, page 27.)

WELFARE FEDERATION

As stated in our report for last year, twelve of our Institutions were taken over by the Welfare Federation, thus relieving the Diocesan funds from contributions to them, except that in the case of the City Mission $9,975.45 was still needed and appropriated for its Religious Work, and in the case of the Seamen's Institute $3,499.92 was appropriated for the same purpose. The Welfare Federation notified our Institutions and all others on its list that it would be unable to provide for them during the months of July and August; the Diocese promptly came to the aid of these Institutions and remitted to them the monthly sums which they should have received from the Welfare Federation, so that our Institutions did not suffer. The sum of $12,637.42 was contributed by the Diocese for the support of these Institutions during the two months in question. The Welfare Federation in its drive of October, 1922, obtained sufficient to take care of its Institutions for the full twelve months, so that it seems unlikely that the Diocesan funds will be called on for this purpose again.

NO SPECIAL APPEAL FOR INSTITUTIONS IN 1922

In view of the fact that twelve of our Institutions, including most of the larger ones, were taken over by the Welfare Federation, no special appeal was required in behalf of our Institutions during the year 1922; the current funds of the Diocese were sufficient to provide both for the regular support of those of our Institutions which were not taken over by the Welfare Federation, and also for the supplementary support given to the Institutions which are supported by the Welfare Federation.

COMPARISON OF CONTRIBUTIONS FOR INSTITUTIONS 1921-1922

It is interesting to note that apart from special building funds, our Institutions received directly from our own people (including such sums as were designated to the Welfare Federation by our people) and from the Diocese, a total of $145,076.43 as compared with a total of $133,603.36 the year before. In addition, our people contributed for the building funds of the Divinity School, the Church Farm School and the Seamen's Institute, a total of $141,382.46 during the year, as against $90,831.51 the preceding year, or an increase of over $50,000. It would look as if our Institutions were continuing to receive their full share of the contributions of our people; indeed the contributions for these new buildings form much the largest part of the Forward Work that has been done in the Diocese during the past year.

It will be noted that a considerable number of the Institutions received substantially less, according to the table, in 1922 than in 1921. This, however, is not the fact. The tables only show the sums received by our Institutions either from individual donors or from the Diocese; the table for 1922, therefore, does not show the considerable sums received by those of our Institutions which are supported by the Welfare Federation, except insofar as individual contributors to the Welfare Federation designated money for particular Institutions. It is believed that if to the above table of contributions for 1922 the sums received by these Institutions directly from the Welfare Federation be added, the total will show in most cases figures considerably in excess of the sums which the Institutions have been in the habit of receiving during previous years.

CHANGES IN INSTITUTIONS

The Church Farm School and the Home of the Good Shepherd for Boys have agreed to a consolidation which will take place during the year 1923, and which, it is believed, will be to the advantage of both. The Home of the Good Shepherd is supported by the Welfare Federation, and it is hoped that when the consolidation takes place, the combined Institutions will obtain support from the Welfare Federation.

The Home for the Homeless is contemplating the sale of its property and the erection of a new building on the property of the Mercy Hospital; here also it is hoped that considerable saving may result in consolidation. The Department will use its influence in the direction of making such consolidations from time to time as opportunity may offer.

A word should be said as to the status of the Episcopal Hospital. The Executive Council has placed it on the Budget for 1923 for $45,000, being the estimated amount which it should receive in order to enable it to do its fine work. In doing so, however, the Council has strongly urged that if possible the Episcopal Hospital should be supported by the Welfare Federation hereafter; the Department desires to register its strong feeling that in these days when our people are called upon for such liberal contributions to the Welfare Federation, the whole program can be more adequately carried out if, on the one hand, all Institutions that are doing such welfare work, like the Episcopal Hospital, are supported by the Welfare Federation, and if, on the other hand, our people, being freed from special appeals for any such Institutions, are free to make a single gift to the Welfare Federation covering all such work.

In conclusion it may be said that suggestions have been made from time to time during the year that the work of the Department of Institutions and of the Department of Social Service is so similar that the two Departments might well be combined; so far no such action has been taken, but the suggestion will receive careful consideration from the Department of Institutions.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

To the Executive Council:

The Department of Publicity respectfully submits the following annual report for 1922 of the operations of the Department. The increasing interest taken by our parish and diocesan organizations generally in the use and development of publicity is very gratifying. During the past twelve months the use of the Department along various lines of publicity service warrants the opinion that 1922 has been a year of real growth. It is hoped the parishes, departments and organizations will make still greater use of the Department's services in whatever way the Department may be able to serve.

By direction of the Executive Committee the Department took over the assignment of rooms in the Church House for meetings. It is encouraging to note an increasing use that is being made of the Church House as a meeting place for committees, groups and organizations. Upwards of 660 meetings were held in the Church House in 1922. The attendance at a number of these meetings ranged from 100 to 200 persons.

In this connection the Department desires to record its appreciation of the courtesy of the Rector and Vestry of Holy Trinity Church in permitting on a number of occasions the use of Holy Trinity Parish House for various Diocesan meetings.

Relations between the Department and the newspapers have been most cordial. Without exception they have been responsive to the presentation of Church publicity and have given most generous consideration and space to Church news. Upwards of 4,000 items have appeared in the daily newspapers relating to the Diocese and its parishes. Most of these have been prepared and furnished by the Department.

In regular weekly installments the Department has applied news articles to the Diocesan correspondents of The Living Church, The Churchman and The Southern Churchman; virtually all of these have been published in whole or in part in those national Church weeklies.

Through its Director, the Department continues to act as the Diocesan correspondent and agent of the Department of Publicity of the National Council. Publication of a number of articles on the general Church have been obtained in the newspapers here as a result of the arrangement.

Mr. Charles H. Clarke, Business Manager of the Church News of the Diocese, reports that during the year there have been evidences of a growing interest in the Church News. Many have testified to the generally interesting and helpful character of its articles. The management takes this opportunity of expressing its appreciation of the services rendered by "Mr. Cecil Roberts," who, under that pen name, has generously and without any remuneration contributed to its columns, and to those others of our clergy and laity who have made contributions.

There has been a slight increase in paid subscriptions. It is the opinion of the management that some special efforts should be made to get the Church News into the hands of each adult communicant in the Diocese.

For your consideration is submitted the following resolution adopted by the National Council at its December meeting in New York:

"Resolved, That the National Council commends to the Diocesan authorities the plan followed by the Dioceses of Bethlehem and Southern Ohio of incorporating in the pledge cards used in the Every Member Canvass, a subscription for the Church at Work and the Diocesan paper."

Bethlehem Diocese has approximately 15,000 communicants. As a result of parishes responding to the Bethlehem plan the Bethlehem Churchman, a twelve to sixteen page publication, goes to 8,000 communicants. Under the old plan of relying upon soliciting of individual subscriptions it had a circulation of 1200, including free copies. The circulation of the Church News is about 2500.

If our parishes would respond to such a plan it would involve the cost of one cent a week per communicant to supply the Church News, a thirty-two page paper, to parishes participating in the plan. If our Diocesan paper is a helpful agency to the Church in the Diocese among the loyal constituency which has helped support it for more than ten years, it would seem there is justification for the adoption of some united co-operative method of getting it into the hands of a great many more of our people. Is it the wiser plan to wait until they are interested, or does it make for progress to put into their hands through an established agency such printed information as may awaken or stimulate their activities in and for the Church in parish and Diocese?

Consideration of this subject of more widely utilizing the Diocesan paper as means of information is recommended to the Executive Council in the hope of arriving at some united co-operative method of increasing the usefulness of the Church News for greater service.

The Diocesan Exchange and Clearing House Bureau, conducted by the Department as a medium through which church furniture and furnishings discarded by a parish or mission might be donated to some parish or mission in need of such articles, continues to function successfully. Many such exchanges were made during 1922, and hundreds of dollars were saved through such exchanges. No expense is involved in the operation of the Bureau. Its services are free. Parishes which have discarded articles stored away that might be put to use by some other parish or mission station are urged to make free use of the Bureau.

With the approval of the Chairman, your Director in 1922 accepted appointment in an advisory capacity on the Publicity Committee of the Welfare Federation. In this service were associated the directing heads of the publicity departments of several large corporations and business organizations of Philadelphia. Following the campaign the Welfare Federation has requested the same committee to serve throughout 1923. Again, with the approval of your Chairman, your Director has accepted re-appointment.

The Department desires to express its appreciation of the support and interest given it during the year by the several Departments of the Executive Council, the Clergy and members of the Church generally.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. J. COLLIER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICE

April 10, 1923.

To the Executive Council:

The Church is committed to a policy of active and aggressive social service. The Lambeth Conference has expressed itself in no uncertain terms as did General Convention at Portland. Moreover, the administrative organization of the Church both at large and along diocesan lines provides for organized, definite effort in behalf of Christian Social Service. The question naturally arises in which direction can this organized effort be most effectively directed. It involves the consideration not only of the attitude of the Church and of her communicants towards institutional work and the embodiment of the spirit of the second commandment in personal life, but likewise the attitude of organized Christianity on great questions of international, national and local import.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania was one of the earliest to provide for a social service commission, and later for a social service department, which has steadfastly through its reports and its meetings sought to inform itself concerning various social problems as they arose and to arouse interest in them. As a former Secretary of the Department (Dr. Foley) aptly expressed it the mere continuous testimony of the Church's interest was a distinctive service. The Department, however, has done something more than testify. It has sought to arouse interest and to illuminate that interest when aroused. We are by no means convinced that the most effective line of procedure has been devised, but we feel that distinct progress has been made alike in the direction of aiding in the development of Institutions like the proposed Community House at Morrisville and the expression of opinion concerning legislation, local, state and national, and in the consideration of sundry problems of pressing moment.

Moreover, it has sought and is seeking to bring the members of the Church into closer connection with those Institutions which are functioning in the name of the Church. To this end two important conferences during the past year have been held, one at St. Martha's House in the Convocation of South Philadelphia, and the other at the Church of The Saviour in the Convocation of West Philadelphia. Both the meetings were not only largely attended but the discussion was helpful and we believe in the direction of a larger participation and efficiency.

Touching on the matter of the relation of the Department of Social Service to Institutions after careful consideration it was voted by a majority vote to recommend that they be merged. A Diocese so rich in institutions as that of Pennsylvania should not treat them as of inferior importance, but seek to develop a real policy for their coordination and management alike for their own good and as an example. We believe that there can and should be a Church institutional policy that would fully reflect the social service aspirations of the Church, but without making their consideration an incidental affair.

The plans for a Church Community House in Morrisville have progressed satisfactorily. They have been completed, approved by the Church's Commission of Church Building and accepted by the Social Service Department and the Council; the actual work is to start as soon as the word is given by the Council. Plans for financing it are on the way to completion, the Council having set aside $10,000 for the preliminary costs. Arrangements are now being made for the balance of $15,000, the cost having been limited to $25,000. When completed this building will represent a new venture in behalf of the Diocese, being the first undertaking of this kind of a diocesan character in a community of the size and character of Morrisville. There is every reason to believe that it will substantially strengthen the Church and her influence not only in Morrisville but in the surrounding territory.

A Central Committee composed of representatives from the Social Service Department of the five Dioceses of Pennsylvania was organized at a conference held at Harrisburg, January 18. This Committee will work for the promotion of the passage of desirable legislation and the opposition of such bills as call for defeat. Interesting reports were received at this Conference from each Department which showed that the Church was alive to its opportunities and has furthered many movements throughout the State for the advancement of the social welfare of our people. The effectiveness of the Social Service Department will unquestionably be enhanced by this Central Committee.

While deprecating the modern tendency to increase the number of laws on the statute book to an undue degree, the need for a faithful and whole-hearted compliance with the laws of the land is imperative. If the individual is to be granted the right of determining which laws he shall obey and observe and which he may ignore, defy or disobey, a condition of affairs bordering on anarchy will soon result. The Department cannot too strongly commend to every individual member of the Church the necessity for a full, whole-hearted observance of the laws irrespective of what their feelings may be as to the wisdom of those laws.

International questions are ever assuming more pressing importance and the United States should no longer delay in assuming her share of international obligations and burdens and especially those following the recent War. To that end steps should be taken to have an American representative on the Court of International Justice at The Hague and to enter a League of Nations for the better organization of the world.

It is recommended that these statements on obedience to law and on our international relations be formally approved by the Council afterward to the Convention for adoption. It is further suggested that if so adopted they may be separately printed and distributed to the parishes.

Respectfully submitted,

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF, Chairman.

The Church Pension Fund reports another year of gratifying progress. Its total resources on January 1, 1923, were $15,258,564.22. The Income on the surplus of this fund is being used to pay the $1000 immediate grant to the widows of Clergymen dying in service. The total Pension Roll of the Fund on the same date was $470,219.02. Adding the grants to widows, the amount disbursed during the year was over $500,000. This means that it is one of the largest pension systems of the world. Approximately $900,000 a year is received in pension premium payments.

The grants made during the year to beneficiaries in this Diocese, in addition to those previously reported, have been:

The Rev. George W. Lincoln	$600.00
The Rev. Daniel I. Odell	600.00
Mrs. William E. Hendricks	1000.00
Mrs. William E. Hendricks and child	400.00
The Rev. Percy Owen-Jones	300.00
The Rev. George S. Gassner	300.00

in addition to which there have been grants made from other funds to three clergymen of $500; to four widows, $750, being a total of $4450.

This brings the total number of grants in the Diocese of Pennsylvania up to fifty with the year's distribution amounting to $18,283.56.

The Department records its appreciation of the work of its Treasurer; and particularly of the fact that for the past four years he has met all the expenses of the administration without cost to the Diocese. The small sum required having been provided from the interest on bank balances.

The attention of the clergy is drawn to the necessity for notifying the Department immediately whenever any change in salary is made. Vestries and other groups concerned in so changing a clergyman's salary should at once adjust the premium payments accordingly.

A year ago we drew particular attention to the Resolution of the Trustees which warned us all against the serious consequences which would arise from the non-payment of premiums after January 1, 1923. That Resolution provided in effect that if there is a failure to pay full premiums for any clergyman in the Diocese in active service there shall be a proportionate reduction in the proffered $1000 grant to any and every widow that year. This proviso having gone into effect on the first of January, renders the payment in full for all premiums additionally obligatory.

In 1921 there were eight of the brethren delinquent and fifteen for whom premiums had been paid on less than the $1200 basis; and twenty-two who had not entered the system.

For the year 1922 the arrearages amount to $1045.84 and are on account of the following churches:

Trinity, Buckingham	Advent, Hatboro
Holy Trinity, Lansdale	S. Luke, Newtown
S. John, Norristown	Trinity, Swarthmore
Valley Forge Memorial	Advocate, Philadelphia
House of Prayer, Branchtown	S. John, Germantown
S. Luke, Kensington	S. Thomas, Philadelphia

The Executive Council of the Diocese has felt that this situation was so serious as to require special attention, and accordingly appointed a Committee to take it under consideration.

For a clearer understanding of the ruling now in force we insert here the action taken by the Trustees of the Pension Fund:

"Resolved, That, as the system of the Church Pension Fund is a group pension system, resting upon the actuarial basis of the adhesion of the entire group of organizations paying salaries to clergymen of the Episcopal Church, the foregoing appropriation of One Thousand Dollars to the widow of a Clergyman dying in active service, or any other appropriations made in addition to the provisions of the rules now existing, shall not, if they arise after January 1, 1923, be made in any Diocese where the actuarial group basis as shown by the first annual valuation, is broken by the failure of the Diocese, or any parish in union with the Diocesan Convention, to pay pension assessments as provided by the Canons for the preceding fiscal year, until, out of the sums of money from which said appropriations would be made, there has been transferred by the Treasurer of the Church Pension Fund the actuarial equivalent of the breach in the group pension system made by the failure to pay the pension assessments specified in the said Diocese."

The Council has authorized the Committee on Clerical Salaries to see that the clergy in charge of aided parishes have their premiums paid in full. The Treasurer of the Diocese has been similarly authorized to see that the premiums for the Diocesan Missionaries are not in arrears; the Pension Department and the Commission on Salaries are charged with the responsibility for seeing that there shall be no arrearages in the premium payments for other clergy in active service in the Diocese.

In this connection a suggestion has been made through the Department that before a Bishop should certify a Priest for translation into this Diocese or from it, a certificate should be secured by the Priest, giving his exact status as concerns the Pension Fund, which would convey the proper information to the Diocese into which the translation is being made.

Your Department again commends the notable progress of this outstanding enterprise in the religious world, and emphasizes the immediate necessity for the unanimous co-operation of the active clergy in this Diocese in order that all who should be entitled to its benefits may receive them in full.

Respectfully submitted,

L. C. WASHBURN,
Chairman.

P. S.—In any case where a parish has never entered the pension system its failure to pay pension assessments would not, of course, affect the families of other clergy in the Diocese under the Trustees' resolutions of December 20, 1921. Further, if a clergyman who for some reason is not within the purview of the pension system becomes connected with a parish which has heretofore paid pension assessments this parish is not, of course, expected to pay the assessments for the clergyman who is ineligible.

Any reductions in the one thousand dollar grants under the provisions of the last paragraph of the Trustees' resolutions of December 20, 1921, are made in an amount equal to the pension assessment arrearages during the preceding year only due from the parishes whose withdrawal from the pension system has caused the deduction in the grants.

The last paragraph of the resolutions becomes applicable only in case the delinquency is that of a parish in union with the Diocesan Convention and does not refer to missions. Even in the case of a parish in union with the Convention the last paragraph of these resolutions is intended to apply if the delinquency of such a parish amounts in effect to withdrawal from the pension system and does not refer to the failure to pay pension assessments for a comparatively short period. Presumably the failure to pay pension assessments during an entire year might be considered as evidence of the withdrawal of a parish from the pension system.

REPORT OF THE QUOTA COMMITTEE

The Quota Committee has addressed itself to the matter of preparing parochial apportionments, based upon the figures prepared by the Budget Committee for General and Diocesan work in 1924. These figures call for the raising of approximately $500,000 for "Maintenance," and an additional $300,000 for "Forward Work."

MAINTENANCE

The Committee asked The Rev. Mr. Matos to make a mathematical calculation of parochial apportionments, designed to secure the $500,000 necessary for Maintenance, using the dual factors of income and expense as approved by the Convention in 1919. The resultant figures have been of the greatest value to the Committee; and they take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Matos for the very laborious piece of work which he so cheerfully undertook and so thoroughly accomplished.

No mathematical method can possibly take account of certain human and exceptional factors, the great influence of which have made themselves evident in the actual record of parochial givings during the past two or three years. The Committee therefore recommends a modification of the hard and fast mathematical schedule, as follows:

1. That the 194 Parishes and Missions be divided into eight groups, using the mathematical schedule to determine in which group the Parish or Mission concerned shall be placed.
2. That the gross total of the mathematical apportionments as calculated for the several Parishes or Missions of each group be approved as the approximate gross apportionment to be divided among the Parishes or Missions of that group.
3. That conference with the Parishes and Missions of each group be held, where necessary, to study the just and proper subdivision of the total group apportionment among the component Members thereof; subject only to these two restrictions: FIRST: that the individual apportionment thus assigned to a Parish or Mission shall not (save for exceptional reasons) be less than the average of its recorded gifts (applicable on Maintenance) during the two years last past; and, SECOND: that the sum total of the individual apportionments within the group shall not be less than the total indicated for the group by the mathematical calculation.

It is our belief that this method of conference and limited self-apportionment, while involving no little labor, will in the end prove more equitable and more likely to produce the desired results, than any method of calculation rigidly applied.

FORWARD WORK

The free-will participation of the several Parishes and Missions of the Diocese in the Forward Program, both General and Diocesan, is of vital importance, but it is deemed expedient for the present to place the emphasis upon the Quota for Maintenance. Therefore, it is recommended that for 1924 there shall be a quota figure for Forward Work assigned to each of the aforesaid groups, amounting to three-fifths of the quota figure for Maintenance assigned to the same group; and further that the Parishes and Missions within the group be urged to give as much as possible toward the Forward Work when they are assured of raising their Quota for Maintenance.

With the approval of the Executive Council we submit the following resolution:

"That this Convention gives its approval to the suggestions as to the method of apportionment both for "Maintenance" and for "Forward Work" as embodied in the report of the Quota Committee to the Executive Council; and instructs the Executive Council to take the steps necessary to put these suggestions into effect for the year 1924."

J. BARTON TOWNSEND,

REPORT OF AUDITORS

Board of Trustees, Diocese of Pennsylvania:

SIRS:

Your Audit Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Treasurer, Mr. J. Barton Townsend, desires first to recall that on November 6, 1922, by reason of changes in the Provident Life and Trust Company, a new agreement was made between the Trustees of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Provident Trust Company of Philadelphia. Under this agreement the Provident Trust Company is the appointed agent and attorney for the Trustees of the Diocese. Under this agreement the Provident Trust Company is to safely keep securities, investments and papers with the same. A copy of this agreement with all its various terms, is on file with the Secretary of the Trustees. The Provident Trust Company is subject to examination by both Federal and State agents from time to time. The responsibility placed upon your Audit Committee is therefore greatly reduced.

Under these circumstances you have definite and dependable assurances as to the safety of the Funds committed to your trust. Your Committee takes satisfaction in again recording their appreciation of the thoroughness and reliability of the Treasurer. His report shows the disposition of the income during the year, each check drawn on this account having been signed by himself and countersigned by our Secretary. The total income so disbursed in 1922 amounted to $19,978.36; leaving in the Treasurer's hands income balances amounting to $19,592.27. The total income for the year being $39,500.63, of which $14,180.49 was balance carried forward from 1921. The Report further shows that the balance at the end of the year to the credit of the Principal Account included securities amounting to $750,968.75 and cash in hand for investment $15,325.93, a total of $766,294.68. Your Committee has secured from the Provident Trust Company certificates showing that their accounts tally with this statement of the Treasurer. These certificates of the Trust Company are herewith attached to the Treasurer's Report.

Respectfully submitted,
LOUIS C. WASHBURN,
FRANK H. MOSS,
REED A. MORGAN.

Report of the Board of Examining Chaplains

The Board of Examining Chaplains met for reorganization after the election at the last Convention, with The Rev. G. G. Bartlett, D.D., as Chairman and The Rev. A. J. Arnold as Secretary.

During the past year the Board has held three stated examinations and occasionally dealt with special cases. We present the following statistical summary of our acts:

Number of men appearing before the Board	19
Number examined under normal provisions:
Postulants desiring to be admitted Candidates	4
Candidates desiring to be ordered Deacons	9
Deacons desiring Priest's Orders	2
Number examined under special provisions:
Postulants under the Canon for "Older Men"	2
Candidates under the Canon for "Ministers from Other Bodies"	2

Postulants passed and so reported to the Bishop:
Neville H. Caley

Candidates passed and so reported to the Bishop:
Herbert A. Donovan
Robert J. Bustard
George E. Scull
Arthur B. Vossler
John H. A. Bomberger, 2nd
Warren M. Smaltz
John Doyle
Robert S. Whitehead

Deacons passed and reported to the Bishop:
John M. Weber
Lloyd M. Smith
Adolphus E. Henry

Special examinations given	3
Credits for work done accepted in lieu of examination	4

Diplomas of graduation accepted in lieu of examination....	2
Examined by us for the Board of the Diocese of New York	1
Examined for us by the Board of the Diocese of Virginia.	1
Failures recorded, men	5
Failures recorded, topics	9
Approval of request for dispensation from Greek	1

It is eminently gratifying to the Board to be able to report that the men who have appeared before us during the past year have passed the examination requirements with exceptional credit. Especially does this apply to those who presented themselves last month, who, with a very few exceptions, were adjudged deserving of the highest rating. The failures we felt compelled to record were canceled by later and successful examinations; so that the year closes with virtually not a single failure to carry over. Without departing in the least from the matter-of-fact presentation of conditions which this important section of the Church's care demands, we are glad to say, as the Convention will be glad to hear, that the academic standard of those seeking the ministry is noticeably in the ascendant.

The work entrusted to our hands, while from the very nature of it carried on unobservedly and, as the Chairman of the Board has aptly put it, devoid of picturesque interest to the Convention, is nevertheless of such paramount importance to the Church that we believe our report should be printed in full in the Convention JOURNAL.

The expenses of the Board are extremely modest. Of the appropriation of $150 voted last year for our needs less than one-third has been used. In all probability our requirements will rarely exceed that proportion of expenditure. We ask, however, that an amount equal to last year's appropriation be placed at our disposal for the work of the year to come.

We offer the following resolutions:

Resolved: That the report of the Board of Examining Chaplains be printed in the Convention Journal of 1923.

Resolved: That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay bills incurred by the Board of Examining Chaplains in their work, provided that the total amount of such bills do not exceed One Hundred and Fifty Dolars.

For the Board,
GEORGE G. BARTLETT, Chairman.
A. J. ARNOLD, Secretary.

APPENDIX L

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

Since the last Convention the following Parishes have sent their Newspapers to the Registrar:

St. Matthias', St. Mary's, Hamilton Village, St. Thomas', Whitemarsh, Epiphany, Royersford, St. Luke and the Epiphany, St. George's, Richmond, Annunciation, St. Philip's, St. Paul's, Chester, Grace, Pro-Cathedral, Christ, Germantown, St. Michael's, Germantown, and the Advocate.

Only a few of these Parish Papers have been sent regularly. It is earnestly hoped that all the Parishes of the Diocese that publish papers will place the Registrar on their mailing list so that he may have complete files of their publications. Literature of this kind is worthy of preservation because it contains a record of the activities of the parishes and is the source from which parochial history in the future will be compiled. Incomplete files of Parish Papers are almost worthless for historical purposes. It is therefore hoped that the clergy will co-operate in this matter and send their newspapers regularly for filing in this office.

On old Prayer Book of the Church of Ireland, of the year 1815, has been presented by Mrs. F. N. Mulholland of this city.

The History of Epiphany Church, Royersford, has been presented by the Priest-in-charge, The Rev. William Roberts.

Two volumes of the ancient Parish Registers of St. John's Church, Pequea, have been deposited in the fireproof vault for safe-keeping by the Rector of that Parish.

The Registrar has several large Bibles suitable for use in Church services which he will be glad to dispose of to Missions of this Diocese that need them.

The increasing number of applications for certified copies of Church records which have been received and attended to during the past year emphasizes the importance of carefully preserving the historical treasures of the past and of adding to them in the present for the benefit of future generations.

A. H. HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese.

May 1, 1923.

APPENDIX M

Report of the Committee on Parochial History

During the past year one clergyman of the Diocese has sent this Committee a manuscript history of his parish, and a few sent regularly copies of their parish papers. The Committee is preparing two scrap books, in one of which are entered all newspaper clippings it can procure relating to current parochial or Diocesan events, and in the other obituary notices of prominent clergymen and laymen of the Diocese. In this way valuable information is preserved of events and persons which probably would never be printed in any other form.

If such records had been made in the earlier years of the Diocese, we should now have information in regard to organizations and individuals as to which we have no detailed knowledge whatever.

The members of the Committee have determined to pursue this method of collecting information in regard to parochial histories and to make personal appeals to the Clergy of the Diocese to send them all items of news in regard to their parishes they may possess.

Many books and pamphlets sent directly to the Registrar of the Diocese are practically included in the work of this Committee.

For the Committee,
G. WOOLSEY HODGE, Chairman.

The Commission on Clerical Salaries herewith submits its Annual Report to the Convention.

Some Statistics of 1922.

During 1922 there were twenty-two parishes receiving aid from the Sustentation Fund toward the salaries of their rectors. In addition to these, four others were entitled to grants from the Fund, but their Rectors, for reasons of their own had refused to accept the grants. Since then the salary of one of them has been raised to the minimum by the Parish; one has accepted the grant to which he is entitled; and the others continue to decline any salary from the Fund. Two were refused grants on the ground that they were devoting a considerable portion of their time to remunerative work not connected with the Church.

Our questionnaire, sent out early last autumn, to obtain the necessary information on which to base the grants for 1923, produced some interesting information, and, except in one matter, encouraging facts.

In all cases the amounts pledged by the parishes to the salaries of their rectors were paid in full. In eighteen instances they were paid promptly on the first of the month. In the other four there was delay varying from a day or so to a considerable length of time. The plan of sending the checks to the parish treasurers to be added to the parochial share of the salary commended itself almost unanimously. In only one case was there any delay on the part of the parish Treasurer in paying the money from the Fund to the Rector.

Five parishes increased the salaries of the rectors, relieving the Fund by that amount, which was $1550.00. Two parishes have provided rectories.

The disappointing fact revealed by our inquiry is, that of the twenty-two parishes receiving aid, only eleven were paying the Pension Fund premiums of their rectors. Nine parishes were paying nothing at all for Pension protection. In one of these cases the failure to pay is due to the Rector's refusal to have any connection with the Pension Fund. In another the Rector pays his own premiums, and in another the failure to pay is partly due to a dispute as to the amount due the Pension Fund. The Commission feels that this is rather a serious matter, i. e., that there should be eleven of these parishes not paying premiums to the Pension Fund. It is serious not only for the individuals concerned and their families, but also for the rest of their brethren. The Pension Fund has ruled that in a Diocese where the premiums are not paid in full there will be a proportionate decrease in the outright grant of a $1000.00 to that wife of a clergyman immediately upon her husband's death. The Commission strongly urges that the whole matter of the Pension Fund, our Diocesan relation to it, and our Diocesan responsibility for seeing that the premiums of the individual clergy are met, receive careful consideration, and that as speedily as possible some solution be reached, whereby the parochial responsibility shall be stressed, and at the same time the Pension Fund protection be assured to our clergy.

The Roll for 1923.

The Commission is paying part of the salary of twenty rectors of parishes at the present time, and is also seeing to it that the Pension Fund premiums are cared for.

The 1923 Assessment.

We are required by Canon to send out the assessments before January first each year. In order to do this they have to be prepared as early as November. This was done in the regular course last autumn, but after the year closed and the new grants for 1923 were definitely made, we discovered two things. First, we had an unexpended balance. Second, we found we were going to require somewhat less for 1923 than was indicated in November. The Commission gave the parishes the benefit of this unexpected and temporary prosperity by reducing the 1923 assessment one-third. While we were glad to relieve somewhat the burden for this year, we are bound to remind the Convention that it is exceptional. A similar situation is not likely to be met next year, and so the assessment will probably return to normal.

THE DISCRETIONARY POWER.

The Commission reports to the Convention that, acting under the Discretionary clause in the Canon, we have declined to make any grant in two cases; in two others we are paying less than the minimum; and in a fifth case the grant was made temporarily pending investigation, and has since been discontinued.

A SUGGESTED POLICY.

This Commission has always considered that something more than disbursing funds was expected of it. The matter of pay and labor, salary and work, are, ought to be, must be, so closely related that you cannot deal with one without considering the other. Out of experiments we get experience; and experience leads to convictions which become trustworthy guides to action.

There are a considerable number of parishes in the Diocese small in number of communicants, perhaps small in opportunities. In some cases they became parishes before they should have been allowed to do so. They never have been really self-supporting. In some cases they have in the past been prosperous parishes but population has receded and left them more or less high and dry. Some of these parishes are not only not self-supporting, but obviously are not at all likely ever to become so. They are clearly works which require continued and considerable support. In the case of some of them it would be much better if they were mission stations directly under the control of Diocesan authority.

What we mean can best be made clear by concrete examples. We submit three types of such parishes.

Here is a parish which manifestly cannot possibly require or use the full time of an active and able bodied man. It has a handful of communicants, fifty perhaps. It pays towards the Rector's salary $450.00 and expects the Sustentation Fund to pay $1550.00 in order to bring the salary to the Canonical Minimum. Such a place is clearly a missionary work, but canonically it is an independent parish. The Rector can refuse to give any of his time to any work assigned him by the Diocese. He is an independent rector. The Parish can refuse to be combined with any other work. There is no authority anywhere which has the power to change that situation. That parish can continue indefinitely demanding $1550.00 from the Diocese. Such a condition is manifestly unfair and improper. It is not wholesome for the clergyman; it is not decent in the Parish; and it is not fair to the Diocese.

Here is another parish which is clearly, distinctly, and admittedly a racial work, which is not and never will be self-supporting. It asks from $1200.00 to $1500.00 from the Diocese but yields no right of control to the Diocese. That again is clearly an enterprise which should be under the immediate direction of the Missionary authorities of the Diocese.

Yet one more example, the most difficult and delicate of all, but to be faced frankly. It can be faced thankfully because it is so rare. Here is a parish which through internal dissensions and through long continued failure to achieve any sort of real harmony in itself, or with its leader, is steadily dwindling and not only missing its opportunity in the community, but bringing the Church into disrepute in the community. It being a parish there is no authority which can put an end to that situation. It can throw its arms around the neck of the Sustentation Fund and hang there indefinitely in that unloving embrace. A place which has the field and possibility of a thriving parish pays, say $800.00 to the Rector's salary, and asks and expects the Sustentation Fund to pay the $1200.00 to maintain a situation which every one recognizes to be thoroughly wrong.

Hard and fast canonical enactment to meet these extraordinary situations is probably not wise, and the Convention would probably hesitate to pass it.

There is a possibly remedy which the Commission suggests. With the approval of the Convention we propose to be guided by this policy. In a case where a parish will not pay at least $1200.00 towards the Rector's salary, the Commission may, with the approval of the Bishop, request the authorities of that parish to make voluntary relinquishment of their parochial rights and assume the status of a Mission under the direction of the constituted Missionary authorities. Failure on the part of a parish to comply with such a request may be reported to the Convention and the Commission relieved from any further responsibility in that case, if the Convention approve of the Commission's action.

This method would bring these abnormal situations under control, and make it possible to secure such readjustments, and such combination of works as would be for the good of the work, and make for wise economy in administration. In an appended resolution the Commission asks the Convention's approval of this policy.

We offer the following Resolutions:

1. Resolved: That the Commission on Clerical Salaries be authorized to assess the parishes and missions of the Diocese in a sum not to exceed $20,000.00 for the Sustentation Fund for the year 1924.

2. Resolved: That the Convention approves the policy of requesting aided parishes under certain circumstances to assume the status of missions, as outlined in the report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries.

APPENDIX O

Report of Committee on Cathedral Plan

The Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania in 1922 adopted the following Resolutions:

First, that the Convention approve the creation of a Cathedral Foundation.

Second, that a Committee of five Clergymen and five Laymen be elected by the Convention to confer with a committee of the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ to formulate a plan for the establishment of appropriate relations between the Convention and the Cathedral.

Third, that the Committee on Conference on the Cathedral, Clerical and Lay members voting together, have power to fill any vacancies occurring in their number, by vote of two-thirds of the total membership.

The Convention elected the following to serve on this Committee: The Rev. G. G. Bartlett, the Rev. L. N. Caley, the Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge, the Rev. F. M. Taitt, the Rev. L. C. Washburn and Messrs. E. H. Bonsall, J. W. Bayard, John Cadwalader, Morris Earle and S. F. Houston.

The Committee met and organized by the election of Dr. Washburn as Chairman and Mr. Earle as Secretary. They elected the Rev. Dr. Grammer and Mr. A. J. County to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of Dr. Taitt and Mr. Cadwalader.

The Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ designated the following gentlemen to confer with the Foundation Committee, namely: the Rev. Dr. Richardson, later the Rev. C. W. Bispham, Mr. Eli Kirk Price, Mr. Benjamin Rush, Mr. Sydney L. Wright and Mr. J. J. Collier.

Sub-Committees were appointed to consider and report on such subjects as Charter, Canon, By-Laws, Policy and Aims.

Frequent meetings have been held and much earnest thought given, resulting in the formulation of a plan unanimously adopted in a joint session of the two Committees, as follows:

THE CATHEDRAL PLAN

At the outset appropriate acknowledgment is made of the devotion and zeal with which the movement for a Cathedral has been inaugurated. Our Bishop, the Bishop Suffragan and the Clergy, Laymen and Laywomen co-operating with them have conceived and nurtured a project of wide significance for the enrichment of our religious life. The Charter which has been secured from the State is herewith submitted as a matter of record. The provisions expressed in the Canon, and the amendments which have been offered to the By-Laws, have been drafted in a spirit of sympathy. Similar recognition is also made of our accord with the Bishop, and his associates in the Cathedral movement, in their thoughtful expositions of the objectives toward which it should tend.

The following is the Charter duly granted:

CHARTER

CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

The subscribers hereto, all of whom are citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, having associated themselves together for the support of public worship and being desirous of becoming incorporated in accordance with the Corporation Act of April 29, 1874, and its supplements, hereby certify

I. The name of the proposed corporation is

DECREE

And now, this Twenty-second day of December A. D. 1920, the foregoing Charter or Certificate of Incorporation of CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST, duly acknowledged and certified, having been presented to me, the undersigned, a law Judge of the said County, accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice of such application, I certify that I have perused and examined said instrument and that I find the same in proper form and within the purposes named in the first class specified in the second section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved the twenty-ninth day of April A. D. 1874, and that the same appears lawful and not injurious to the community. It is, therefore, ordered and decreed that the said Charter be and the same is hereby approved and that, upon the recording of the said Charter and of this order in the office for the Recording of Deeds in and for the County aforesaid, the subscribers thereto and their associates shall be a corporation for the purposes and upon the terms herein stated.

WILLIAM H. STAAKE,
Judge.

Your Committee recommends that the Convention approve of the existing Chapter continuing to operate under its present By-Laws (a copy whereof is embodied in this report) until altered or amended after action by the Convention.

Your Committee was confronted by a double task:

First, the determination of a satisfactory basis for a working arrangement between the Convention of the Diocese and the existing Cathedral Corporation, which for several years has been performing in a necessarily limited way certain Diocesan functions at the Pro-Cathedral of St. Mary.

Second, the expression in adequate terms of certain fundamental conceptions which should govern the development during the coming years of the comprehensive Cathedral organization which it is hoped may grow out of the present modest beginning.

Obviously the simple machinery which is quite sufficient for the satisfactory functioning of the present organization would be wholly inadequate for the requirements of the enlarged Cathedral of the future.

The fundamental conceptions, which have formed the basis for the recommendations of your Committee as to the appropriate relations between the Convention and the Cathedral, are summarized in the following:

DECLARATION OF PURPOSES AND AIMS

Your Committee has given thought not only to the technical and legal aspects of the relation of the Cathedral to the Convention, but also to the deeper questions of its proper work and function in the Diocese. This has been necessary. For whatever legislation is adopted must from the outset be such as to lend itself harmoniously to the development of such a Cathedral as we wish to have. It seems necessary to submit the following brief outline of the conceptions that have guided us in forming our recommendations. In doing so, however, we ask the Convention to realize that we are not presenting a program that can be put into effect immediately, or even one that pretends to adequacy and finality. The shaping of the ideal, and its realization will be a task not only for ourselves but for our children and our children's children. The Cathedral traditions of the old world are rich and impelling. Already in this new land, the cradle of democracy, experience has brought us pertinent warning and positive incentive. In this, the most American of cities, and in these days of progress and challenge, the necessity and opportunity for so adapting an inheritance of proved value as to provide a community sanctuary that shall become an adequate spiritual power house for this modern metropolis, is clear. These higher aspects of the movement need not be dwelt upon here. Let us rather formulate quite simply and in broad outline merely enough for guidance in our immediate business.

There would seem to be four distinguishable features in the proper work of a Cathedral for this Diocese.

I. The Cathedral should be the centre of and means for Diocesan self-expression. In it, normally, should be held the ordinations; diocesan services and mass meetings; and such other functions as focus and express the common interests, convictions and enthusiasms of the body of the Church people who together make up the Diocesan unit. As a means to this end, the whole type of service at the Cathedral should be maintained in dignity and beauty, making it an example and an inspiration to us all, exalting the vital art of worship, and by particular effort quickening the devotional life of today.

II. The Cathedral should be not only the spiritual centre, but, in large measure, the ultimate agency, for many undertakings that are of a supra-parochial character. For this purpose, it must, in time, have a considerable staff of workers, each engaged as an expert in his particular line of work. These experts could, at times, be of great assistance to the parish clergy; they might also be found, by the Bishop, a Council of Advice to whom he could often turn with assurance and relief. The particular lines of centralized work which we should anticipate, are these:

A. Missionary Work.
   1. Missionary work among distinct racial elements of the city's population, indeed its ultimate aim should be to carry the message of our Saviour and the message of the Christian religion to every person within the community.
   2. Possibly, also, a responsibility for the actual management and maintenance of what are now known as "Diocesan Missions," until such time as these may have reached a status of self support.

It should be noted that the development of the Cathedral work along such lines as these will raise questions of correlation and affiliation with many existent agencies—the Executive Council, the Board of Missions, the several Convocations, the Sunday School Institute—and with many existent institutions—the City Mission, the Sheltering Arms, the Galilee Mission, etc. Your Committee has not faced these questions in detail and does not believe that they are yet ripe for discussion, save in most general terms. We hold it sufficient to point them out and to have so shaped the legislation which we recommend that it may permit of such action as may hereinafter prove wise.

B. Educational Work. The Cathedral Foundation should provide expert leadership in the educational problems that confront us.
   1. For the Church School with weekday religious instruction.
   2. For Bible Class and other advanced work among adults.
   3. For training courses for Teachers and other Lay-workers.
   4. Possibly for the oversight of inquirers, Postulants, and Candidates for Holy Orders.

C. "Social Service" Work. The Church has responsibilities that are clearly supra-parochial. e. g.,
   1. In the Prisons.
   2. In the Hospitals.
   3. For rescue work, and character building among the delinquent, the dependent, and the outcast.
   4. For aggressive leadership in connection with commercialized vice, the drug habit, intemperance and the like.
   5. A general rallying point for the higher concerns of the community with genuine hospitality for and responsiveness to all sorts and conditions of men, making the Christian conscience a felt force in legislation, and in public life generally.

III. The Cathedral should make a great contribution to the Ministry of Preaching. It should provide position, opportunity and emolument for certain men, "Canons," no doubt they will be called, whose chief if not exclusive duty should be study and preaching. The average parish minister is so overwhelmed by pastoral work and by "practical duties," so called, that he can rarely find time or strength for the full use of his powers as a spiritual leader and thinker. Indeed he may be an exceptionally effective parish priest and yet have little of that peculiar gift which enables some few men to influence the world deeply through the spoken word. The Church, however, needs this today as it needs perhaps hardly any other one thing. And our Cathedral should do for this Metropolitan area what St. Paul's does for London and England. We should breed and find place for preachers like Liddon and Lightfoot and Knox Little and Scott Holland. Your Committee begs to point out also that through this ministry of preaching the Cathedral could do much, in the name of the Church, toward bringing the positive Gospel of Christ to those many perplexed and inquiring souls who, while thirsting after truth, are yet at present without formal attachment to any parish of our own or to any other body of organized Christians.

IV. Finally,—and though mentioned last this appears to your Committee by no means least,—the Cathedral should be a centre for contact with Christians of other names and affiliations, in the present interests of co-operation and in the ultimate interests of reunion. It appears to us that a Cathedral, as distinct from a parish church, might be able wisely and properly to act and even to experiment somewhat boldly, in this most urgent, yet most difficult and delicate matter. Here again we have no specific recommendations to advance; such must obviously be worked out from time to time by the authorities of the Cathedral itself; and, of course, then as now, they must be in loyal accord with such regulations, permissive or restrictive, as the General Convention may issue. Our one concern now is that the importance of this function should be put in the foreground from the start and that our fundamental legislation on the Diocesan Cathedral should be such as to admit of action hereafter, when and how action may prove possible and wise.

In all this, your Committee, it must be obvious, has conceived of the Cathedral, not as a private venture, or an independent and self-sustained corporation, even to the degree that a parish may be such. Rather we think of the Cathedral as the Bishop's Church and also as an integral part of the corporate life of the Diocese,—its agency for certain undertakings, its centre for supra-parochial life and always its inspiration. We believe it to be of the utmost importance that this character should be wrought into the very foundations of its structure To achieve this the relation of the Cathedral to the Convention of the Diocese must be organic and unmistakable. It has been our purpose to clarify this latter relation; to make it definite and adequate; yet at the same time to keep it free from that pettiness of dependency which would only thwart and check the work of the Cathedral and its staff. We would summarize the essential provisions to this end, that are embodied in our report:

1. The organic relation of the Cathedral Foundation to the Diocese and to the Convention is defined and embodied in the proposed Canon.
2. The By-Laws of the Cathedral corporation are to be approved by the Convention and any change of these By-Laws, affecting the relation of the Cathedral to the Convention, must be submitted to and approved by the Convention before becoming valid.

3. Nominations for membership in the Cathedral corporation must be approved by the Standing Committee elected by the Convention before the said corporation may proceed to elect.
4. The Cathedral Chapter shall submit an annual report to the Convention of the Diocese, which report shall summarize the work of the Cathedral during the preceding year and shall direct attention to any important questions or policies which may have arisen.

Your Committee recommends as the first definite step to carry out these purposes and aims and as a necessary feature of the "Plan for the establishment of appropriate relations between the Convention and the Cathedral," the adoption of the following Canon:

CANON XVI OF THE CATHEDRAL FOUNDATION

SECTION I. A Cathedral Foundation shall be established in this Diocese as a source of spiritual inspiration, a centre of religious learning and culture, and a means of promoting the unity of all Christian Communions and of extending to all people the blessings of the Christian faith.

SECTION II. Any place of worship under the control of the Cathedral organization shall be recognized as the Bishop's Church and shall be available under the supervision of the Bishop of the Diocese as a House of Prayer for all people, who may resort thereto, and especially for all Christian people dwelling within the territory covered by the spiritual jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese.

SECTION III. The Cathedral Church of Christ, a corporation duly organized under the laws of Pennsylvania for "the support of public worship of Almighty God according to the faith and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," shall upon its formal acceptance of this Canon and recognition of the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the said Church and the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, be the Cathedral Foundation for this Diocese. The title to all real estate and personal property in any way acquired for Cathedral purposes shall be held by the said corporation.

SECTION IV. Said corporation shall have power to erect or acquire anywhere in the Diocese a place or places of worship and other buildings necessary or proper for its corporate purposes.

SECTION V. Pending the erection or acquisition of such place or places of worship or other buildings, said corporation may, with the consent of the proper authorities of any parish in union with the Convention, use the church or other buildings of such parish, or any of them, for the purpose of a Pro-Cathedral, during such period and on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon.

SECTION VI. Said corporation shall not maintain any parochial organization and shall not be entitled to any lay representation in the Diocesan Convention.

SECTION VII. After the adoption by the Diocesan Convention of this Canon, the Bishop of the Diocese shall annually nominate two laymen, citizens of Pennsylvania and communicant members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and two clergymen of said Church to serve as members (now called Canons) of the Board of Directors (now called the Chapter) of said corporation for a term of four years from January first of the following year, and, upon the approval of their nomination by the Standing Committee of the Diocese and their election by vote of a majority of the Canons in office at the date of the nomination, those so elected shall become members of the corporation and Canons for said term. If any nominee fails of approval or of election, the Bishop shall nominate another candidate possessed of like qualifications and, in case of another failure to approve or elect, a like proceeding shall take place until an election is secured. Any Canon may on due nomination and approval be re-elected to succeed himself. A vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by a like nomination, approval and election of a candidate of like qualifications with those of his predecessor. The Bishop shall designate not more than four of the clerical Canons as Canons Residentiary, who shall perform such special duties and shall receive such compensation as may be determined by the Chapter.

SECTION VIII. With a view to correlating the activities of the corporation with those of the Executive Council of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the Council, with the approval of the Bishop of the Diocese and the consent of the Chapter, may delegate to the corporation the performance of the whole or any part of the duties of any of the departments of said Executive Council.

SECTION IX. The Bishop, with the approval of the Chapter, shall have power to invite representatives of other Christian Communions to associate themselves with it, in such way as may from time to time seem desirable, in order to assist more effectually in making any place of worship under their control truly a house of prayer for all people, to further the progress of Christianity and to promote the unity, peace and concord of all nations.

SECTION X. The Chapter shall submit to the Convention of the Diocese an annual report, which shall summarize the work of the Cathedral during the preceding year and shall discuss any questions of larger policy which may have arisen.

Your Committee inserts here for the information of the Convention a copy of the existing By-Laws, amended in one particular as a result of the conference of the two Committees.

BY-LAWS
OF THE
CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

Members

The members of the corporation shall consist of the corporators named in the Charter and their associates and successors chosen as hereinafter provided. Until the adoption by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania of such legislation as will enable it to take part in the choice of members of the corporation as hereinafter provided, any vacancies in the membership shall be filled by vote of the remaining members. The corporation shall ultimately be managed by a board of seventeen directors, members of the corporation, consisting of the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and sixteen others, to be known as Canons, who together shall constitute the Chapter of the Cathedral Church and in whom and whose successors shall be vested all the powers of the corporation, including the power to enact by-laws and generally to do all things requisite for the government of the Church and the execution of the purpose of its incorporation. Upon the adoption of these By-Laws the eight laymen named in the Charter among the directors chosen for the first year shall divide themselves by lot into four classes of two each, to serve for one, two, three and four years respectively from January first of the current year, and the three clergymen, other than the Bishop, named in the Charter as directors shall likewise divide themselves into three classes of one each, to serve for one, two and three years respectively from said date. The corporators shall also elect another clergyman to serve as a member of the corporation and director for four years from said date. After the adoption by the Diocesan Convention of the necessary legislation, the Bishop of the Diocese shall annually nominate two laymen, citizens of Pennsylvania and communicant members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and two clergymen of said Church as Canons to serve for a term of four years from January first of the following year and upon the approval of their nomination by the Standing Committee of the Diocese and their election by vote of a majority of the Canons in office at the date of the nomination those so elected shall become members of the corporation and Canons for said term. If any nominee fails of approval or of election, the Bishop shall nominate another candidate possessed of like qualifications, and in case of another failure to approve or elect, a like proceeding shall take place until an election is secured. Any Canon may on due nomination and approval be re-elected to succeed himself. A vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by vote of a majority of the remaining Canons for a candidate of like qualifications with those of his predecessor. The Bishop shall designate not more than four of the clerical Canons as Canons Residentiary, who shall perform such special duties and shall receive such compensation as may be determined by the Chapter. Until four additional clerical Canons are elected, the Chapter shall consist of a smaller number than the full quota of seventeen hereinbefore provided.

A majority of the Bishop and Canons then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but neither the Bishop nor any Canon Residentiary shall vote on any act or proceeding affecting the control or disposition of the property of the corporation and at least five lay Canons shall vote in favor of any such act or proceeding in order to give it effect.

Officers

The officers of the corporation shall consist of the Bishop, a Dean, to be appointed by the Bishop from among the clerical Canons, other than the Canons Residentiary, and to hold office during his term of service as Canon, a Precentor, a Registrar and a Treasurer, each to be elected annually from among the lay Canons by the members of the Chapter to serve until the next annual meeting of the Chapter or until their respective successors are chosen. The Bishop when present shall preside at all meetings of the Chapter and be the chief executive officer of the corporation. The Dean shall be his Deputy and in case of his absence shall preside at the meetings of the Chapter and perform such executive duties as the Bishop may assign to him. The Bishop shall appoint all committees and be ex officio a member thereof. He may call special meetings of the Chapter at any time. The Precentor under the general direction of the Chapter shall have charge of the music of the Cathedral. The Registrar shall keep the records of the Cathedral and the minutes of the meetings of the Chapter and shall have the custody of the corporate seal and affix it to documents only when authorized by the Chapter. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of the funds of the corporation. He shall collect all of its income, pay all charges against it, when directed by the Chapter, keep an account of all his receipts and disbursements, report thereon from time to time to the Chapter and have his accounts audited annually.

Meetings

Stated meetings of the Chapter shall be held on the third Wednesday of every month except July, August and September. The January meeting shall be the annual meeting, at which the elective officers of the Chapter shall be chosen for the ensuing year. The order of business at meetings of the Chapter shall be:

1. Action on the minutes of the preceding meetings;
2. Communications;
3. Reports of officers;
4. Reports of committees;

5. Elections;
6. Unfinished business;
7. New business.

The order of business at any meeting may be altered by unanimous vote of those present.

Amendments

These By-Laws may be amended at any stated meeting of the Chapter by a two-thirds vote of all the members then in office, but no amendment shall be voted upon, unless notice of the intended action upon such amendment shall have been given to each member at least ten days immediately preceding the meeting at which the vote is taken.

Your Committee also reports that it has been agreed that the Committee appointed by the Cathedral Chapter shall recommend to the Chapter that, upon the adoption by the Diocesan Convention of the proposed Canon in regard to the Cathedral Foundation, the Chapter shall accept the Canon as the basis for appropriate relations between the Convention and the Cathedral and shall amend its By-Laws by adding at the end thereof the following:

"and no amendment affecting in any way the corporate relations of this corporation to the Protestant Episcopal Church or to the Diocese of Pennsylvania, or the powers or duties of its officers, shall become effective until approved by the Convention of that Diocese."

The Committee will further recommend to the Chapter, that the choice of a Precentor shall not be confined to the lay Canons and that, when the future development of the purposes and functions of the Cathedral Foundation shall make the appointment of a Dean essential or desirable, the relations of the Bishop and of the Dean to the Cathedral organization, in addition to those prescribed by the present By-Laws, shall be defined substantially as follows:

"The Bishop when present shall preside at all meetings of the Chapter. He shall appoint annually, in consultation with the Dean, such Standing Committees as the Chapter shall from time to time establish and shall be ex officio a member of all committees. He may call special meetings of the Chapter at any time. He shall have the right to use any place of worship under the control of the corporation for any Episcopal acts and for Diocesan and other religious services and other meetings. He shall have power to prescribe the purposes, for which any place of worship or other buildings under the control of the corporation may be used, and to limit or forbid any particular use thereof. He shall have the right to preach and may designate special preachers for special occasions in any such place of worship, giving due notice to the Dean. No change in the established ritual use of any such place of worship shall be made without the consent of the Bishop.

"The Dean shall have charge, under the Bishop, of the services and work of the corporation. In the absence of the Bishop he shall preside at the meetings of the Chapter. He shall, in consultation with the Bishop, appoint all committees not otherwise appointed and shall be ex officio a member of all committees. Subject to the Bishop's right as herein set forth, he may also call special meetings of the Chapter at any time. The Dean shall be responsible for the seemly and reverent conduct of Divine worship in every place of worship under control of the corporation.

Subject to the Bishop's right as herein set forth, he shall designate the preachers and may grant the use of any place of worship or other buildings under the control of the corporation.

In the event of the failure or inability of the Dean to perform his duties and also during any vacancy in the office, the Bishop may designate any one of the clerical Canons to act in the Dean's place.

In order to carry out the foregoing recommendations, the Committee offers the following resolutions:

1. That the Canon of the Cathedral Foundation, submitted herewith, be adopted.
2. That the Convention approve of the existing Chapter of said corporation continuing to operate under its present By-Laws, until the same have been altered or amended in accordance with the action of the Convention.
3. That the Convention adopt the Report as a whole and discharge the Committee from further consideration of the subject.
4. That a committee of five clergymen and five laymen be elected by this Convention, who shall confer with the Cathedral Chapter and with the Executive Council of the Diocese and shall submit to the next Convention information and recommendations as to the financing of the Cathedral enterprises.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX P

Report of Committee on Change of Date of Convention

The Diocesan Convention of May, 1922, ordered that "a Committee consisting of three clergymen and three laymen, be appointed to consider the expediency of changing the date of holding the Diocesan Convention, and report its recommendations to the next Convention."

Acting under this resolution, the Bishop appointed a Committee, which at its first meeting elected a Chairman and Secretary.

Your Committee found that Conventions of a great majority of Dioceses and Missionary Districts are held between January 17th and February 22nd; between January 24th and February 7th being the most popular dates.

The adoption of the calendar year as the fiscal year of the Church creates a condition which your Committee believe makes the month of May an undesirable time for the Diocesan Conventions, mainly for the following reasons:

(1) The reports upon which the actions of the Convention are based are not absolutely up to date.

(2) Diocesan or parochial action following the resolutions of the Diocesan Convention, based upon these reports, does not take effect until the following January, that is, eight months after the date of the Convention.

That means that action based upon the reports of 1922 will not go into effect in this Diocese until January 1st, 1924.

(3) In this Diocese, the Diocesan as well as the parochial season is usually one of about nine and a half, or ten and a half months, that is, from some time in September or October to say about the middle of June. Hence any action which may be inaugurated by committees appointed by the Convention is not likely to be considered until September or October, four or five months after the date of the Convention. This means that if any cause receives momentum at the Convention, this momentum is likely to be lost before action inaugurated by the Convention can fairly begin.

These considerations led your Committee to the conclusion that the most appropriate time for the Convention in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is early in November, for the following reasons:

(1) Early in November, the weather in Philadelphia is apt to be even more pleasant than is the weather the first week in May.

(2) Action taken by the Convention would begin eight weeks after the date of the Convention. Such action would be based upon the reports of the previous calendar year, which would make them no older at the date of beginning work thereunder than is the case when the Convention is held in May.

(3) Work organized as a result of any action at the Convention would be brought to Committees, and to Parishes, as the case might be, very shortly after the Diocesan and Parochial season begins. And would come to Committees which should be ready and eager to take up their work at once. Thus any momentum which might be created by the Convention would be made use of immediately and not allowed to die, as is the case when the Convention is held in May.

Argument against holding the Diocesan Convention in November might be urged.

In relation to the General Convention, delegates would have to be chosen for the Convention eleven months before the date of that Convention. As most Diocesan Conventions are held in January, a November Convention would anticipate the choice of delegates only by a few weeks.

The Bishops and delegates to the General Convention would have to be at the Diocesan Convention very shortly after their return from the General Convention. There is, however, ample time for them to return, and there is no reason why this would be a real argument against the November date.

The Constitution and Canons do not prescribe a date at which the Diocesan Convention shall be held, any Convention having authority to name the date at which the subsequent Convention shall be held. It would be necessary to change a few of the Canons. One or more may refer to the beginning of the work of the new Council. This, however, can readily be changed from June to December.

Members of the Council chosen by the Convocations should be chosen at the October meeting, rather than at the spring meeting. As far as your Committee are aware, no other changes would be necessary.

In view of these facts which were brought to the attention of the Committee, and in spite of the fact that when the Committee first met, the several members had in mind the recommendation of a different date, the Committee recommends as follows:

Resolved, that it is the sense of the Committee that the Annual Convention of the Diocese for 1924 be held on Wednesday and Thursday, November 5th and 6th.

Resolved, that if these dates be found to be satisfactory, the date of the Convention be changed to the first Wednesday in November, unless the same shall be All Saints' Day, in which case the Convention shall be held on the second Wednesday in November.

Respectfully submitted,

S. F. HOUSTON, Chairman.

G. M. HENDERSON,

APPENDIX Q

Communication from the General Convention

To the Ecclesiastical Authorities of the Church and to the Diocesan Secretaries.

In compliance with the requirements of Canon 51 § I. (iv.) which is hereby given "to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Church in every Diocese and Missionary District, as well as to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese that the following Alterations of the Book of Common Prayer," and the following amendment to the Constitution, as were proposed in the Convention of 1922, are to be finally acted upon in the General Convention of 1925, in accordance with Articles IX and X of the Constitution.

Furthermore, each Diocesan Secretary is hereby notified that it is his duty to make known such proposed alterations of the Book of Common Prayer, and of the Constitution, to the Convention of his Diocese at its next meeting, and to certify to the Secretary of the House of Deputies that such action has been taken by him.

CARROLL M. DAVIS,
Secretary of the House of Deputies.

Church Missions House,
New York,
January 20, 1923.

AMENDMENTS TO THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER PROPOSED AT THE CONVENTION OF 1922, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1925.

MORNING PRAYER

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for Daily Morning Prayer, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(1) Add at the end of the third rubric preceding Morning Prayer the following:—

And Note that when the Confession and Absolution are omitted, the Minister may after the Sentences pass to the Versicles, "O Lord, open thou our lips" etc.; in which case the Lord's Prayer shall be said with the other prayers, immediately after "The Lord be with you, etc." and before the Versicles and Responses which follow.

(2) After the rubric before the Venite add the following:—

¶ On the days hereafter named, here may be sung or said:

On the Sundays in Advent.—Our King and Saviour draweth nigh: O come, let us adore him.

On Christmas Day and until the Epiphany.—Alleluia. Unto us a child is born: O come, let us adore him.

On the Epiphany and seven days after, and on the Feast of the Transfiguration.—The Lord hath manifested forth his glory: O come, let us adore him.

On Monday in Easter Week, and until Ascension Day.—Alleluia. The Lord is risen indeed: O come, let us adore him. Alleluia.

On Ascension Day and until Whitsunday.—Alleluia. Christ the Lord ascendeth into heaven: O come, let us adore him. Alleluia.

On Whitsunday and six days after.—Alleluia. The Spirit of the Lord filleth the world: O come, let us adore him. Alleluia.

On Trinity Sunday.—Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, one God: O come, let us adore him.

On the Purification and the Annunciation.—The Word was made flesh: O come, let us adore him.

On other Festivals for which a proper Epistle and Gospel are ordered.—The Lord is glorious in his saints: O come, let us adore him.

(4) Transpose the rubric following the Prayer for the President, so as immediately to follow the Collect for Grace.

EVENING PRAYER

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for Daily Evening Prayer, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(1) Add at the end of the rubric preceding Evening Prayer the following:—

And Note that when the Confession and Absolution are omitted, the Minister may after the Sentences pass to the Versicles, "O Lord, open thou our lips," etc., in which case the Lord's Prayer shall be said with the other prayers, immediately after "The Lord be with you, etc." and before the Versicles and Responses which follow.

(2) Amend the second Absolution, by changing "God" to "Lord" in the first line, placing "his" before "Holy Spirit" in the last line, and omitting the words "through Jesus Christ our Lord," so that it shall read:

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you Absolution and Remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS

Resolved: That the following change be made in Prayers and Thanksgivings, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

Insert the following Prayers under the general title PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS, pages 37 ff., viz.:

(1) To follow A Prayer for Congress.

For a State Legislature

O God, the fountain of wisdom, whose statutes are good and gracious and whose law is truth; We beseech thee so to guide and bless the Legislature of this State, that it may ordain for our governance only such things as please thee, to the glory of thy Name and the welfare of the people; through Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

(2) And to follow the Prayer, For Courts of Justice.

For Our Country

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage; We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favour and glad to do thy will. Bless our land with honourable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogancy, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to thy law we may show forth thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble suffer not our trust in thee to fail; all which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(3) And to follow the Prayers, For those who are to be admitted into Holy Orders.

For the Increase of the Ministry

O Almighty God, look mercifully upon the world which thou hast redeemed by the blood of thy dear Son, and incline the hearts of many to dedicate themselves to the sacred ministry of thy Church; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(4) And to follow the Prayer, For Meetings of Convention.

For the Church

O gracious Father, we humbly beseech thee for thy holy Catholic Church; that thou wouldst be pleased to fill it with all truth, in all peace. Where it is corrupt, purify it; where it is in error, direct it; where in anything it is amiss, reform it. Where it is right, establish it; where it is in want, provide for it; where it is divided, reunite it; for the sake of him who died and rose again, and ever liveth to make intercession for us, Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

(5) Amend the Prayer, For Missions, so that it shall read as follows:

For Missions

O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after thee and find thee. Bring the nations into thy fold, pour out thy spirit upon all flesh, and hasten thy kingdom; through the same thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(6) Insert the following immediately after the Prayer, For Missions.

¶ Or this

Almighty God, whose compassions fail not, and whose lovingkindness reacheth unto the world's end; We give thee humble thanks for opening heathen lands to the light of thy truth; for making paths in the deep waters and highways in the desert; and for planting thy Church in all the earth. Grant, we beseech thee, unto us thy servants that with lively faith we may labour abundantly to make known to all men thy blessed gift of eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(7) Substitute for the Prayer for Memorial Days, the following:—

Memorial Days

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, in whose hands are the living and the dead; We give thee thanks for all those thy servants who have laid down their lives in the service of our country. Grant to them thy mercy and the light of thy presence, that the good work which thou hast begun in them may be perfected; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

(8) Insert immediately after the Prayer for Memorial Days the following:

For Schools, Colleges and Universities

Almighty God, we beseech thee, with thy gracious favour to behold our universities, colleges and schools, that knowledge may be increased among us, and all good learning flourish and abound; bless all who teach and all who learn; and grant that in humility of heart they may ever look unto thee, who art the fountain of all wisdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(9) Insert immediately after the Prayer For Children the following:

For Those About to be Confirmed

O God, who through the teaching of thy Son Jesus Christ didst prepare the disciples for the coming of the Comforter; Make ready, we beseech thee, the hearts and minds of thy servants who at this time are seeking to be strengthened by the gift of the Holy Spirit through the laying on of hands, that, drawing near with penitent and faithful hearts, they may evermore be filled with the power of his divine indwelling; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(9a) Insert immediately after the Prayer For Those About to be Confirmed, the following:

For Christian Service

O Lord, our heavenly Father, whose blessed Son came not to be ministered unto, but to minister; We beseech thee to bless all who, following in his steps, give themselves to the service of their fellow men. Endue them with wisdom, patience, and courage, that they may strengthen the weak and raise up those who fall; and being inspired by thy love may worthily minister in thy Name to the suffering, the friendless, and the needy; for the sake of him who laid down his life for us, the same thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

(10) And to follow the above:—

For Social Justice

Almighty God, who hast created man in thine own image; Grant us grace fearlessly to contend against evil, and to make no peace with oppression; and, that we may reverently use our freedom, help us to employ it in the maintenance of justice among men and nations, to the glory of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(11) And to follow the above:—

For Every Man in his Work

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who declarest thy glory and showest forth thy handiwork in the heavens and in the earth; Deliver us, we beseech thee, in our several callings, from the service of mammon, that we may do the work which thou givest us to do, in truth, in beauty, and in righteousness, with singleness of heart as thy servants, and to the benefit of our fellow men; for the sake of him who came among us as one that serveth, thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(12) Substitute for the Prayer, In Time of Great Sickness and Mortality, page 41, the following, viz.:—

In Time of Great Sickness and Mortality

O Most mighty and merciful God, in this time of grievous sickness, we flee unto thee for succour. Deliver us, we beseech thee, from our peril; give strength and skill to all those who minister to the sick; prosper the means made use of for their cure; and grant that, perceiving how frail and uncertain our life is, we may apply our hearts unto that heavenly wisdom which leadeth to eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(13) Make the Prayer for a Sick Person, page 42 of the Prayer Book, to read as follows:

Prayer for a Sick Person

O Father of mercies and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We humbly beseech thee to behold, visit and relieve thy sick servant (N—) for whom our prayers are desired. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy; comfort him with a sense of thy goodness; preserve him from the temptations of the enemy; and give him patience under his affliction. In thy good time, restore him to health, and enable him to lead the residue of his life in thy fear, and to thy glory; and grant that finally he may dwell with thee in life everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(14) Substitute for the Prayer, For a Sick Child, pages 42, 43, the following:

For a Sick Child

O Heavenly Father, watch with us, we pray thee, over the sick child for whom our prayers are offered, and grant that he may be restored to that perfect health which it is thine alone to give; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(15) Transfer the Prayer, For a Person under Affliction, from its present position to a position immediately following the Prayer, For a Sick Child: and amend the same so that it shall read as follows:

For a Person under Affliction

O Merciful God, and heavenly Father, who hast taught us in thy holy Word that thou dost not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men; Look with pity, we beseech thee, upon the sorrows of thy servant for whom our prayers are offered. Remember him, O Lord, in mercy; endue his soul with patience; comfort him with a sense of thy goodness; lift up thy countenence upon him, and give him peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(16) Substitute for the Prayer, For Malefactors, the following:

For Prisoners

O God, who sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath rememberest mercy; We humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, to comfort and succour all prisoners (especially those who are condemned to die). Give them a right understanding of themselves, and of thy promises; that, trusting wholly in thy mercy, they may not place their confidence anywhere but in thee. Relieve the distressed, protect the innocent, awaken the guilty; and forasmuch as thou alone bringest light out of darkness, and good out of evil, grant to these thy servants, that by the power of thy Holy Spirit they may be set free from the chains of sin, and may be brought to newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(17) For the Thanksgiving For Rain, page 45 of the Prayer Book, substitute the following:

For Rain

O God, our heavenly Father, by whose gracious providence the former and the latter rain descend upon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the use of man; We give thee humble thanks that it hath pleased thee to send us rain to our great comfort, and to the glory of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ORDER FOR THE HOLY COMMUNION

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for the Administration of the Lord's Supper; and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(2) Transfer the first and second rubrics, page 221, to follow the rubric, ¶ And if any of the consecrated Bread and Wine remain, etc., at the end of the Office.

(3) Make the third rubric, page 221, to be the first rubric, and change the same so that it shall read as follows:

¶ At the Communion-time the Holy Table shall have upon it a fair white linen cloth. And the Priest, standing reverently before the Holy Table, shall say the Lord's Prayer and the Collect following, the People kneeling: but the Lord's Prayer may be omitted at the discretion of the Priest.

(4) Amend the rubric after the Collect so as to read as follows:

¶ Then shall the Priest, turning to the People, rehearse distinctly THE TEN COMMANDMENTS; and the People, still kneeling, shall, after every Commandment, ask God mercy for their transgressions for the time past, and grace to keep the law for the time to come.

And Note, that in rehearsing the Ten Commandments, the Priest may omit that part of the Commandment which is inset.

(5) Amend the second rubric on page 222 to read:

¶ "At least one Sunday in each month" instead of "once on each Sunday."

(6) Make the Ten Commandments to read as follows:

God spake these words, and said:

I am the Lord thy God; Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them:

for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain;

for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day.
Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.
Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Honour thy father and thy mother;
that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Thou shalt do no murder.
Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Thou shalt not steal.
Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.
Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Thou shalt not covet.
thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.
Lord have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

(7) Amend the first rubric on page 224 so as to read as follows:
¶ Then may the Priest say,

(8) Immediately after the first rubric on page 224, in the sentence "Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith," omit the word "also."

(9) After the Summary of the Law insert as follows:
Again he saith:
A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another: as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

(10) Change the third rubric on page 224 to read:
¶ Then the Priest may say:
to be preceded by:
The Lord be with you
And with thy spirit.
Let us pray

(11) For the fourth rubric, page 224, substitute the following:
¶ Then shall the Priest say the COLLECT OF THE DAY. And after the Collect the Minister appointed shall read the EPISTLE, first saying, The Epistle is written in the — Chapter of ——, beginning at the — Verse. The Epistle ended, he shall say, Here endeth the Epistle.
¶ Here may be sung a Hymn or an Anthem
¶ Then, all the People standing, the Minister appointed shall read the GOSPEL, first saying, The Holy Gospel is written in the — Chapter of ——, beginning at the — Verse.
¶ Here shall be said,
Glory be to thee, O Lord.

¶ And after the Gospel may be said:
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

(13) Amend the rubric following the Creed so as to read as follows:
¶ Then shall be declared unto the People what Holy-days, or Fasting-days, are in the week following to be observed: and (if occasion be) shall Notice be given of the Communion, and of the Banns of Matrimony, and of other matters to be published.

(14) For the second rubric after the Creed substitute the following rubrics:
¶ Here, or immediately after the Creed, may be said the Bidding Prayer, or other authorized prayers and intercessions.
¶ Then followeth the Sermon. After which, the Priest, when there is a Communion, shall return to the Holy Table, and begin the Offertory, saying one or more of these Sentences following, as he thinketh most convenient.

(15) For the Offertory Sentences substitute the following:
Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx. 35.
Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. v. 16.
Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and, where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. St. Matt. vi. 19, 20.
Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. vii. 21.
He that soweth little shall reap little; and he that soweth plenteously shall reap plenteously. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Cor. ix. 6, 7.
While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and especially unto them that are of the household of faith. Gal. vi. 10.
God is not unrighteous, that he will forget your works, and labour that proceedeth of love; which love ye have showed for his Name's sake, who have ministered unto the saints, and yet do minister. Heb. vi. 10.
To do good and to distribute, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Heb. xiii. 16.
Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 St. John iii. 17.
Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plenteously; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little; for so gatherest thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity. Tobit iv. 8, 9.
And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily, I say unto you inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye did it unto me. St. Matt. xxv. 40.
How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed; and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard, and how shall they hear without a preacher, and how shall they preach except they be sent. Rom. x. 14–15.
And he said unto them, the harvest is plenteous but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he send forth labourers into his harvest. St. Mark x. 2.

Ye shall not appear before the Lord empty; every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath given thee. Deut. xvi. 16, 17.

Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. 1 Chron. xxix. 11.

All things come of thee, O Lord, and of thine own have we given thee. 1 Chron. xxix. 14.

(16) For the three rubrics following the Offertory Sentences substitute these:

¶ And Note, That these Sentences may be used on any other occasion of Public Worship when the offerings of the People are to be received.

¶ The Deacons, Church-wardens, or other fit persons appointed for that purpose, shall receive the Alms for the Poor, and other Offerings of the People, in a decent Basin to be provided by the Parish: and reverently bring it to the Priest, who shall humbly present and place it upon the Holy Table.

¶ And the Priest shall then offer, and shall place upon the Holy Table, the Bread and the Wine.

¶ And when the Alms and Oblations are being received and presented, there may be sung a Hymn, or an Offertory Anthem in the words of Holy Scripture or of the Book of Common Prayer, under the direction of the Priest.

¶ Here the Priest may ask the secret intercessions of the Congregation for any who have desired the prayers of the Church.

(17) Amend the Prayer for Christ's Church Militant, by removing from the square brackets all but the words "alms and," by the omission of the side rubric, and by breaking the prayer into paragraphs, so that it shall read as follows:

Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to accept our [alms and] oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the Universal Church with the Spirit of truth, unity, and concord: And grant that all those who do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love.

We beseech thee also, so to direct and dispose the hearts of all Christian Rulers, that they may truly and impartially administer justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion, and virtue.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and other Ministers, that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

And to all thy People give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present; that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

And we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to grant them continual growth in thy love and service and to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

(23) Amend the second rubric on page 232 by substituting the word "Holy" for the word "Lord's."

(24) Amend the Common Preface, page 232, by the omission of the asterisk, brackets and side rubric.

(26) After the Proper Preface for Christmas Day insert the following:

Upon The Epiphany, and seven days after

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who, in substance of our mortal flesh, manifested forth his glory; that he might bring us out of darkness into his own glorious light. Therefore with Angels, etc.

(27) After the Proper Preface for the Epiphany insert the following: Upon the Purification, Annunciation, and Transfiguration.

Because in the Mystery of the Word made flesh, thou hast caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of thy glory in the face of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore with Angels, etc.

(28) Amend the Proper Preface for Whitsunday so as to read as follows:

Upon the Feast of Whitsunday, and six days after

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down as at this time from heaven, lighting upon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them into all truth; giving them boldness with fervent zeal constantly to preach the Gospel unto all nations; whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error into the clear light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ. Therefore with Angels, etc.

(29) Amend the Proper Preface for Trinity Sunday so as to read as follows:

Upon the Feast of Trinity only

Who, with thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Substance. For that which we believe of thy glory, O Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference of inequality. Therefore with Angels, etc.

(29a) Change first rubric on page 234 of the Prayer Book to read:

¶ Or this

(31) Add a new Proper Preface for All Saints' Day, as follows:

Upon All Saints' Day, and seven days after

Who, in the multitude of thy saints, hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses that we, rejoicing in their fellowship, may run with patience the race that is set before us, and together with them may receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away. Therefore with Angels, etc.

(32) Transfer the Prayer of Humble Access with the rubric preceding it, page 234, to a place immediately before the communion of the Priest and people.

(35) Omit the rubric immediately following the Prayer of Consecration, page 236, and insert in its place the following:

And now as our Saviour Christ hath taught us, let us say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

(36) After the sentence for the delivery of the Cup, insert as follows:

¶ In the Communion time may be sung the following, or some other Hymn or Hymns

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us; O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us; O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

(37) Amend the fourth rubric on page 237, by substituting the word "Priest" for the word "Minister."

(38) Omit the Lord's Prayer and the rubrics immediately preceding and following it after the Communion, page 237, and insert in this place the following, namely:

¶ Then shall the Priest say,
Let us pray

(39) In the Prayer following the Lord's Prayer, page 238, lines 7, 8, substitute for the words "the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son," the words "his most precious death and passion."

(40) Amend the first rubric on page 238 so as to read as follows:

¶ Then shall be said, Gloria in excelsis, all standing, or some proper Hymn

(41) In the text of Gloria in excelsis, second paragraph, omit the sentence: "Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us."

(42) In the rubric following Gloria in excelsis, insert after the first word Then the words the people kneeling.

(43) Omit the rubric on page 239, and transfer all the Collects appearing there and on page 240, to PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS.

(44) Insert the following rubric immediately after the Blessing, page 239.

¶ In the absence of a Priest, a Deacon may say all that is before appointed unto the end of the Gospel.

(45) In the first rubric, page 240, substitute for the word shall the word may.

(46) Transfer the Exhortation, with its rubric, on page 229, to a place immediately preceding the Exhortation and its rubric on page 240; and amend the first mentioned rubric so as to read as follows:

¶ At the time of the celebration of the Communion the Priest may say this Exhortation. And Note, that the Exhortation shall be said on the first Sunday in Advent, the first Sunday in Lent and Trinity Sunday.

(48) Amend the rubric on page 242, by substituting the words "he may use" for the words "he shall use."

THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES AND GOSPELS

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Collects, Epistles, and Gospels to be used throughout the year; and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(16) That for the Epistle for the Circumcision of Christ, page 68 of the Prayer Book there be substituted, as follows:

The Epistle. Phil. ii. 9

Wherefore, God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name; that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

(17) That the rubric, page 69 of the Prayer Book, be omitted.

(18) That a Collect, Epistle and Gospel be provided for The Second Sunday after Christmas Day, as follows:

The Collect

Almighty God, who hast poured upon us the new light of thine incarnate Word; Grant that the same light enkindled in our hearts may shine forth in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Isaiah lxi. 1

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

The Gospel. St. Matt ii. 19

When Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: and he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

(31) That the third Collect for Good Friday be amended so as to read as follows:

O Merciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor desirest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; Have mercy upon all who know thee not as thou art revealed in the Gospel of thy Son. Take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy fold, that they may be made one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

(56) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for the Ember-days, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for Feast of the Dedication of a Church.

EMBER DAYS

The Collect

O Almighty God, who hast committed to the hands of men the ministry of reconciliation; We humbly beseech thee by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to put it into the hearts of many to offer themselves for this ministry, that thereby mankind may be drawn to thy blessed kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts xiii. 44

The next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

The Gospel. St. Luke iv. 16

Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

(60) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided as follows, for use in connection with the Solemnization of Matrimony, to follow the Gospel for Thanksgiving Day.

THE SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY

The Collect

O Eternal God, we humbly beseech thee favourably to behold these thy servants now (about to be) joined in wedlock according to thy holy ordinance; and grant that they, seeking first thy kingdom and righteousness, may obtain the manifold blessings of thy grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Eph. v. 20

Give thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

The Gospel. St. Matt. xix. 4

Jesus answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

THE MINISTRATION OF HOLY BAPTISM

Resolved: That the following Office be substituted for the three Offices now standing in the Book of Common Prayer (pages 244–265) and that the proposed change be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

The Ministration of

HOLY BAPTISM

¶ When there are infants or other children to be baptized, the Parents or Sponsors shall give knowledge thereof to the Minister. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People with the Children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the Second Lesson at Morning or Evening Prayer, or at such other time as the Minister shall appoint.

¶ And the Minister coming to the Font, which is then to be filled with pure water, shall say as follows, the people all standing.

Hath this child (or person) been already baptized, or no?

¶ If they answer, No; then shall the Minister proceed as followeth:

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the Kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy he will grant to this Child (or Person) that which by nature he cannot have; that he may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made a living member of the same.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

Let us pray.

Almighty and immortal God, the aid of all who need, the helper of all who flee to thee for succour, the life of those who believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon thee for this Child (or this thy Servant), that he, coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of sin, by spiritual regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall have; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. So give now unto us who ask; let us seek, find; open the gate unto us who knock; that this Child (or this thy Servant) may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Or this

Almighty and everlasting God, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water; and also didst safely lead the children of Israel thy people through the Red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy Baptism; and by the Baptism of thy well-beloved Son Jesus Christ in the river Jordan, didst sanctify Water to the mystical washing away of sin; We beseech thee, for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon this Child (or this thy servant); wash him and sanctify him with the Holy Ghost; that he, being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the ark of Christ's Church; and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally he may come to the land of everlasting life, there to reign with thee, world without end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say as followeth:

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Mark, in the tenth Chapter, at the thirteenth Verse.

They brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

¶ Or this

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. John in the third Chapter, at the first Verse.

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

¶ Or this

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Matthew in the twenty-eighth Chapter, at the eighteenth Verse.

Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

¶ When the Gospel from St. Mark is read, the Minister may add this Exhortation:

Beloved, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him; how he blamed those who would have kept them from him; how he exhorteth all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how, by his outward gesture and deed, he declared his good will toward them; for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will likewise favourably receive this present Infant: that he will embrace him with the arms of his mercy; that he will give unto him the blessing of eternal life, and make him partaker of his everlasting kingdom.

¶ Then shall the Minister say:

And now we being persuaded of the good will of our heavenly Father toward this Child (or Person) declared by his Son Jesus Christ; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say,

Almighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, We give thee humble thanks, That thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, And confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this Child (or this thy Servant), That he may be born again, And be made an heir of everlasting salvation; Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, Now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise.

Dearly beloved, ye have brought this Child here to be baptized; ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive him, to release him from sin, to sanctify him with the Holy Ghost, to give him the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his Gospel to grant all these things that ye have prayed for: which promise he, for his part, will most surely keep and perform.

Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, this Child must also faithfully, for his part, promise by you that are his sureties, (until he come of age to take it upon himself), that he will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy Word, and obediently keep his commandments.

Dost thou, therefore, in the name of this Child, renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all; and, by God's help, will endeavour not to follow, nor be led by them.

Minister. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Answer. That is my desire.

Minister. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

¶ Here the Minister may add the following questions, in which case the two exhortations at the end of the service may be omitted.

Minister. Having now, in the name of this Child, made these promises, will ye also on your part take heed that he learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

Minister. Will ye take heed that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he is sufficiently instructed?

Answer. I will, God being my helper.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

O Merciful God, grant that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so this Child may walk in newness of life. Amen.

Grant that all sinful affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph, against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Almighty, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; Regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation; sanctify this water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that this Child (or this thy Servant) now to be baptized therein may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall take the Child into his hands, and shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers, Name this Child.

And then, naming the child after them, he shall dip him in the Water discreetly, or shall pour Water upon him saying,

N. I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister take each Person to be baptized by the hand; and placing him conveniently by the Font, according to his discretion, shall ask the Witnesses the Name; and then shall dip him in the water, or pour water upon him, saying,

N. I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

We receive this Child (or Person) into the congregation of Christ's flock; and do * sign him with the sign of the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

Seeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that this Child (or this Person) is regenerate and grafted into the body of Christ's Church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits; and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that this Child (or this Person) may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

* Here the Minister shall make a Cross upon the Child's (or Person's) forehead.

¶ Then shall be said,

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

We yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Child (or this thy Servant) with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he, being dead unto sin, may live unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may also be partaker of his resurrection; so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritor of thine everlasting kingdom; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ And Note, that in the case of an Adult, the Minister shall first ask the questions provided in this office for the baptism of Adults.

¶ If a Minister cannot be procured, then any baptized person present may adminsiter Holy Baptism, using the foregoing form. Such baptism should be promptly reported to the parish authorities.

¶ Then (except in the Baptism of Adults) the Minister shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers this Exhortation following:

Forasmuch as this Child hath promised by you his sureties to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember, that it is your parts and duties to see that this Infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession, he hath here made by you. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons; and chiefly ye shall provide, that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health; and that this Child may be virtuously brought up to lead a godly and a Christian life; remembering always, that Baptism doth represent unto us our profession, which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that, as he died, and rose again for us, so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

¶ Then shall he add, and say,

Ye are to take care that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose.

¶ The Minister may here add such prayers, taken out of this book, as he shall think fit.

The Blessing

The Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named; Grant you to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ dwelling in your hearts by faith, ye may be filled with all the fulness of God. Amen.

¶ The Minister of every parish shall often admonish the people that they defer not the baptism of their children, and that it is most convenient that Baptism should be administered upon Sundays and other Holy Days. Nevertheless, (if necessity so require) Baptism may be administered upon any other day. And also he shall warn them that except for urgent cause they seek not to have their Children baptized in their houses.

¶ There shall be for every Male-child to be baptized, when they can be had, two Godfathers and one Godmother: and for every Female, one Godfather and two Godmothers; and Parents shall be admitted as Sponsors, if it be desired.

¶ When the foregoing Office is used for Adults, the address to the Godfathers and Godmothers shall be omitted, and the Persons to be baptized shall themselves make answer to the Questions, as follows:

Dost thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all; and, by God's help, will endeavour not to follow, nor be led by them.

Minister. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Answer. That is my desire.

Minister. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

¶ When any such Persons as are of riper years are to be baptized, timely notice shall be given to the Minister: that so due care may be taken for their examination, whether they be sufficiently instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselves, with Prayers and Fasting, for the receiving of this holy Sacrament.

¶ And Note that at the time of the Baptism of an Adult, there shall be present with him at the Font at least two Witnesses.

¶ It is expedient that every Person, thus baptized, should be confirmed by the Bishop, so soon after his Baptism as conveniently may be; that so he may be admitted to the Holy Communion.

¶ When necessity requires it, in consideration of extreme sickness, then the following form shall suffice:—

The Child (or Person) being named by some one who is present, the Minister shall pour Water upon him, saying these words:

N. I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

After which shall be said the Lord's Prayer, and the Thanksgiving from the Office, beginning, We yield thee hearty thanks, etc.

¶ If a child or Person so baptized be afterward brought to the Church, these parts of the foregoing service shall be used:

The Gospel, the Questions (omitting the question "Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?" and the answer thereto,) the Declaration, "We receive this Child (or Person)," etc., and the remainder of the office.

¶ If there be reasonable doubt whether any person were baptized with water, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost (which are essential parts of Baptism), such person may be baptized in the manner herein appointed; saving that, at the immersion or the pouring of water, the Minister shall use this form of words:

If thou art not already baptized, N., I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

THE ORDER OF CONFIRMATION

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order of Confirmation, or Laying on of Hands upon those who are Baptized, and Come to Years of Discretion, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(1) Amend the first rubric, page 273, so as to read as follows:

¶ Upon the day appointed, all that are to be confirmed shall stand in order before the Bishop sitting in his chair near to the Holy Table, the people all standing until the Lord's Prayer; and the Minister shall say,

Reverend Father in God, I present unto you these persons to receive the Laying on of Hands.

(2) Omit from the Office the Preface, now standing on page 273 of the Prayer Book.

(3) On page 274, strike out from and including

"¶ Then shall the Bishop say, Do ye here," etc., to and including "¶ And every one shall audibly answer, I do"; and insert in lieu thereof the following:

¶ Then shall the Bishop say unto those who are to be confirmed,

Bishop. Dost thou here, in the presence of God, and of this congregation renew the solemn promise and vow of your Baptism?

Answer. I do.

Bishop. Dost thou then renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all; and, by God's help, will endeavour not to follow, nor be led by them.

Bishop. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Bishop. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

¶ The Bishop shall then confirm them on this wise.

(4) In the prayer "Defend, O Lord," etc., omit the words in parentheses, or this thy servant.

(6) Transpose the third rubric on page 275 and place it below "Let us pray" and make it read as follows:—

¶ Then shall the Bishop say the Lord's Prayer, the people kneeling and repeating it with him.

(6a) Amend the Lord's Prayer, by adding the Doxology.

(7) Strike out the fourth rubric on page 275 and insert

¶ Then shall the Bishop say:

MATRIMONY

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Form of Solemnization of Matrimony, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(1) Transfer the first two rubrics, page 277, to the end of the Office.

(2) In the Exhortation, page 277, omit the following words:

b. "in the time of man's innocency," lines 5 and 6.

(4) Make the promises of the Man and of the Woman, page 278, identical in form, and in each case after the word "Matrimony" make the promise to read as follows:

"Wilt thou love him, comfort him, honour, and keep him in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?"

(5) Amend the last rubric on page 278 by substituting the word "may" for the word "shall."

(6) Insert after the words "Who giveth this Woman to be married to this Man?" a rubric as follows:

¶ Here may be sung a Hymn or an Anthem.

(7) Omit from the first rubric on page 279 the words "receiving the Woman at her father's or friend's hands."

(8) Make the sentences of espousal, page 279, identical in form as far as the words "and thereto", so that in each case, after the word "health," it shall read: "to love, and to cherish, till death us do part," etc.

(9) Amend the sentence in regard to the ring, page 279, by omitting the words "and with all my worldly goods I thee endow."

(10) Add a rubric after the giving of the ring, as follows:—

¶ And Note that before delivering the ring to the man, the Minister may say as follows:—

Bless, O Lord, this ring, that he who gives it and she who wears it may abide in thy peace, and continue in thy favour, unto their life's end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(11) In place of what now stands between the giving of the ring and the Lord's Prayer, insert as follows:

Let us pray.

¶ Then shall the Minister and the people, standing, say the Lord's Prayer.

(11a) Amend the Lord's Prayer by adding "for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever."

(12) After the Lord's Prayer, print this rubric.

Then shall the Minister add:

(13) Omit in the prayer on page 280, after the word "that" in line 5, the words "as Isaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, so these persons," and substitute for the words so omitted the words "they, living faithfully together."

(14) Amend the last rubric on page 280 so as to read as follows:

¶ The Man and Wife kneeling, the Minister shall add this Blessing:

(15) Insert after the prayer, "O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver," p. 280 of the Prayer Book, the following rubric:

¶ The Minister may add one or both of the following prayers:

O Almighty God, Creator of mankind, who only art the well-spring of life; Bestow upon these thy servants, if it be thy will, the gift and heritage of children; and grant that they may see their children brought up in thy faith and fear to the honour and glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, who hast consecrated the state of matrimony that in it is signified and represented the spiritual marriage and unity betwixt Christ and his Church; Look mercifully upon these thy servants, that they may love, honour, and cherish each other, and so live together in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and of peace; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen

THE CHURCHING OF WOMEN

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Form of The Churching of Women, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(1) That in the prayer at the end of the Office, line 6 (page 304 of the Prayer Book) the petition be amended, so that it will read:

"Grant, we beseech thee, most merciful Father, that she, through thy help, may faithfully live according to thy will in this life, and also may be," etc.

(2) Print the title with "Thanksgiving of Women after Childbirth" in large type and "Churching of Women" in small.

(3) Insert at the end of Office the rubric:

¶ Then may be said:

Grant, we beseech thee, O heavenly Father, that the child of this thy servant may daily increase in wisdom and stature, and grow in thy love and service, until he come to thy eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VISITATION OF THE SICK

Resolved: That the Order for the Visitation of the Sick be amended to read as follows, and that the Order, as amended, be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

THE ORDER FOR THE VISITATION OF THE SICK

¶ The following service, or any part thereof, may be used at the discretion of the Minister

¶ When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish; who, coming into the sick person's presence, shall say,

PEACE be to this house, and to all that dwell in it.

After which he shall say the Antiphon following, and, according to his discretion, one of the Penitential Psalms (6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143).

Antiphon: Remember not, Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our fore-fathers.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. O Lord, save thy servant.

Answer. Who putteth his trust in thee.

Minister. Send him help from thy holy place.

Answer. And evermore mightily defend him.

Minister. Let the enemy have no advantage of him.

Answer. Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

Minister. Be unto him, O Lord, a strong tower.

Answer. From the face of his enemy.

Minister. O Lord, hear our prayer.

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

O LORD, look down from heaven, behold, visit, and relieve this thy servant. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy, give him comfort and sure confidence in thee, defend him in all danger, and keep him in perpetual peace and safety; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then may the Minister say the Antiphon and Psalm following with the Collect, or such of the subsequent Psalms and Collects as he shall see fit.

Antiphon: I did call upon the LORD with my voice; and he heard me out of his holy hill.

PSALM 3. Domine, quid multiplicati?

Lord, how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me. Many one there be that say of my soul: There is no help for him in his God.

But thou, O LORD, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.

I did call upon the LORD with my voice: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

I laid me down and slept, and rose up again: for the LORD sustained me.

Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: and thy blessing is upon thy people.

Hear us, almighty and most merciful God and Saviour; extend thy accustomed goodness to this thy servant who is grieved with sickness. Visit him, O Lord, with thy loving mercy, and so restore him to his former health that he may give thanks unto thee in thy Holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: I will go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

PSALM 43. Judica me Deus

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people: O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

For thou art the God of my strength; why hast thou put me from thee: and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness: and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

Why art thou so heavy, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

O put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Sanctify, we beseech thee, O Lord, the sickness of this thy servant; that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance; and grant that he may dwell with thee in life everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: I have considered the days of old and the years that are past.

PSALMS 77. Voce mea ad Dominum

I will cry unto God with my voice: even unto God will I cry with my voice, and he shall hearken unto me.

In the time of my trouble I sought the LORD: my sore ran, and ceased not in the night season; my soul refused comfort.

When I am in heaviness, I will think upon God: when my heart is vexed, I will complain.

Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so feeble that I cannot speak.

I have considered the days of old: and the years that are past.

I call to remembrance my song: and in the night I commune with mine own heart, and search out my spirit.

Will the LORD absent himself for ever: and will he be no more entreated?

Is his mercy clean gone for ever: and is his promise come utterly to an end for evermore?

Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut up his loving-kindness in displeasure?

And I said, It is mine own infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most Highest.

Hear, O Lord, we beseech thee, these our prayers, as we call upon thee on behalf of this thy servant; and bestow upon him the help of thy merciful consolation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me.

PSALM 138. Confitebor tibi

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving-kindness and truth: for thou hast magnified thy Name, and thy word above all things.

When I called upon thee, thou heardest me: and enduedst my soul with much strength.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

The LORD shall make good his loving-kindness toward me: yea, thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever; despise not then the works of thine own hands.

O God, the strength of the weak and the comfort of sufferers; Mercifully accept our prayers, and grant to thy servant the help of thy power, that his sickness may be turned into health and our sorrow into joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Antiphon: The Lord saveth thy life from destruction and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

PSALM 103. Benedic, anima mea

Praise the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, praise his holy Name.

Praise the LORD, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thy sin: and healeth all thine infirmities;

Who saveth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

O praise the LORD, ye angels of his, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his word.

O praise the LORD, all ye his hosts: ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

O speak good of the LORD, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the LORD, O my soul.

Accept, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, the devout praise of thy humble servant, and grant him an abiding sense of thy loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Adding this

O Saviour of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us; Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

¶ The following Psalms are suitable, and, at the discretion of the Minister, may be substituted for any of those given above:

20, 27, 42, 91, 121, 146

¶ As occasion demands, the Minister shall address the sick person on the meaning and use of the time of sickness, and the opportunity it affords for spiritual profit.

¶ Here may the Minister inquire of the sick person as to his acceptance of the Christian faith and as to whether he repent him truly of his sins, and be in charity with all the world: exhorting him to forgive, from the bottom of his heart, all persons that have offended him, and if he hath offended any other, to ask them forgiveness; and where he hath done injury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the uttermost of his power.

¶ Then shall the sick person be moved to make a special confession of his sins, if he feel his conscience troubled with any matter; after which confession, on evidence of his repentance, the Minister shall assure him of God's mercy and forgiveness.

Let us pray.

O most merciful God, who, according to the multitude of thy mercies, dost so put away the sins of those who truly repent, that thou rememberest them no more; Open thine eye of mercy upon this thy servant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiveness. Renew in him, most loving Father, whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailness; preserve and continue this sick member in the unity of the Church; consider his contrition, accept his tears, assuage his pain, as shall seem to thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full trust only in thy mercy, impute not unto him his former sins but strengthen him with thy blessed Spirit and, when thou art pleased to take him hence, take him unto thy favour; through the merits of thy most dearly beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

The Almighty Lord, who is a most strong tower to all those who put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey, Be now and evermore thy defence; and make thee know and feel, that there is none other Name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, thou mayest receive health and salvation, but only the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Here the Minister may use any part of the service of this Book, which, in his discretion, he shall think convenient to the occasion; and after that shall say,

Unto God's gracious mercy and protection we commit thee The LORD bless thee, and keep thee. The LORD make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

Prayers which may be said with the foregoing Service, or any part thereof, at the discretion of the Minister.

A Prayer for Recovery

O God of heavenly powers, who, by the might of thy command, drivest away from men's bodies all sickness and all infirmity; Be present in thy goodness with this thy servant, that his weakness may be banished and his strength recalled; that his health being thereupon restored, he may bless thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Healing

O Almighty God, who art the giver of all health, and the aid of them that turn to thee for succour; we entreat thy strength and goodness in behalf of this thy servant, that he may be healed of his infirmities, to thine honour and glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for the beginning of a Recovery

Great and mighty God, who bringest down to the grave, and bringest up again; We bless thy wonderful goodness, for having turned our heaviness into joy and our mourning into gladness, by restoring this our brother to some degree of his former health. Blessed by thy Name that thou didst not forsake him in his sickness; but didst visit him with comforts from above; didst support him in patience and submission to thy will; and at last didst send him seasonable relief. Perfect, we beseech thee, this thy mercy towards him; and prosper the means which shall be made use of for his cure: that, being restored to health of body, vigour of mind, and cheerfulness of spirit, he may be able to go to thine house, to offer thee an oblation with great gladness, and to bless thy holy Name for all thy goodness towards him; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit be all honour and glory world without end. Amen.

A Prayer for a sick Person, when there appeareth but small hope of recovery.

O Father of mercies, and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We fly unto thee for succour in behalf of this thy servant, here lying in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him, O Lord; and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we beseech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit in the inner man. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errors of his life past, and stedfast faith in thy Son Jesus; that his sins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in heaven; through the same thy Son, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer for the Despondent

Comfort, we beseech thee, most gracious God, this thy servant, cast down and faint of heart amidst the sorrows and difficulties of the world; and grant that by the power of thy Holy Spirit he may be enabled to go upon his way rejoicing, and give thee continual thanks for thy sustaining providence; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer which may be said by the Minister in behalf of all present at the Visitation

O God, whose days are without end, and whose mercies cannot be numbered; Make us, we beseech thee, deeply sensible of the shortness and uncertainty of human life; and let thy Holy Spirit lead us in holiness and righteousness, all our days: that, when we shall have served thee in our generation, we may be gathered unto our fathers, having the testimony of a good conscience; in the communion of the Catholic Church; in the confidence of a certain faith; in the comfort of a reasonable, religious and holy hope; in favour with thee our God, and in perfect charity with the world. All which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Commendatory Prayer for a sick Person at the point of departure

O Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly prisons; We humbly commend the soul of this thy servant, our dear brother, into thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creator, and most merciful Saviour; beseeching thee, that it may be precious in thy sight. Wash it, we pray thee, in the blood of that immaculate Lamb, that was slain to take away the sins of the world; that whatsoever defilements it may have contracted through the lusts of the flesh, or the wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be presented pure and without spot before thee; through the merits of Jesus Christ thine only Son our Lord. Amen.

A LITANY FOR THE DYING

O God the Father;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
O God the Son;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
O God the Holy Ghost;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
O Holy Trinity, One God;
Have mercy upon the soul of thy servant.
From all evil, from all sin, from all tribulation;
Good Lord, deliver him.
By the holy Incarnation, by the Cross and Passion, by thy precious Death and Burial;
Good Lord, deliver him.
By thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension, and by the coming of the Holy Ghost;
Good Lord, deliver him.
We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God; That it may please thee to deliver the soul of thy servant from the power of the evil one, and from eternal death;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
That it may please thee mercifully to pardon all his sins.
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
That it may please thee to grant him a place of refreshment and everlasting blessedness;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
That it may please thee to give him joy and gladness in thy kingdom, with thy saints in light;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;
Have mercy upon him.
O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;
Have mercy upon him.
O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;
Grant him thy peace.
Lord have mercy upon him.
Christ have mercy upon him.
Lord have mercy upon him.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Let us pray.

O Sovereign Lord, who desirest not the death of a sinner; We beseech thee to loose the spirit of this thy servant from every bond and set him free from all evil, that he may rest with all thy saints in the eternal habitations; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

An Absolution to be said by the Priest

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant thee pardon and remission of all thy sins, and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Commendation

Depart, O Christian soul, out of this world, in the Name of God the Father Almighty who created thee, in the Name of Jesus Christ who redeemed thee, in the Name of the Holy Ghost who sanctifieth thee. May thy rest be this day in peace, and thy dwelling place in the Paradise of God.

A Commendatory Prayer when the Soul is Departed

Into thy hands, O merciful Saviour, we commend the soul of thy servant, now departed from the body. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech thee, a sheep of thine own fold, a lamb of thine own flock, a sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of thy mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

¶ The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people, whilst they are in health, to make wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave bequests for religious and charitable uses.

THE ORDER FOR THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for the Burial of the Dead, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(1) Omit the first rubric on page 294.

(2) In the second rubric, page 294, change the word "Corpse" to "Body"; and strike out the words "at the entrance of the Churchyard."

(3) Omit the references to chapter and verse at the end of the opening Anthems.

(4) Insert after the first Sentence, page 294, the following:

Into thy hands I commend my spirit; for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

(5) Amend the Sentence "I know that my redeemer liveth," page 294, to read as follows:

"I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth, and though this body be destroyed, yet shall I see God, whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not as a stranger."

(6) Amend the rubric before the Selections from the Psalms, page 294, so that it shall read as follows:

¶ After they are come into the Church, shall be said one or more of the following Selections taken from the Psalms. The Gloria Patri may be omitted except at the end of the whole portion or selection from the Psalter.

(7) Prefix to the first Selection, page 294, the title, PSALM 39. Dixi, Custodiam; and to the second Selection, page 295, the title, PSALM 90. Domine, refugium.

(8) Strike out the Gloria Patri at the end of the first and second Selections.

(9) Add the following selections from the Psalms.

PSALM 27. Dominus illuminatio

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear: the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

One thing have I desired of the LORD, which I will require: even that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the LORD, and to visit his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me up upon a rock of stone.

And now shall he lift up mine head: above mine enemies round about me.

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation, with great gladness: I will sing and speak praises unto the LORD.

Hearken unto my voice, O LORD, when I cry unto thee: have mercy upon me, and hear me.

My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

O hide not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

Thou hast been my succour: leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

I should utterly have fainted: but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

O tarry thou the LORD's leisure: be strong and he shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the LORD.

PSALM 46. Deus noster refugium

God is our hope and strength: a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof rage and swell and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most Highest.

God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed: God shall help her, and that right early.

Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

The LORD of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Also PSALM 121, Levavi oculos, and PSALM 130, De profundis.

(10) Omit from the Lesson from 1 Cor. xv. vs. 29–34, and divide what remains into paragraphs as follows:

(a) vv. 20–28, to "that God may be all in all."

(b) 35–49, to "the image of the heavenly."

(c) 50, to the end.

For the word "fool" substitute "foolish one" and for "his own body" substitute "its own body."

(11) Insert alternate lessons immediately after the lesson from 1 Cor. xv, page 298, as follows:

Or this.

Rom. viii. 14.

As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoptlon, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

¶ Or this.

St. John 14, 1–6, introduced by the words "Jesus said."

(12) Immediately after the Lesson, page 298 of the Prayer Book, add a new section for the close of the Office in Church, as follows:

¶ Here may be sung a Hymn or Anthem; and at the discretion of the Minister the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the prayer which follows and such other fitting Prayers as are elsewhere provided in this Book, ending with the Blessing.

The Lord be with you.

And with thy Spirit.

Let us pray.

Remember thy servant, O Lord, according to the favour which thou bearest unto thy people, and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, he may go from strength to strength, in the life of perfect service in thy heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall add this Blessing.

Unto God's gracious mercy and protection we commit you. The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

(13) In the rubric "When they come to the Grave," page 298, substitute "Body" for "Corpse."

(14) After the Anthem "Man, that is born," page 298, insert the following rubric and Anthem:

¶ Or this

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me: and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

He that raised up Jesus from the dead: will also quicken your mortal bodies by the spirit which dwelleth in you.

Wherefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

Thou shalt show me the path of life; in thy presence is the fulness of joy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

(15) Strike out from the form of the Committal, page 299, the words from and including "Forasmuch" to and including "second coming," and insert in their place the following:

Unto Almighty God we commend the soul of our brother departed, and we commit his body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection unto eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose coming . . .

(16) After the first rubric on page 300, insert the following:

The Lord be with you.
Answer: And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.

(17) Amend the rubric after the Lord's Prayer, page 300, so as to read as follows:

¶ Then the Minister shall say one or more of the following Prayers, at his discretion.

(18) After the rubric "Then the Minister shall say," page 300, insert the following Prayer:

O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered; Accept our prayers on behalf of the soul of thy servant departed, and grant him an entrance into the land of light and joy in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(19) Substitute for "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ," page 301, the following

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant; Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(20) After the title Additional Prayers, page 301, insert the following Prayer:

O Almighty God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, who by a voice from heaven didst proclaim, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; Multiply, we beseech thee, to those who rest in Jesus, the manifold blessings of thy love, that the good work which thou didst begin in them may be perfected unto the day of Jesus Christ. And of thy mercy, O heavenly Father, vouchsafe that we, who now serve thee here on earth, may at last, together with them, be found meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; for the sake of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(21) Immediately before the rubric "Inasmuch," page 302, insert the following Prayer:

For the Blessing of a Grave

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to bless this grave in which we are about to lay the body of thy servant; through the same thy blessed Son, who is the resurrection and the life, and who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

(22) Amend the second rubric and what follows on page 302 so that it shall read:

¶ The same office may be used, but instead of the sentence of committal, the Minister shall say:

Unto Almighty God we commend the soul of our brother departed, and we commit his body to the deep; in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection unto eternal life, through our Lord, Jesus Christ, at whose coming . . .

(23) That at the end of the foregoing Office there be added the following Order for the Burial of a Child.

¶ The Minister, meeting the Body, and going before it, either into the Church or towards the Grave, shall say:

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die.

Jesus called them unto him and said, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arms, and carry them in his bosom.

¶ When they are coming into the Church, shall be said the following Psalms; and at the end of eaeh Psalm shall be said the

Gloria Patri;

PSALM 23. Dominus regit me

PSALM 121. Levavi oculos

¶ Then shall follow the Lesson from Matt. xviii.

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my father which is in heaven.

¶ Here may be sung a Hymn or an Anthem; then the Minister may say the following prayers or such other fitting prayers as are elsewhere provided in this book, first pronouncing:

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ Then shall be said by the Minister and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. Blessed are the pure in heart.
Answer. For they shall see God.
Minister. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

Answer. Henceforth, world without end.
Minister. Lord, hear our prayer.
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

O Merciful Father, whose face the angels of thy little ones do always behold in heaven; Grant us steadfastly to believe that this thy child hath been taken into the safe keeping of thine eternal love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and merciful Father, who dost grant to children an abundant entrance into thy kingdom; Grant us grace so as to conform our lives to their innocency and perfect faith, that at length, united with them, we may stand in thy presence in fulness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶ When they are come to the grave shall be said or sung:

Jesus saith to his disciples, Ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

¶ While the earth shall be cast upon the body, the Minister shall say:

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commit the body of this child to the ground. The Lord bless him and keep him, the Lord make his face to shine upon him and be gracious unto him, the Lord lift up his countenance upon him, and give him peace, both now and evermore.

¶ Then shall be said or sung:

Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

¶ Then shall the Minister say:

The Lord be with you.
Answer: And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.

O God, whose most dear Son did take little children unto his arms and bless them; Give us grace, we beseech thee, to entrust the soul of this child to thy never-failing care and love, and bring us all to thy heavenly kingdom; through the same thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, Father of mercies and giver of all comfort, deal graciously, we pray thee, with all those who mourn, that, casting every care on thee, they may know the consolation of thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

May Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, bless you and keep you now and for evermore. Amen.

¶ Inasmuch as it may sometimes be expedient to say under shelter of the Church the whole of the service appointed to be said at the Grave, the same is hereby allowed, for weighty cause.

THE PSALTER

Resolved, That the text of the Psalter be amended and revised in the particulars herewith submitted in the Report of the Psalter Committee which is annexed to the Report of the Prayer Book Commission; together with such further verbal changes, or changes in punctuation, capitalization, or arrangement as may seem to the Commission to be demanded for accuracy or clarity in perfecting the revision for final insertion in the Book of Common Prayer; and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several dioceses in order that it may be adopted at the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

THE ORDINAL

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Ordinal, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X. of the Constitution.

(1) In the first rubric in the FORM FOR MAKING DEACONS, page 510, ORDERING PRIESTS, page 514, and for CONSECRATING A BISHOP, page 523, omit the words "after Morning Prayer is ended."

(2) In the second rubric, page 510, insert at the beginning "The Sermon being ended."

(3) Amend the sixth rubric (page 510 of Prayer Book) by adding:—"And Note, That after the suffrage That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, etc., shall be said the following suffrage: That it may please thee to bless these thy servants, now to be admitted to the Order of Deacons, and to pour thy grace upon them; that they may duly execute their office, to the edifying of thy Church, and the glory of thy holy Name; And Note further, That in the discretion of the Bishop, instead of the General Litany, may be said the Special Litany for Ordinations."

(4) In printing the ORDINAL, omit the Litany and the Order for Holy Communion, and in place of the Litany insert the special Litany for Ordinations.

(5) Adopt the following Form as the Litany for Ordinations, to take the place of what is now on pages 530–533 of the Prayer Book.

LITANY AND SUFFRAGES FOR ORDINATIONS

O God the Father,
Have mercy upon us.
O God the Son,
Have mercy upon us.
O God the Holy Ghost,
Have mercy upon us.
O Holy Trinity, One God,
Have mercy upon us.

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord; and that it may please thee to grant peace to the whole world, and to thy Church;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to sanctify and bless thy holy Church throughout the world;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to inspire all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons with love of thee and of thy truth;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue all Ministers of thy Church with devotion to thy glory and to the salvation of souls;
We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

(At the Ordination of Deacons or of Priests.)

That it may please thee to bless these thy servants, now to be admitted to the Order of Deacons (or Priests) and to pour thy grace upon them; that they may duly execute their office to the edifying of thy Church and to the glory of thy holy Name;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

(At the Consecration of a Bishop.)

That it may please thee to bless this our Brother elected, and to send thy grace upon him, that he may duly execute the Office whereunto he is called, to the edifying of thy Church, and to the honour, praise, and glory of thy Name;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to guide by thy indwelling Spirit those whom thou dost call to the Ministry of thy Church, that they may go forward with courage and persevere unto the end;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to increase the number of the Ministers of thy Church, that the Gospel may be preached to all people;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to hasten the fulfilment of thy purpose that thy Church may be one;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant that we, with all thy saints, may be partakers of thy everlasting kingdom;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. Hearken unto our voice, O Lord, when we cry unto thee;
Answer. Have mercy upon us and hear us.
Minister. O Lord, arise, help us;
Answer. And deliver us for thy Name's sake.
Minister. Let thy Priests be clothed with righteousness;
Answer. And let thy saints sing with joyfulness.
Minister. Lord, hear our prayer;
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O God, who dost ever hallow and protect thy Church; Raise up therein, through thy Spirit, good and faithful stewards of the mysteries of Christ, that by their ministry and example thy people may abide in thy favor and be guided in the way of truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

(6) Amend the second rubric on page 511 so as to read as follows:

¶ Then, the People being seated, the Bishop shall examine every one of those who are to be Ordered, in the presence of the People, after this manner following.

(7) Change the first Question and Answer on page 512 of the Prayer Book to conform with the Question and Answer in the Ordination of Priests, as follows:

Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ?

Answer. I am so persuaded.

(8) Amend the first rubric on page 512 so as to read as follows:

¶ Then, the People standing, the Bishop shall lay his hands severally upon the head of every one to be made Deacon, humbly kneeling before him, and shall say,

(9) In the third question on page 512, omit the words "to intimate their estates, names, and places where they dwell, unto the Curate, that by his exhortation," and insert the word "that" before the words "they may be."

(10) Amend the rubric at the bottom of page 514 of the Prayer Book, by placing a period after the word Litany in line 3, and substituting in place of what there follows, this, viz.:—And Note, That after the suffrage That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, etc., shall be said the following suffrage:

That it may please thee to bless these thy servants, now to be admitted to the Order of Priests, and to pour thy grace upon them; that they may duly exercise their office, to the edifying of thy Church, and the glory of thy holy Name;

And Note further, That in the discretion of the Bishop, instead of the General Litany, may be said the special Litany for Ordinations.

(11) Amend the Collect on page 515 by striking out in the third line the word "the" before "Church" and inserting in the place of it the word "thy."

(11a) Amend Gospel in the Form of Ordering Priests, page 515 of the Prayer Book, St. John 10, so as to read:

"I am the good shepherd and know my sheep and am known of mine, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father."

And lower down change the word "fold" into "flock" so as to read "one flock and one shepherd".

(12) Amend the rubric on page 516 so as to read as follows:

¶ Then, the People being seated, the Bishop shall say unto those who are to be ordained Priests as followeth.

(15) Amend the third rubric on page 519 so as to read as follows:

¶ After which, the persons to be ordained Priests kneeling, and others standing, the Bishop shall sing or say, Veni, Creator Spiritus; the Bishop beginning, and the Priests, and others that are present, answering by verses, as followeth.

(16) Substitute for the longer form of the Veni, Creator Spiritus, pages 519–521 of the Prayer Book the following translation of the Hymn (New Hymnal, No. 375):

1. Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
   Vouchsafe within our souls to rest;
   Come with thy grace and heavenly aid,
   And fill the hearts which thou hast made.
2. To thee, the Comforter, we cry;
   To thee, the Gift of God most high;
   The Fount of life, the Fire of love,
   The soul's Anointing from above.
3. The sevenfold gifts of grace are thine,
   O Finger of the Hand Divine;
   True promise of the Father thou,
   Who dost the tongue with speech endow.
4. Thy light to every sense impart,

And shed thy love in every heart;
Thine own unfailing might supply
To strengthen our infirmity.

5. Drive far away our ghostly foe,
And thine abiding peace bestow;
If thou be our preventing Guide,
No evil can our steps betide.

(17) On page 528, amend the rubric to read, "¶ Or else the alternative paraphrase of the same Hymn, as printed in the Ordering of Priests."

(18) In the first rubric on page 519, after the word "then" insert the words "all standing", and after the word "Bishop" strike out the words "standing up."

(19) Amend the rubric beginning at the foot of page 522 by striking out the second sentence beginning with the words: "The Collects shall both be used," and at the end of the rubric insert the following: "The Collect shall be as followeth."

The Collect

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by the Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold these thy servants now called to the Office of Deacon and these thy servants now called to the Office of Priest; and so replenish them with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that, both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve thee in their Ministry, to the glory of thy Name, and the edification of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

(20) Insert the following rubric immediately after the suffrage and response at the top of page 526 of the Prayer Book:

¶ And Note, That in the discretion of the Bishop presiding, instead of the General Litany, may be said the Special Litany for Ordinations, in which case the above proper Suffrage shall be used.

(21) Amend the third rubric on page 526 by inserting after the word "Then" the words "the People being seated".

(22) Amend the first rubric on page 528 so that it shall read:

¶ Then shall the Bishop-elect put on the rest of the Episcopal habit, and shall kneel down; and Veni, Creator Spiritus shall be sung or said over him; the Bishop Presiding shall begin, and the Bishops, and the others that are present standing, shall answer by verses, as followeth.

AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED AT THE CONVENTION OF 1922, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1925

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution:

Amend Article VIII. of the Constitution by adding immediately after the Declaration of Conformity the following words: "If any Bishop ordains a Priest or Deacon to minister elsewhere than in this Church, he shall do so only in accordance with such provisions as shall be set forth in the Canons."

The Third Annual Report

OF THE

Department of Missions

OF THE

Executive Council

To the Executive Council:

The Department of Missions has had a busy year, and if all the desired advance movements have not been made, at least we are learning how to serve under the new Canon, and we hope to make a greater forward movement in the present and coming years.

There is much difficulty in establishing new Mission stations, partly because central positions are not easily found, and partly because there is not money enough to buy. We feel deeply the need. In nearly every part of our City and in the whole Diocese there is an abundant opportunity. Perhaps the tendency is to adopt too pretentious plans. Probably a Sunday School started in a house and gradually, under a lay reader, drawing neglected children together, and then through the children reaching the parents, would be the wiser plan. Certainly to build Churches and Rectories before any real congregation is gathered can hardly be wise either religiously or economically.

Several motions, noted later, will prove that new methods have been discussed and adopted. As a whole the Missions of the Diocese are doing well. We believe, however, that more use could be made of our lay readers, and we trust a Lay Readers' Association under some earnest and competent man may soon be formed. Several of our best Missions are now cared for by lay readers and with happy results. One of our problems is still with us, namely, the "aided Parish" Churches, once prosperous and now bereft of a supporting congregation, are too sacred to abandon, and yet too costly to keep up and support from general Diocesan funds. It is a question worthy of consideration whether such Parishes might not be grouped, two or three under one Minister. Financially, and probably in some cases spiritually, the Churches thus grouped would be better off. We believe that the whole matter of our Mission stations and of our aided Parishes should be wisely studied and wiser plans for their care should be adopted.

With the recent coming of Archdeacon White there is much assurance of a better oversight being given to our Racial work. Already the Archdeacon has grasped the situation in many particulars, and we believe great good will result. There have been too many committees associated with and caring for some of our Racial undertakings, and consequently there has been a lack of definite leadership.

The Department believes that if the assignment of Missionaries could be brought more clearly under its care much better progress could be made. The Deans of Convocations and many other members of the Department know the Missions and their needs, and could judge wisely as to the kind of a Minister needed. Particularly do we think it unwise to assign Ministers who are without a charge, and who may not belong to this Diocese, to Mission stations where a man well known and tried in our own Diocese might do better work. Realizing the delicacy of this suggestion, we make it in the interests of a finer and more successful prosecution of the Mission work of our Diocese.

Proposed New Buildings

(a) The Department approved of the erection of a Parish House and Rectory for S. Giles' Mission, Stonehurst, and appointed a committee to consider the matter further, with authority to recommend to the Executive Council the appropriation of $10,000, as a grant, from the principal of the George C. Thomas Fund towards the erection of these buildings.

(b) Approval was given for the erection of a Parish House for S. Gabriel's Mission, Feltonville, with funds now in hand, with funds that can be raised by mortgage, and with money that can be obtained in any other way.

(c) It was recommended to the Executive Council that a Parish House be begun for S. Barnabas' Mission, Germantown, with funds now in hand for that purpose.

(d) The sum of $2000 was appropriated, as of 1923, for the purchase of a building for the Mission for Colored People at West Chester.

Committee on General Missions

For the purpose of stimulating interest in and increasing the offerings for the Missionary work of the Church, the Department appointed as one of its standing committees a Committee on General Missions. This committee has been organized and much can be expected from it when it has had time to put its plans in operation.

Exchange Sunday

Another suggestion proposed by the Department is that the Sunday after Ascension Day be called "Exchange Sunday", and that Rectors take the service in the Missions of the Diocese and permit the Missionaries to speak to their congregations. The purpose of this suggestion is to bring the Rectors into more direct contact with diocesan Missionary work, and to give the people in our larger Parishes an opportunity to become better acquainted with the work being done in the Missions. Although this is the first year that this plan has been carried out, the response is most encouraging.

Recommendations

(a) The Department of Missions recommends the adoption of the following Missionary Budget for 1924:

Convocations

Chester	$9,700.00
Norristown	7,713.90
Germantown	6,500.00
West Philadelphia	1,870.00
North Philadelphia	6,747.00
South Philadelphia	1,000.00
		$33,530.90

Racial Work

Colored	$9,468.16
French Church	833.33
Italians	7,500.00

Convocation Reports

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Dean's Report

Trinity Church, Collingdale, has had a most successful year. Under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Henry Davies considerable advancement has been made. The need of a larger, more substantial and more imposing building is greatly felt. It is hoped that the Diocese will be able to render substantial aid in the accomplishment of this desirable object.

All Saints', Darby, is still prospering under the faithful ministry of The Rev. Charles A. Ricksecker. The Mission has been put to very great expense in the necessary grading of the lot, through the widening of Summit Street. Could the Diocese at this time start the erection of the promised Church it would be most economical and opportune.

The Incarnation, Drexel Hill, is looking forward to the erection or purchase of a Rectory. With the Missionary residing near the Church, it is believed that his influence in the community will be increased. The success of this Mission has been remarkable.

S. Luke's, Eddystone, has been in charge of the Dean and has not been at any expense to the Diocese. Since the change of the hour of service from 11 A. M. to 9 A. M. the congregations have somewhat increased. The Dean and a lay reader from S. Paul's, Chester, alternate in the holding of these services weekly.

S. John's, Essington, is served by the Rector of Christ Church, Ridley Park. This is a somewhat difficult problem, but it is being met with great faithfulness and efficiency.

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, has outgrown its building and is looking forward to enlargement, or replacement, in the future.

Through its cottage meetings, S. Mark's, Honeybrook, is reaching the people of this scattered community. The Rector, Mr. Holcombe, is indefatigable in his endeavor to serve.

At Advent, Kennett, Mr. Warren has awakened considerable interest in the Church and has been successful in reorganizing and increasing the Sunday School. From this point he also serves S. John's, Kelton, and S. Andrew's, Oxford.

At Parkesburg, the Rev. A. A. Lamb of Trinity, Coatesville, has a service every Sunday which is well attended and wonderfully rendered. A healthy Sunday School is also to be found in this Mission.

S. James', Prospect Park, has had a very prosperous year under the leadership and guidance of the Rev. Allen Evans. Unfortunately for the Mission, Mr. Evans has been called to a very important Rectorship in the Diocese of Massachusetts. Quite a sum of money has been accumulated for a Rectory and the Mission is looking forward to becoming a Parish.

S. Giles', Stonehurst, is in a growing community. The Diocese appropriated the sum of $10,000 toward a Rectory which has since been purchased. Plans have been made for the group of buildings which will gradually be erected.

S. Mary's, Warwick, is one of our typical country Churches. It is the center of a small community and has a warm place in the affection of all the people.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The Dean's Report

The Convocation of West Philadelphia has maintained the two Missions which were reported on last year—the Holy Comforter, Forty-eighth Street and Haverford Avenue, and Titus' Mission at Eighty-first Street and Tinicum Avenue. The work at both has been under the care of the Rev. C. W. Schiffer, D.D., with the assistance of a student from the Divinity School.

The Holy Comforter has made substantial progress under Dr. Schiffer's hard work and the year was specially marked by the erection of a small Guild Hall adjoining the old buildings and the Church. This was erected at a cost of about $7000. Of this sum, $5000 was contributed by a devoted communicant of the Mission, and the balance, covering fittings, etc., is being cared for by the Mission. This new building will provide a much-needed workshop for the people and will be productive of much good. The Church also has been painted inside and made very much more cheerful and attractive. This also was cared for by the Mission itself, which deserves much praise for this work.

S. Titus' Mission holds its own in the face of the economic difficulty at present facing that section, through the closing down of the Hog Island plant and the many removals therefrom. But the Missionary Committee believes that the foundation is there for a substantial work in the future. A very happy meeting of the Convocation was held there after the close of last year's Convention, which made every one acquainted with conditions. A meeting of Convocation will be held at the Mission of the Holy Comforter in the near future so all may see the improvements there.

Wynnefield

An effort made to establish a new Mission at Wynnefield during the past year failed owing to difficulties of the site and other contingencies. It seems a shame that it could not have been effected, as even since that date hundreds of houses have been erected and are in course of erection. They are filling up with people fast and there must be a good many Church people among them, as well as others with no Church connection who would form our legitimate field of work.

Springfield Avenue About Fifty-fourth Street

The Parishes directly concerned conducted a survey of the region in the vicinity of Fifty-sixth Street and Springfield Avenue and finally settled on a site at Fifty-eighth Street and Springfield Avenue. This was offered at $50,000 and included a building erected by the Methodist congregation using it, who had formed an alliance with a congregation situated at Woodland Avenue and Fiftieth Street, or thereabouts. This was carefully considered and would have been successfully inaugurated had there been funds available. That opportunity is now past, as the Methodist congregation on Woodland Avenue have sold their Church there to negroes, and moved to the Fifty-eighth Street and Springfield Avenue site. A committee has the matter in hand, and it is hoped some definite step may soon be taken to establish a Mission in this vicinity to care for part of the large population centered there.

THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Dean's Report

The exodus of the old Protestant families from this Convocation goes steadily on, their places being taken by colored people and those of foreign birth, the latter being largely Roman Catholic. It seems to those interested that there are quite enough places of worship for colored people in the Convocation to take care of the need. To provide for scattered colored people, not living near one of our Churches or Chapels, we have obtained an appropriation of $1500 to employ a woman to go in and out among them, trying to bring them into touch with such places of worship, and to help them in any way that offers.

For the people of foreign birth, other than the Italians and French, we are doing little or nothing. For the most part they are actual or nominal adherents of the Roman Catholic Church or the Jewish Synagogue.

While there seems little or no opportunity or need to extend our Missionary work, there might be a great deal done in intensive effort. One feels humiliated that comparatively so little really useful or intelligent Social Service work is being done by the Convocation, but the fact is that neither Convocation, nor Diocese, nor General Church has a comprehensive, workable, or really searching Social Service program.

We grope in the dark, wanting time and courage and intelligence to attack a task so gigantic, so delicate, and so filled with dynamite. We are often still when we ought to speak, and some there are who speak who ought to be silent.

Boot-legging and brothels flourish, and the Church does not speak, or, just as damnably, does not even see.

The parson preaches on one corner and the politician collects his graft on the other, and it is the voice of the politician that is heard and heeded in the centers of city influence. There are human habitations in this part of the city unfit for any child of God; there are dens so low and foul that one does not need to read Dickens to become acquainted with "the low estate of the poor." There must be influences back of all sorts of violations of the law reaching very high to be allowed at all, and we, the Christian people, are supine and indifferent and so grossly culpable. And we, the pastors of souls, hurrying along on our errands of comfort to dear old grandmothers, are so wrapped in our self-isolations and so convinced of the fact that "God's in His heaven and all's right with the world" that we are deaf and dumb and blind to what is all about us.

The "City of Brotherly Love." God save the mark! It must make the angels weep, that phrase.

What to do?

I do not know. I know only that there is a mighty need for somebody to do something. It may be that the Christian Church, that too often dainty and delicate organization, must wade into the mess of human ugliness, muddying its boots and soiling its hands in order, first to find out what it is all about, and next to clean it up. Anyhow there seems nobody else who cares very much.

In the meantime in our clean and comfortable and respectable Churches we sing:

" 'Tis thine to save from perils of perdition
The souls for whom the Lord His life laid down;
Beware lest, slothful to fulfill thy mission,
Thou lose one jewel that should deck His crown,"

And we place the emphasis on " 'Tis thine," God forgive us!

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Dean's Report

The whole organization of the Convocation has been made more effective by the election of a new Executive Board of eleven members, charged with the duty of advancing the missionary, educational, and charitable work; of considering the condition and needs of Missions and feeble Parishes; and of watching for opportunities for development.

The Committee on Publicity has made a careful survey of the missionary work, and issued an illustrated pamphlet dealing with the immediate needs of four Missions which have been the special care of Convocation, and by unanimous vote a forward drive has been launched to raise a fund of $8300 to be used as follows:

For S. Nathanael's	$3,800
S. Ambrose	3,600
S. George's, Richmond	300
S. George's, Venango	600

In each of these places there is a strong, live work going on. If now we can lift the four burdens, we shall free these Missions for effective and permanent work, and we request that these amounts be considered with the other needs by the budget committee.

At. S. Nathanael's an addition is being completed to house a fine pipe organ and provide for a vestry room at a cost of $6800. Part of this money came from the Bishop's Bricks Fund, part from the Advancement Society, and the balance was loaned by the Executive Council, and is to be paid back. Already over $700 has been received for these objects.

With these improvements and continued developments, S. Nathanael's is about to become an independent Parish.

We congratulate the Missionary, the Rev. George R. Miller, who has attained this result after twenty years of faithful service.

Under the Rev. A. J. Arkin, S. George's, Richmond, continues its great work as the center of an outstanding community development. Until 1912 the parish register included both Missions in Richmond and Venango. From 1912 the Chapel at Venango began to keep a separate register which is not included in these figures. We feel that the following statistics covering a period of twenty-one years will be of wide interest:

Baptisms	1,185	Additional in the chapel	185
Confirmed	773	Additional in the chapel	150
Married	213	Additional in the chapel	12
Buried	535	Additional in the chapel	39

Altogether 1164 communicants have been registered, including 80 Italians who are now in the S. Maria Mission.

In addition to its own congregation and Sunday School, S. George's houses a large Polish congregation. Under the Rev. J. B. Panfil this work is constantly expanding, and there is great need for an independent Church building. We hope in some way this will be provided in the near future.

Another important Polish congregation is in the Church of the Advent under the Rev. J. O. Pienionzek.

Next door to this Polish Church is the Hebrew Christian Synagogue under the able leadership of the Rev. John L. Zacker, who is making a great appeal to the Jewish people to complete and fulfil their faith in and through Jesus Christ as Messiah. The Rev. Mr. Zacker's influence and reputation extends far beyond this Diocese, and we believe that through him great results will be accomplished. An important work is also being done for the Roumanians at old S. John's; and for the Italians at the Mission of Santa Maria under the Rev. Silvio G. Biagini. We trust that the relation of all these to the Convocation will become more intimate.

S. George's, Venango, has made remarkable progress under the Rev. A. J. Kilpatrick, who entered upon his duties last September. In four months this Mission has grown in every way. The attendance at Church and Sunday School has more than doubled, a substantial increase has been made in the systematic offerings, and the Mission is now paying half of the Minister's stipend.

One of the outstanding Missions of the Convocation is S. Ambrose's which is the center of great activity and progress. Under the Rev. F. B. Halsey there is steady growth. Forty were confirmed, and over $900 was raised by the people themselves at the bazaar last fall. This made possible the cancelling of the debt on the organ of $925. And in addition this Mission overpaid its Missionary quota. The total contributions for all purposes were $5500. The lifting of the mortgage of $3600 on the valuable Parish House site will set this Mission on its feet for great progress.

The Church of the Messiah, which receives aid from the Convocation, continues its work under the faithful ministrations of the Rev. C. L. Fulforth, who has served this congregation over thirty years.

The entire Diocese should rejoice over the achievements at S. Augustine's for colored people. Under the Rev. H. S. McDuffey the work has constantly developed, and now the last payment has been made on the mortgage which amounted to $10,000. In addition, a substantial sum has been raised for the purchase of a Rectory. S. Augustine's will be consecrated on Whitsunday.

In the Convocation of North Philadelphia there are 33 Episcopal Churches with a total of 16,864 communicants. This district has an enormous population; it is the center of great industries; life in it is at high social and economic pressure, and the Convocation is larger in Churches, Missions, and institutions than all but 18 dioceses of the Church. In addition to the Churches and Missions already mentioned is the great work of the Galilee Mission, our largest institution, the Episcopal Hospital, All Souls' Church for the deaf, S. Agnes' Settlement House, the Boys' Club, and the Sheltering Arms. While these are not technically under the Convocation, yet they are within our borders and are a constant challenge to our special interest and responsibility.

There is also great need for the development of some work among the thousands of students in this part of the city.

Under the efficient direction of Miss Laura Bell the Woman's Aid has accomplished a remarkable work, and has been a constant inspiration to the Convocation, while $1650.41 was raised during the past year, and appropriated by them for particular and pressing needs.

While the January meeting was in session announcement was made that on the same day occurred the death of Mr. Ewing L. Miller, who for many years was most faithful in serving the Convocation; the following minute was adopted and we take this opportunity to record our feelings of sorrow and loss, and our appreciation of his constant interest in the progress of the missionary work.

The startling announcement of the death of Ewing L. Miller on January 23, 1923, was brought by his Rector to the Convocation of North Philadelphia at its regular meeting that same afternoon.

With deep emotion the members present united in prayer and thanksgiving for the good example of their long-time associate who had been a choice vessel of God's grace, and had finished his course in faith.

Ewing Miller's character and career enriched life for many and imparted strength to the various enterprises of the Church with which he was identified.

For years he served as a delegate from S. James' Parish to this Convocation. His sound judgment, administrative ability and constant zeal made him a welcome leader in our counsels and work. He was ever an exemplary mediator between his own strong congregation and the successive new undertakings in our field. His ardent love for Christ shone through his genuine friendliness toward his fellow laborers. He was one of a memorable group of large-hearted able and devoted laymen whose influence was dominant in this great Diocese. He was unswervingly loyal to its Bishops, toiling in season and out at his sacred tasks without remuneration; so busy as to be always willing to do yet more.

With winsome smile and unaffected appreciation of others, he revived drooping spirits and gave fresh impetus to flagging adventures.

He took a personal interest in the development of each missionary enterprise in this populous district, and gave particular attention to the work amongst our colored brethren, continuingly painstaking as a Trustee of their Church property.

Very tenderly we enter this tribute upon our records, and express to his sorrowing family our profound sympathy, praying that the God he loved and served so faithfully may comfort them with a sense of His goodness.

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Dean's Report

The Missions of the Convocation report about the same number of Baptisms, Confirmations and pupils in the Church Schools as last year; the amount of collections and subscriptions is somewhat less.

Two former Missions in Philadelphia are now self-supporting Parishes and S. Andrew's, Somerton, is under the care of the Rector at Bustleton, with a grant of $300 a year from the Convocation.

The Country Centre Mission suffered part of the year through lack of clerical assistance, nevertheless it has more than held its own; Langhorne being able to raise more money for its support in 1923; New Hope is making improvements in its Chapel; land has been bought at Feasterville; the Chapel at Dolington has been remodeled; while at Wrightstown a Sunday School has been started, the new Chapel dedicated, the Community House opened and several retreats have been held.

S. Gabriel's is still on the priority list for a Parish House; the work there is growing, but it would probably develop more rapidly with better equipment; the fund for this purpose is increasing slowly, too slowly for the well being of the Church in this neighborhood.

S. Barnabas', Germantown, has a similar problem and greatly needs a Parish House to carry on the social life of the Mission.

The Chapel at Quakertown has been completely renovated, the cost being borne by the congregation. The priest in charge has added many new families through his work in the surrounding country.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

THE DEAN'S REPORT

The survey of the missionary work in the Convocation is encouraging. Recognizing as we do that rural work advances slowly in comparison to work in more crowded districts, yet the advancement is one which should give the Church great satisfaction.

The Rev. Dr. George W. Lamb, Missionary in charge of the two Missions—Hatboro and Willow Grove—reports encouragingly of the progress of the work, and this progress is reflected in increased offerings for the support of the Missionary. Both Missions, that of the Advent, and S. Anne's have, on account of the year's progress, been able to contribute $100 a year more towards the Missionary's salary. The population around the Mission at Willow Grove is increasing, and the outlook there is promising and hopeful. In the more settled field around the Mission of the Advent, they are not expanding so rapidly, yet the stakes are being strengthened.

At the Epiphany Mission at Royersford the condition seems to be somewhat the same as in the previous year. This is largely due to the depression that has held, for a long time, its heavy hand over this Schuylkill Valley town. There is, however, a very notable event which we wish to record. A debt which for many years has been resting on the Rectory has finally been paid. This has been accomplished through the energy of the Women's Aid of the Convocation, the final payment of which was made by a grant from a fund in the Diocese, held in the hands of the Trustees of the Diocese. Our Missions at the present time are, therefore, without a penny of indebtedness, for which we rejoice.

Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale, combined with Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown, under the care of the Rev. William J. Wilkie, has had a quiet, uneventful time, but characterized by steady progress. Again, reflection of conditions is somewhat seen in the increase on the part of Emmanuel Mission of $100 more this year than last year for the support of the Missionary.

Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, has been under the direction of George H. Randall, General Secretary of the Brotherhood of S. Andrew. Mr. Randall's faithful care of these people is beginning to manifest its fruit, and we believe that good work is being carried on in this field. The Sunday School here is one of the most encouraging phases of this work, and offers to the children of that rather secluded section, that which is so vital to the welfare of all people. Again the result of the year's work under the direction of Mr. Randall manifests itself in a larger amount to be pledged for the support of the work.

Although the work being established at Glenside has not been brought before the Convocation for its consideration, yet it seems proper and right to refer to it at this time. A piece of ground has been purchased and paid for in full, in an important part of this community, and about $5000 is at this time, January 1923, in hand for building purposes.
